REMEMBERING

WELLINGTON T. MARA

August 14, 1916 - October 25, 2005

No one in the history of professional sports enjoyed a career quite like that of Wellington T. Mara. Indeed, it's likely no one in any endeavor was as closely associated with a famed entity for as long as Mara was with the New York Giants.

He was associated with the Giants for 81 consecutive seasons, beginning on Oct. 18, 1925, when the team played its first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets and the city of New York was introduced to professional football. It was on that day that Mara, then nine years old, began a lifetime in football that was dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

On Oct. 25, 2005 – 80 years and one week after that game – Mara passed away from cancer. Faith, family and football were the marrow of Mara's life. He was a deeply religious man who attended Mass daily, deeply loved his family – wife Ann, 11 children and 40 grandchildren – and was the driving force behind the Giants and a central figure in the NFL for eight decades.

It is impossible to overstate the influence Mara had on the Giants and in the NFL. He was one of the most important and influential figures in the history of professional football, a man credited with many of the ideas and innovations that have made the NFL the nation's most popular professional sports league. In 1997, Mara was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his father, Tim Mara, who was a charter member of the Hall of Fame. Wellington Mara attended the induction ceremony then, typically, was back at work the next day.

In 1930, Timothy J. Mara, who had purchased the franchise in 1925, turned over the ownership to his two sons, Jack, 22 and Wellington, who was then 14. Thus began a storied career in ownership that continued until his death. During that time Mara was the foundation of the franchise, and for many years he was the chief decision-maker on all football matters. Mara was involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his eight decades with the team. His first job was as a ballboy at training camp. In time he graduated from on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity.

Until 1965, Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his late brother, Jack, handled the business operations of the team. The Giants played in five NFL Championship Games from 1958-63 and a key to that success was trades engineered by Mara that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosie Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Mara had recommended in 1936. The Giants won the NFL Championship in 1956, and of his championship rings, the only one he ever wore was from that title season.

Mara was instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 21 first place finishes, the most in NFL history, 27 postseason appearances (tying two other franchise for the highest total in league history), six NFL championships, among them the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV titles. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was during World War II, when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

More than 30 years ago he began leaving most football decisions to others, but remained a strong, active and essential presence in the organization.

In addition to serving the Giants admirably for so many years, Mara was an invaluable contributor to the NFL as a member of many ownership committees. He was recognized for always putting the league's interests ahead of what was best for the Giants. From 1971 until 1977 he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and under his leadership the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1981. Mara was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara later served on the Hall of Fame committee, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council. He was a member of the Competition Committee, replacing Vince Lombardi after his death, for one year before leaving to join the Management Council.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Tim, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has continued without interruption to this day. Jack Mara served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack passed away, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, three of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John has succeeded his father as President and is the Chief Executive Officer, Chris as Vice President of Player Evaluation, and Frank as Director of Promotions.

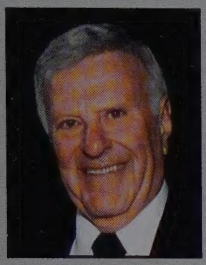
Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname was "Duke," was born on Aug. 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University, where he earned his degree in 1937.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras had 11 children: John Kevin, Susan Ann, Timothy Christopher, Stephen Vincent, Francis Xavier, Sheila Marie, Kathleen Mary, Maureen Elizabeth, Ann Marie, Meghan Ann, and Colleen Elizabeth, as well as 40 grandchildren.



REMEMBERING

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH

April 29, 1926 - November 15, 2005

Preston Robert Tisch realized a longtime dream in 1991, when he became co-owner of one of New York City's and professional sports' premier franchises, the New York Giants. Soon after the Giants won Super Bowl XXV, Tisch completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50 percent interest in the team. That commenced Tisch's career as an owner of a professional sports franchise, one of many he simultaneously pursued.

Tisch led an extraordinarily accomplished life. He was an enormously successful businessman, an extremely generous philanthropist, a postmaster general, a friend of presidents, governors and mayors and a nonpareil New York City mover and shaker. But nothing gave Tisch, a billionaire businessman, more pleasure and pride than being the co-owner of the Giants and working on several influential NFL ownership committees.

Tisch died on Nov. 15, 2005 at age 79 from brain cancer.

Tisch was the Chairman and Director of Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies. In 2004, the company had a net income of $1.2 billion and assets exceeding $74 billion. Loews owns and operates 91 percent of CNA Financial Corporation; 100 percent of Lorillard; 100 percent of Boardwalk Pipelines, which consists of Texas Gas Transmission and Gulf South Pipelines; 52 percent of Diamond Offshore Drilling; 100 percent of Loews Hotels and 100 percent of Bulova.

The Company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Tisch and his late brother, Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, N.J., and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theater chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from Aug. 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theaters, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his life, Tisch was a tireless and influential participant in civic affairs. In Feb. 2000, he helped found Take the Field, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to renovating and rebuilding the athletic fields at New York City's public high schools. Tisch, a product of those schools, was Chairman of Take the Field, Inc. He launched the organization with a $1 million donation, and raised almost $150 million in public and private dollars.

Tisch served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and later was the bureau's (now called NYC & Co.) Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

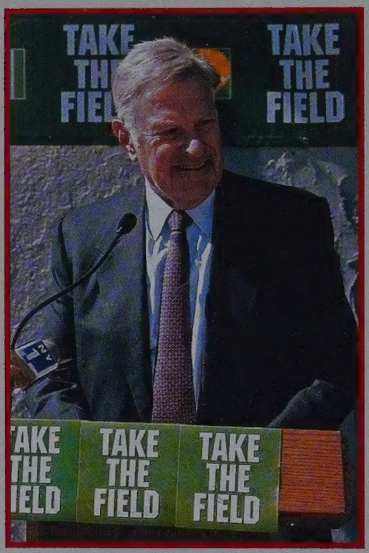
In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch as New York City's Ambassador to Washington, D.C. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington, D.C. and the business community in New York City.



From 1990-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. Until the end of his life he remained an active member of both organizations, now merged, where he continued to serve on the Board of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he was President of the Board of Directors from 1993 to 2002, and then served on the Board as Honorary Chairman. He also served as chairman of Public Private Initiative, a public private partnership that raises funds for important community programs, from 1997 to 1998.

Tisch was also a Trustee of New York University.

In addition to these involvements, Tisch made considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he played an active role in the organization. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948.

Tisch was married to the former Joan Hyman, and they had three children: Steven (the Giants' new Chairman), Laurie and Jonathan (the Giants' Treasurer).

JOHN K. MARA

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 17th season with the Giants. As the franchise's Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara. John Mara is the oldest of Wellington Mara's 11 children. He had been the team's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In his present position, Mara, who joined the Giants in 1991, is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization. Along with team Chairman Steve Tisch, he is at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for the new stadium to be built next door to Giants Stadium.

Mara also serves on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Management Council Executive Committee, the Revenue Sharing Qualifier Committee and the Committee on Workplace Diversity.

Mara was born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants in 1991.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y., The School of the Holy Child, also in Harrison, N.Y., Catholic Charities for the Archdiocese of Newark and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.
Away from the office, Mara has been actively involved for more than a dozen years in coaching youth basketball.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, Courtney, John Jr., Christine and Erin. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

STEVE TISCH

CHAIRMAN & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch formally joined the Giants organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005, but he has been intimately involved with the team since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. With the passing of his father in 2005, Steve Tisch assumed the additional title of Chairman. In the last two years, Steve Tisch has been more actively involved in the Giants' affairs, including working closely with John Mara on the planning and negotiations for a new stadium.

Tisch is one of the most successful producers in the motion picture industry. He is a partner in Escape Artists, an independently financed film production company based at Sony Pictures Entertainment. His television and feature film projects have consistently focused on the lives of everyday people and the vital impact they have in society.

One of Tisch's most noteworthy professional achievements was the production of "Forrest Gump," for which he received a Best Motion Picture Academy Award and a Golden Globe. "Forrest Gump," which was nominated for 13 Academy Awards and won nine, remains one of the 20 highest domestic box office grossing films in history.

Another Tisch film, "The Pursuit of Happyness," starring Will Smith, was released by Columbia Pictures last December. "Pursuit" was one of the biggest hits of 2006. Escape Artists also released "The Weather Man" in the fall of 2005.

Tisch specializes in producing movies that attempt to tell a story that can make a difference in people's lives. He has produced more than 50 films, including those that have addressed teenage suicide, children at risk, media abuse, cancer and mental retardation.

Tisch began his career in entertainment while still a student at Tufts University. His summer jobs included booking films in the family's movie theater chain, working for director John Avildsen and serving an apprenticeship under Otto Preminger. Upon his graduation, Tisch worked as Peter Gruber's assistant at Columbia Pictures. At age 22, he became a production assistant at the studio, and during his four-year tenure he worked on such films as "The Lords of Flatbush," "Tommy" and "The Last Detail."

In 1976, Tisch left Columbia to produce his first motion picture, "Outlaw Blues." Tisch met Jon Avnet during the shoot and the pair soon formed Tisch/Avnet Productions. The company's success's included the runaway 1983 hit, "Risky Business." Tisch/Avnet also produced many acclaimed television films, including "The Burning Bed," which received 11 Emmy nominations and numerous other awards, and was credited with providing many women with the courage to seek help from physical abuse.

Tisch/Avnet's other television film credits include "Silence of the Heart," "Something so Right," "Prime Suspect," "No Other Love," "Call to Glory" and "Homeward Bound" (winner of a Christopher Award).

In 1986, Tisch formed his own production company, the Steve Tisch Company, which has produced many films, including "The Postman," "Wild America," "The Long Kiss Goodbye," "Corrina, Corrina," "Big Business," and "Bad Influence". Tisch also served as Executive Producer on "American History X," "Lock, Stock & Two Smoking Barrels," and "Snatch."

On his own, Tisch has made an impressive impact in television. He produced the made-for-cable movies "Keep the Change," "Judgment" and "Afterburn" (which garnered three Emmy Award nominations). His network telefilms include the highly-rated "The People Next Door," Evil in Clear River" and "Out in the Edge."

Tisch has long been a leader in philanthropic ventures, most notably in women's issues, and the fight against cancer and other health issues. In April 1991, he was elected to the AIDS Project Los Angeles' Board of Directors. During his tenure, Tisch served as both Board Chair and Chair of the Development Committee.

Tisch has also generously contributed his time and resources to such organizations as The H.E.L.P. Group and the ERAS Center. He is also a member of the Board of Advisors at the Tisch School of the Arts at New York University, Board of Trustees of The Geffen Theatre in Los Angeles, Sundance Institute and the Board of Trustees of the Preston Robert Tisch Brain Cancer Center at Duke University.

Tisch and his wife, Jamie, have three young children. He has two older children from a previous marriage.

JONATHAN TISCH

TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch is Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the U.S., and is also Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of its subsidiary, Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has engineered Loews Hotels' expansion and emergence as a leading luxury hotel chain by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships. His leadership philosophy, explored in his best-selling book, The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships, provides a blueprint for achieving enduring success through partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. His follow-up book, Chocolates on the Pillow Aren't Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience, offers a detailed look at how the right customer experience can produce long-lasting success for any organization.

To get a better perspective on the essential connection between upper management and entry-level employees, Tisch starred in the premier episode of Now Who's Boss?, a television series by TLC and New York Times Television that explored what happens when a CEO is put back in frontline positions at his own company. Tisch also hosts the television series, Open Exchange: Beyond the Boardroom, where he goes one-on-one with the nation's leading CEOs. The program reveals the person behind the successful executive and shows that business is about more than just numbers, but rather guts, hard work, imagination, and people.

Recognized as a national leader of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry, Tisch has served since 1995 as Chairman of the Travel Business Roundtable, and in 2003 he was appointed to the United States Department of Commerce Travel and Tourism Advisory Board. Tisch also served a five-year term as an officer of the American Hotel & Lodging Association, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization.

Tisch is equally committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where he serves as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism agency and local convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of September 11th, Tisch was asked to serve as Chairman of "New York Rising," a task force set up to help rebuild the City by reviving tourism. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders" and was named the 2006 "CEO of the Year" by the Executive Council of New York.

Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and his community and philanthropic activities are extensive. He served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service. He is on the Boards of the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, the Tribeca Film Institute and the Business Council for the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

After graduating from Tufts University, Tisch worked as a Cinematogrpaher/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston, for which he received two local Emmy nominations.

CHRIS MARA

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER EVALUATION

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He served as a scout for the Giants for 14 years, including the two Super Bowl Championship seasons of 1986 and 1990. Mara joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years was a member of the club's player personnel department.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children- Daniel, Kate, Patricia, and Conor – and one grandchild, Judith Kailee Mara (Daniel's daughter).

NICOLE KELLY

ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT & CEO

Nicole Kelly has been the assistant to President and Chief Executive Officer John Mara for 12 years. Prior to joining the Giants she worked for NFL Properties for four years. She is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs School. Nicole lives in Glen Rock, N.J., with her husband, Rob, and sons Derek (7) and Devon (5). The family has a yellow lab, Chelsea. She enjoys spending time with her family, cooking and scrapbooking. Nicole was born in Manhattan and was raised in Riverdale, N.Y.

JERRY REESE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Jerry Reese was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 16, 2007. He succeeded Ernie Accorsi, who had held the positions for nine years before retiring. Reese, 43, has been with the Giants since 1994. He had spent the previous four seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Reese coordinated the Giants' college scouting, was in charge of the team's draft preparation and ran the draft room during the two days of player selections.

"We felt that Jerry was the right man at the right time in the right place," said John Mara, the Giants' President and Chief Executive Officer. "I've had the opportunity to observe Jerry's work firsthand throughout his time here, and he has demonstrated extraordinary leadership skills, intelligence, confidence, a superior work ethic and an outstanding ability to evaluate players. Jerry earned this position the old-fashioned way: through hard work and dedication, being promoted through the ranks, and demonstrating a unique set of skills that caused us to take notice of him very early on. He has earned the respect and admiration of everyone in this organization from the first day he walked in the door and we are very excited about his ability to lead our team in the future."

"Change is not always necessary just for change's sake," said Jonathan Tisch, the team's treasurer. "(With Reese's promotion), we are able to continue the continuity that is embedded in this organization, that has been around historically since the Mara family took over and since my family has been fortunate to have been partners for the past 16 years, and reflect upon Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch and move forward with an organization that is strong and wants to put a winning product on the field. That will now happen under Jerry Reese's leadership."

Reese is only the Giants' third general manager in the last 27 years. The late George Young, who hired Reese, held the position from 1979 through the 1997 season. Young was succeeded by Accorsi, who had helped convince Reese to leave college scouting and join the pro personnel department of the Giants, promoted him and championed his cause.

The selection of Reese is historic, because he is the third African-American general manager in NFL history, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome and Houston's Rick Smith. It was particularly poignant for Reese to learn of his appointment on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

"I thought about that a lot and it was perfect timing," Reese said. "It was absolutely perfect timing for this to happen. I don't mean to sound cliché, but I really feel it's my time to carry the torch. There are many people who went before me who really suffered through this process, and now it's my time. I'm going to be successful – I have to be successful on a lot of levels. I'm looking forward to the challenge.

"Doug Williams (the first black quarterback to win a Super Bowl, with Washington in January 1988) emailed me and said, 'Jerry,...I'm really proud of you.' It's my time to kind of keep the dream alive, because it's very important to me. I don't take it lightly."

SR. VP AND GENERAL MANAGER JERRY REESE

While serving as the Giants' Director of Player Personnel, Reese oversaw all aspects of the team's college scouting. During his tenure as personnel director, the Giants drafted stalwarts such as Osi Umenyiora, David Diehl, David Tyree, Chris Snee, Gibril Wilson, Justin Tuck, Brandon Jacobs, Mathias Kiwanuka and Barry Cofield.

Reese originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999 he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. In that position he scouted the Giants' upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players. Reese was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese led the team with seven interceptions in 1982 and was UT-Martin's leading tackler in 1984 with 99. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and earned his master's degree in education administration and supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

Reese, a native of Tiptonville, TN, is married to the former Gwen Moore. They have two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II.

EVAN PINKUS

HEAD COACH

Tom Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in Giants history on Jan. 6, 2004. A highly-respected coach who has succeeded as a head coach in the NFL and on the collegiate level, Coughlin was an assistant coach with the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories in Coughlin's first three seasons with the team. Last year, the Giants went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth for the second consecutive season. It was the first time since 1989-90 that the Giants made postseason play in back-to-back years. Coughlin has won three division titles and led his teams to the playoffs six times in his 11 years as an NFL head coach. He is 93-83 (.528) in the regular season and 97-89 (.522) in all games.

Coughlin's 93 regular season victories place him seventh among current NFL head coaches. Five of the six coaches ahead of him have coached at least one more season than Coughlin and one, Tony Dungy of the Indianapolis Colts, has coached the same number of years. Coughlin is the only one of the seven to have coached an expansion team.

Under Coughlin, the Giants have made dramatic statistical improvement. The team averaged 360 points per season in his first three years, including 422 in 2005, the second-highest total in the 82-year history of the franchise. The Giants averaged 285.6 points a year in the three seasons prior to Coughlin's arrival. The Giants' 5,214 yards, 304 first downs and 355 points in 2006 were all the ninth-highest totals in the franchise's long history. Last year, the Giants rushed for 2,156 yards, the seventh-highest total in franchise history. The Giants' average of 134.8 rushing yards a game placed them seventh in the NFL and was just 3.3 yards fewer than their 2005 average, which was sixth in the league. That was the first time the Giants finished in the top 10 in rushing in consecutive seasons since 1992 and '93. They tied a team record set the previous season by averaging 4.7 yards a carry.

The Giants threw 24 touchdown passes in both 2005 and 2006, the first time the team has thrown for that many scores in consecutive seasons since 1962 and '63. Last season, the Giants' 101 penalties represented a drop of 42 from the team-record 143 infractions accepted by opposing teams in 2005. The Giants' 881 penalty yards were 234 fewer than their 2005 total.

In 2005 the Giants scored 45 touchdowns, their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. They became only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. Their 5,787 total yards were the third-most in team history. The Giants' 312 first downs were the fifth-most in team history. The Giants' offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. It was the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth with an average of 320.2 yards a game.

Many Giants players have enjoyed outstanding seasons in the Coughlin era. Tiki Barber, the franchise's career rushing leader who retired after the 2006 season, made the only three Pro Bowls of his 10-year career playing for Coughlin. Barber rushed for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards the last three seasons and finished his career with 10,449 yards, the 17th-highest total in NFL history. Quarterback Eli Manning has thrown for a total of 7,006 yards in 2005-06 and 24 touchdowns in each of those years, his first two full seasons as the starter. Tight end Jeremy Shockey was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of the last two seasons and last year led the team with 66 receptions. Split end Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the highest total by a Giant in 26 years. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles and played in his first Pro Bowl.

Under Coughlin, older players such as Amani Toomer, Michael Strahan and Jeff Feagles have continued to produce, while young players such as Chris Snee, Osi Umenyiora, Brandon Jacobs and Gibril Wilson have developed into reliable and consistent contributors.

Coughlin has also overseen a significant improvement in the Giants' special teams. The year before Coughlin arrived, the Giants averaged only 19.9 yards a kickoff return. In 2004, they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage for the first time since 1953 with an average return of 25.1 yards. In 2005, their average kickoff return dropped by less than a yard, to 24.3 yards, good for fourth in the NFL. Last year, the Giants' four primary return men averaged a combined 20.7 yards a return. The Giants also allowed only 191 punt return yards the entire season.

Coughlin previously coached the Jacksonville Jaguars, taking charge of the expansion franchise more than 18 months prior to its first game and guiding the team for its first eight seasons. Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, and twice took Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in its first five seasons.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars compiled several impressive statistical records. Jacksonville was 55-12 in games in which it owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Coughlin was out of football in 2003 but has been in the coaching profession for almost 40 years. He has always emphasized ball security and his teams have been among the very best in the NFL at securing the football. His career turnover differential is plus-50. In the 128 regular season games they played under Coughlin, the Jaguars committed fewer than three turnovers in 104 of them, including 32 in which they had no giveaways. In those 128 games, Jacksonville had 187 giveaways, giving Coughlin a 1.46 turnovers-per-game average. In 2002, Jacksonville's differential was plus-12 and the Jaguars had only 15 giveaways to become just the third team in history with fewer turnovers than games played (the others were the 1990 Giants, a team which had Coughlin as its wide receivers coach, and the 2002 Kansas City Chiefs).

Coughlin's Giants teams have been equally careful with the ball, turning it over only 67 times in 48 regular season games (1.40 a game). The Giants had fewer than three turnovers in 38 of those 48 games. The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34. In three seasons under Coughlin, the Giants are plus-16

Coughlin became the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and '98 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Coughlin earned a reputation as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-2-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Bill Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and '85. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Katie, two son-in-laws named Chris, two sons, Brian and Tim, two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife), and four grandchildren, Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea and Cooper.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation was established by Coach Tom Coughlin and named in honor of Jay McGillis, a young man who played for Coughlin at Boston College and lost his battle with leukemia at the age of 21. Jay and his family set an example of courage and dignity that would forever leave its mark on those who knew him. The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is:

1. Assist children with leukemia and other childhood cancers and their families during the course of their child's illness.

2. Support clinical and laboratory research in leukemia and other childhood cancers that will be of benefit to these children and their families.

Since its inception in 1996, the Jay Fund Foundation has donated more than $1.6 million to help children and their families. Since joining the Giants organization in 2004, Coughlin has worked to expand his foundation to provide the same support to the children of the New York metropolitan area. The foundation hosts several annual fundraising events, including a Wine Tasting Gala and Celebrity Golf Classic Tournament in Jacksonville and the Pigskin Ball in Manhattan. Since 2005, Coughlin has partnered with New York Jets running back Curtis Martin to host the Pigskin Ball, a dinner to kick off the football season which benefits the Jay Fund and Martin's charity of choice, the National Law Enforcement and Firefighters Children's Foundation. In addition to these events, Coach Coughlin regularly hosts special parties for pediatric oncology patients and children from the Make a Wish Foundation, granting children's wishes at Giants' Saturday practices throughout the year.

FRANK MARA
Dir. of Promotions

PAT HANLON

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Pat Hanlon joined the Giants in April 1993 as the team's director of public relations. He was promoted to Vice President-Communications in the spring of 1996. The 2007 season is his 15th with the Giants and his 20th in the National Football League.

In his current position, Hanlon serves as the organization's chief liaison with the local and national media, both print and electronic, who cover the Giants and the NFL. He also confers with and advises club officials in formulating organizational positions of public record and works closely in an advisory capacity with the club's community relations department. In 1998 Hanlon began hosting a segment on one of the Giants' weekly television shows, Giants Today. In his "On the Beat" segment on Giants Today, Hanlon engaged one of the team's beat reporters in candid and lively discussion of timely issues regarding the team. During the 2001 season, Hanlon began co-hosting Giants Game Plan (now Giants On-Line), another team-produced television show that features host Bob Papa and four Giants beat writers in a weekly roundtable discussion of the team. Since joining the Giants, Hanlon has been a member of the radio pregame show broadcast team, providing up-to-the date injury information, lineup changes and an organizational perspective on current issues involving the team.

Prior to joining the Giants, Hanlon was vice president of public relations for the New England Patriots from March 1991 to October 1992. He was community relations coordinator and assistant director of public relations for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1987-91. While with Pittsburgh, the Steelers public relations department in 1990 received the Pete Rozelle Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the outstanding NFL public relations staff. Hanlon's Giants public relations staff has received the Pete Rozelle Award twice, for their work during the 1994 and 2000 seasons. Hanlon has been a member of the NFL's public relations staff for 13 Super Bowls. Before coming to the NFL, Hanlon served as the assistant sports information director in charge of football at the University of Oklahoma (1985-86) and the University of Pittsburgh (1983-85). Hanlon was born in Charlottesville, Va., and grew up in Chambersburg, Pa. He is a 1985 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a B.A. in English Literature.

Hanlon and his wife, Randy Hersh, reside in Irvington, N.Y. and are the proud parents of daughters Emily Virginia Hersh Hanlon and Annabelle Pearl Hersh Hanlon and son Edward Sean Hersh Hanlon.

PETER JOHN-BAPTISTE

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC /MEDIA RELATIONS

Peter John-Baptiste was named Giants Director of Public Relations in May of 2001 and is in his 11th season with the team. He serves as a liaison between the team and local/national media and manages the day-to-day operations of the team's media relations efforts. He was selected by the NFL to the Super Bowl XXXVIII and XL Public Relations staff and has aided the staff in six other Super Bowls.

John-Baptiste began his career in professional sports as an intern with the Boston Celtics in 1996, while working toward his B.S. in Sport Management at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. He joined the Giants in 1997 as an intern in the team's Community and Media Relations departments. John-Baptiste was born in St. Croix, U.S.V.I. He and his wife Mashawn, have two sons, Miles Justus and Mason Chase.

AVIS ROPER

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Avis Roper is entering his ninth season as the Giants' assistant director of communications and his 12th season in the NFL. Prior to joining the Giants, Roper worked in the communications departments of the Carolina Panthers (1996-97) and St. Louis Rams (1998). Roper worked the NFC Championship game with Carolina in 1996 and Super Bowl XXXV with the Giants in 2000. In addition, he has been selected by the NFL Public Relations Department to work at two Super Bowls and three NFC Championship Games. In 2001, Roper was a member of the Giants Public Relations Department that received the Pete Rozelle Award, honoring the league's best PR Department, as voted by the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). Roper is an alumnus of South Carolina State University. He is a native of Charleston, S.C., where he lettered in football at Middleton High School. Roper resides in Edison, N.J. with his wife, Catherine and infant son, Grayson.

PHYLLIS HAYES

ASSISTANT TO VP OF COMMUNICATIONS AND VP OF MEDICAL SERVICES

Phyllis Hayes is in her fifth season as an administrative assistant with the Giants' communications and medical departments. She works closely with Vice President of Communications Pat Hanlon and Vice President of Medical Services Ronnie Barnes. Hayes has had a long and distinguished NFL career. In 1977, she began a 22-year stint as a secretary in the Washington Redskins' publication relations department. During her tenure the Redskins played in four Super Bowls, winning three. She left the Redskins following a change in ownership. After leaving the team in July 1999, Hayes worked for four years in the Mortgage Division of BB&T Bank. She joined the Giants in August 2003. Hayes was born in Mt. Airy, N.C. and resides in Clifton, N.J.

COACHING STAFF

KEVIN GILBRIDE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Kevin Gilbride is in his first full season as the Giants' offensive coordinator after serving the previous three years as the team's quarterbacks coach. Gilbride assumed play-calling duties from former coordinator John Hufnagel prior to the regular season finale in Washington. The Giants scored 34 points – their second-highest total of the season – and gained 355 yards (261 on the ground) in a victory over the Redskins that virtually clinched a playoff berth. Gilbride again called the plays the following week in a 23-20 loss to Philadelphia in an NFC Wild Card Game.

When Gilbride was hired as the quarterbacks coach on Jan. 26, 2004, he was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995 and 96. Gilbride has also coordinated offenses for the Houston Oilers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills. The 2006 season is Gilbride's 33rd in coaching and 18th in the National Football League.

As quarterbacks coach, Gilbride was at the forefront of the development of Eli Manning, the No. 1 selection in the 2004 NFL Draft. Under Gilbride's guidance, Manning posted impressive numbers the previous two seasons. In 2005, his first full season as a starter, Manning threw 557 passes, the third-highest total in the league and the second-highest total in team history. Kerry Collins threw 568 passes in 2001. Manning's 294 completions tied for ninth in the NFL and placed him fourth on the Giants' career list (behind Collins in 2002, 2001 and 2000). His 3,762 yards were fifth in the NFL and fifth on the franchise's single-season list. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Last season, Manning threw 522 passes, the sixth-highest total in Giants history. He completed 301 of those throws to become just the second quarterback in franchise history to top 300 completions in a season. Collins did it three times: 335 in 2002, 327 in 2001 and 311 in 2000.

Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger. Manning is the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

Manning's development under Gilbride became evident in the latter part of the quarterback's rookie season in 2004. In the last three games of the year, Manning completed 53 of 87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two seasons as the Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Houston Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. The Oilers ranked first in the NFL in passing yards in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. Houston also ranked first in the league in total offense in 1990, second in 1991, third in 1992 and second in 1993.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Con., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children - daughters Kelly and Kristen and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999 and Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003.

STEVE SPAGNUOLO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Steve Spagnuolo was hired as the Giants' new defensive coordinator on Jan. 22, 2007. He replaced Tim Lewis, who held the position the previous three seasons.

Spagnuolo comes to the Giants after eight seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, the last three as the club's linebackers coach. While he was in that role, middle linebacker Jeremiah Trotter was selected to two Pro Bowl berths. In 2005, Trotter was voted to the game after leading the Eagles with 169 tackles, including 13 for a loss. That season, Philadelphia led the NFL with 60 tackles for a loss, including 25 by the linebackers.

Spagnuolo was the only coach to work under highly-respected defensive coordinator Jim Johnson during his entire tenure in Philadelphia. During six of his eight seasons with the Eagles, Spagnuolo coached a player who earned Pro Bowl honors.

In his eight-year tenure in Philadelphia, Spagnuolo (pronounced SPAG-no-low) helped coach an Eagles defense that is traditionally one of the NFL's best. In a seven-year period from 1999-2005, Philadelphia's defense ranked first in the NFL in opposing third down percentage (33 percent), second in points allowed (17.0 per game), second in sacks (265) and third in red zone defense (43.3 percent). During this period, the Eagles played in four consecutive NFC Championship Games and one Super Bowl. In 2001, the Eagles' defense allowed fewer than 21 points in each of their 16 games, just the fourth time in league history that was accomplished.

Spagnuolo originally joined the Eagles coaching staff in 1999 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach working specifically with the team's safeties. Two years later, he was promoted to defensive backs coach, where he spent three seasons tutoring Pro Bowlers Brian Dawkins, Bobby Taylor, Troy Vincent, Lito Sheppard and Michael Lewis. In those three seasons, the Eagles pass defense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in three key statistical categories: third-down defense, touchdown passes allowed and net yards per pass attempt.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Spagnuolo coached 16 seasons in college football and two years in NFL Europe.

He spent the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator of NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy, who finished second in the league in total defense en route to a World Bowl appearance. Four of the six linebackers and nine of the 11 defensive starters he tutored went on to play in the NFL. Spagnuolo also served as the defensive line and special teams coach of the Barcelona Dragons in 1992.

A native of Grafton, Mass. Spagnuolo has served as a defensive coordinator on the college level with Connecticut and Maine. In addition, he served as assistant coach at Massachusetts, Lafayette, Rutgers and Bowling Green.

Prior to his stint at Maine, Spagnuolo spent four months as a scout for the San Diego Chargers under then-general manager Bobby Beathard. His first NFL experience came in 1983 as an intern with the Washington Redskins under then-assistant general manager Charlie Casserly.

Spagnuolo played football at Springfield (Mass.) College for head coach Howard Vandersea. He was a two-year starter at wide receiver and received the school's AAUP Male Scholar Athlete award in 1982.

Spagnuolo was born in Whitinsville, Mass. He attended Grafton High School, where he is a member of the school's athletic Hall of Fame. Spagnuolo earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts. He is married (Maria).

TOM QUINN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tom Quinn is in his second season with the Giants and his first as the team's special teams coordinator. Last year, he was the assistant to Mike Sweatman, who retired following the 2006 season. Head coach Tom Coughlin quickly named Quinn to replace Sweatman.

"Tom has Mike's complete endorsement as a young coach devoted to special teams who is prepared to take the lead roll in the special teams position," Coughlin said. "The energy and the passion which Tom brings to the job are infectious and our players will respond to Tom's enthusiasm."

Quinn, 39, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years. Before joining the Giants, he spent four years on the coaching staff at Stanford University. Quinn coached the special teams in each of those seasons, plus the tight ends in 2002 and 2003, and the outside linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

Under his leadership, Stanford had consistently outstanding special teams. Of the 117 Division 1-A teams in 2005, Stanford was 21st in the nation in net punting (36.6-yard average) and 29th in kickoff returns (22.1). The Cardinal's T.J. Rushing was 15th in the country with an average of 27.4 yards on 21 returns, two of which he brought back for touchdowns. Stanford held UCLA's Maurice Drew, the nation's leading punt returner, with a 28.5-yard average, to just six yards on two runbacks. In 2004, Stanford led the Pac-10 and was seventh in the nation with 24.6-yard kickoff return average. Rushing was first in the conference and sixth in the country with a 28.4-yard average and another Quinn protégé, Michael Okwo, was a first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a redshirt freshman.

Quinn began his career coaching linebackers at Davidson in 1991. From 1992-94, he was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator at James Madison. In 1995, he was the defensive coordinator at Boston University, where he worked with Giants assistant offensive line coach Dave DeGuglielmo. From 1996-98, Quinn was the defensive coordinator at Holy Cross.

Quinn moved back to the West Coast in 1999 at San Jose State, where in three years he worked with the linebackers, tight ends and with the special teams. He joined the staff at Stanford in 2002.

Quinn grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and a daughter, Logan.

ANDRE CURTIS

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

This is Andre Curtis' second season as the Giants' defensive quality control coach. He joined Tom Coughlin's staff on Feb. 13, 2006.

Prior to joining the Giants, Curtis spent two seasons as the defensive ends coach at Georgia Southern University. Prior to that, he was a linebackers coach for four seasons at his alma mater, Virginia Military Institute. Curtis coached the outside linebackers for three seasons before coaching the inside linebackers in 2003. While on the VMI staff, Curtis worked in the Jets' training camp for two weeks in 2002. The following year, he participated in the NFL minority internship with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

As a linebacker at VMI from 1996-99, Curtis earned four letters, started 31 consecutive games and finished his career with 354 tackles. In 1998, he was selected to the All-Southern Conference first team after recording 106 tackles.

Curtis is a native of Beaverdam, Va. He has a bachelor's degree in economics/business from VMI. Curits is married to Erica.

DAVE DEGUGLIELMO

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Dave DeGuglielmo is in his fourth season as the Giants' assistant offensive line coach. In his first year with the team, he doubled as the offensive quality control coach. DeGuglielmo joined Tom Coughlin's staff on Jan. 26, 2004.

Prior to joining the Giants, DeGuglielmo (pronounced Day-Ghoul-Yell-Mo) spent five years at the University of South Carolina, where he coached the offensive line and tight ends. He previously coached at Boston College under Coughlin, the University of Connecticut and at his alma mater, Boston University.

DeGuglielmo began his coaching career in 1991-92 at Boston College, where he worked with the offensive linemen, including future All-Pros Tom Nalen, Peter Kendall and Ron Stone (a former Giant). After a five-year drought, Boston College returned to postseason play with an appearance in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl. He then moved to Boston University, where he coached the offensive line for four seasons and was also assistant head coach in 1996. The Terriers twice made the NCAA 1-AA playoffs during his tenure.

In 1997-98, DeGuglielmo was the offensive line coach at Connecticut, which made the playoffs for the first time in school history during his tenure. DeGuglielmo joined head coach Lou Holtz at South Carolina in 1999 and stayed for five years. He coached the offensive line his first and last seasons there and the offensive tackles and tight ends in the three seasons in-between. The Gamecocks won back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history with victories in the 2001 and 2002 Outback Bowls.

DeGuglielmo was a four-year letter-winning offensive lineman at Boston University, where he earned his Bachelor's degree in 1990 and a master's degree in 1991. He was selected captain of the 1990 BU team. DeGuglielmo played for Giants quarterbacks coach Chris Palmer in 1988-89.

DeGuglielmo was born in Cambridge, Mass., and grew up in Lexington, Mass. He is single and resides in Clifton, N.J.

PAT FLAHERTY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 25 years of coaching experience, is in his fourth season as the Giants' offensive line coach. He was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004.

The Giants' rushing attack has been one of the team's strengths since Flaherty began coaching the line and was ranked in the NFL top 10 in each of the previous two seasons. In 2006, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with an average of 134.8 rushing yards a game and sixth with an average of 4.7 yards per carry, tying a franchise record set the previous year. The Giants' 138.1-yard rushing average in 2005 placed them sixth in the league. In 2004, the Giants averaged 119.0 yards a game and 4.5 yards a carry, which were far superior to the 97.4 and 4.0 averages the Giants posted in 2003, the year before Coughlin and Flaherty arrived. Tiki Barber made the only three Pro Bowls of his career while rushing for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards in the three years he ran behind a Flaherty-coached line.

Two of Flaherty's players – center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee – have been selected as Pro Bowl alternates.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, DeLone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., from 1978-80.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

PETER GIUNTA

SECONDARY COACH/CORNERBACKS

Peter Giunta is in his second season as the Giants' secondary coach/cornerbacks. He joined the team on Jan. 18, 2006. Giunta, who has spent 16 of his 26-year coaching career in the NFL, was the defensive coordinator for the 1999 Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams.

In his first season with the Giants, Giunta helped veterans Sam Madison and R.W. McQuarters and youngsters Corey Webster and Kevin Dockery become a cohesive unit at cornerback. Dockery, who joined the team as a rookie free agent, played in 14 games and intercepted two passes, including one he returned 96 yards for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta (pronounced JUN-ta) spent five seasons as the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-2000 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game) and sixth in total defense (293.6 yards per game).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interception and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 sacks.

Giunta also has a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs he coaches. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay safety Darren Sharper, who had nine. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by Ryan McNeil.

Prior to joining the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Aaron Glenn, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1997 and '98 seasons.

Giunta's first NFL coaching position came coaching defensive backs for Philadelphia from 1991-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles. Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He worked with Giants offensive line coach Pat Flaherty in the last two years of that stint. During his first season on Joe Paterno's staff, Giunta was a defensive assistant before coaching the tight ends for his final two seasons. While at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). Giunta then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80. Giunta is a native of Salem, Massachusetts and a graduate of Northeastern University. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Christina, John and D.J.

JERALD INGRAM

RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his fourth season as the Giants' running backs coach. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 23 years of coaching experience, including 14 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

In his three seasons under Ingram's tutelage, Tiki Barber emerged as one of the very best running backs in the NFL and one of the finest players in franchise history. Barber, who retired following the 2006 season, had never played in the Pro Bowl prior to Ingram's arrival. But he was voted to the NFC team each of his final three seasons. In those three seasons, he rushed, in order, for 1,518 yards in 2004, a team-record 1,860 yards in 2005 and 1,662 yards last season. Barber, who rushed for 5,409 yards in his first seven Giants seasons, ran for 5,040 in just three years under Ingram to finish with a franchise-record 10,449 yards. Barber also has a Giants-record 586 receptions and he set the franchise single-game record with 234 rushing yards at Washington on Dec. 30, breaking the mark of 220 yards he had set the previous season.

Ingram also helped make Brandon Jacobs one of the NFL's best short-yardage and goal-line backs. In 2004, Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943. Last season, Jacobs rushed for 423 yards and nine scores to establish himself as Barber's likely successor.

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's direction, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3.5 games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards. Ingram is also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers; when he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

He joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin throughout his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Ingram joined the Jaguars after spending three seasons as running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

THOMAS McGAUGHEY

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Thomas McGaughey is in his first season as the Giants' coach. McGaughey previously held the same position with the Denver Broncos for two seasons.

In 2006, the Broncos held opposing punt returners to an average of 6.9 yards a return, the fifth-best figure in the NFL. McGaughey spent the last two seasons as the Denver Broncos' special teams assistant. McGaughey worked with a Broncos special-teams unit in 2005 that helped the club go 13-3 en route to capturing the AFC West title and advancing to the AFC Championship Game.

McGaughey was the Kansas City Chiefs' assistant special teams coach for the 2002 season. He broke into the NFL as a minority intern with the Chiefs during their 2001 training camp before working as a pro scouting assistant in an internship with the Houston Texans that year as the franchise prepared for its inaugural season.

McGaughey spent two years (2003-04) working at his alma mater, the University of Houston before joining the Broncos' staff. He served as Houston's special teams coordinator in 2003 and as special teams coordinator/ cornerbacks coach in 2004.

A safety in his playing days, McGaughey entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 1996. He competed in the training camps of the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles in 1996-97, respectively. He was on the Eagles' practice squad late in the 1996 season and was a member of the Barcelona Dragons' team that won NFL Europe's World Bowl in 1997. McGaughey played for the Houston Cougars from 1991-95 and was special teams captain as a senior. He also lettered in track from 1991-93, competing in the 110-meter hurdles.

McGaughey, 33, was born in Chicago and grew up in Houston. He and his wife, Erika, have three children.

DAVID MERRITT

SECONDARY COACH/SAFETIES

David Merritt is in his fourth season on the Giants' coaching staff and his second as the team's secondary coach/safeties.

Under Merritt's direction, safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps were both productive and consistent players for the Giants last season, when they combined for 237 tackles (169 solo), four interceptions and 12 passes defensed.

In 2005, Merritt was the Giants' defensive assistant coach. The previous season, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004 after spending three seasons with the Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96 and for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from N.C. State.

Merritt and his wife Yolonda have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson and a daughter, Kiki.

CHRIS PALMER

QUARTERBACKS

Chris Palmer is in his first season as the Giants' quarterbacks coach. Palmer, whose appointment was announced on Jan. 29, 2007, is a 35-year coaching veteran who is in his 18th season as an NFL coach. During his long and distinguished NFL coaching career, Palmer has tutored Pro Bowl quarterbacks Drew Bledsoe, Mark Brunell and Tony Romo.

Palmer filled an opening created when Kevin Gilbride became the offensive coordinator. Gilbride had been the quarterbacks coach since 2004, which encompasses the tenures of both Tom Coughlin and Eli Manning with the Giants. Palmer and Coughlin previously worked together with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1997-98.

Palmer came to the Giants from the Dallas Cowboys, for whom he was the quarterbacks coach in 2006. It was his only season in Dallas. Under Palmer's guidance, Romo enjoyed a meteoric rise from a player who had never thrown a regular season pass in almost 3.5 seasons with the Cowboys to a Pro Bowler. Romo, who took over the job at halftime of a loss to the Giants on Oct. 23, won five of his first six starts, finished 6-4 and led the Cowboys to an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. He completed 220 of 337 passes (65.3 percent) for 2,903 yards, 19 touchdowns and 13 interceptions.

Palmer joined the Cowboys after serving as the offensive coordinator of the Houston Texans from 2001-05, the first five years of the franchise's existence (the team played its initial game in 2002). The Texans' first-ever draft choice was quarterback David Carr. With Palmer at the forefront of his development, Carr developed into a productive quarterback, completing 61.2 percent of his passes and throwing for 3,531 yards in 2004.

Prior to his stint with the Texans, Palmer spent two seasons as head coach of the expansion Cleveland Browns. The team was 2-14 in its inaugural season in 1999 and suffered several serious injuries in a 3-13 campaign in 2000. In Cleveland, Palmer worked with quarterback Tim Couch, who, like Manning and Carr, was a first overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Coughlin and Palmer first worked together when the latter was named the Jaguars' offensive coordinator in 1997. During his two-season stint in Jacksonville, the Jaguars were ranked seventh and 10th, respectively, in the NFL in total offense. The 1997 team averaged 339 yards per game and was fourth in the league in average passing yards with 231.5. The '98 Jaguars won the AFC Central championship, averaged 325.9 yards a game, including 131.4 yards on the ground, which was good for fifth in the NFL.

In addition, Palmer played a pivotal role in the improvement of Brunell, who became one of the AFC's finest quarterbacks. In 1997, Brunell led the conference with a 91.2 passer rating and played in his first Pro Bowl. He returned to Hawaii the following season. Palmer's influence was perhaps more evident when Brunell was sidelined. In his two years in Jacksonville, five different Jaguars starting quarterbacks won at least one game: Brunell, Rob Johnson, Steve Matthews, Jamie Martin and Jonathan Quinn.

Palmer was with the New England Patriots from 1993-96, the first three seasons as the wide receivers coach and the final year as the quarterbacks coach. In his season as Bledsoe's position coach, the quarterback led the NFL in passing attempts (623) and completions (373) and was third in passing yards (4,086) and touchdowns (27). The Patriots won the AFC title before losing to the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXI.

Palmer's first NFL coaching experience was as the Houston Oilers' wide receivers coach from 1990-92 when Gilbride was the Houston offensive coordinator. During those three seasons, the Run 'N Shoot Oilers had the NFL's most productive passing attack. Four Houston wide receivers – Curtis Duncan, Earnest Givens (twice), Drew Hill and Haywood Jeffires (twice) made the Pro Bowl while being coached by Palmer.

Prior to entering the NFL, Palmer was a successful college coach. He was the head coach at Boston University in 1988-89 and at the University of New Haven in 1986-87, when the Chargers posted consecutive 8-2 records.

Palmer's first professional coaching experience came in 1983, when he was the offensive line coach for the Montreal Concordes in the Canadian Football League. The following year, he coached the wide receivers for the USFL's New Jersey Generals. In 1985, he was promoted to quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. That year, Palmer's offense featured quarterbacks Doug Flutie and Brian Sipe and running back Herschel Walker, who rushed for 2,411 yards.

Palmer began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Connecticut in 1972, when he coached both the defensive line and wide receivers. In 1975, he became the wide receivers coach at Lehigh. The following year, Palmer was named the offensive coordinator at Colgate, where he stayed for seven years. In 1977, the Red Raiders led the nation in total offense with an average of 496 yards a game.

Palmer played quarterback for Southern Connecticut State from 1968-71. He earned both bachelor's and master's degrees at SCSU, where he was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame. He is also a member of the Hall of Fame at New Haven and Immaculate High School.

Palmer is a native of Brewster, N.Y. He and his wife, Donna, have two children, Mark and Kristen, and a granddaughter, Annette Grace.

JERRY PALMIERI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

New Jersey native Jerry Palmieri is in his fourth season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Tom Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from Giants Stadium. He received a master's degree is exercise physiology from the University of North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri is a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was born in Englewood, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have a son, Tony, and a daughter, Annamarie.

MARKUS PAUL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Markus Paul, a former NFL player and a veteran coach in the league, is in his first season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Paul spent the previous two seasons on the coaching staff of the Jets, in 2005 as the Director of Physical Development and last year as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to joining the Jets, Paul was the New England Patriots' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He worked under Mike Woicik, who has trained six Super Bowl championship teams. Paul owns three Super Bowl rings from the Patriots' titles in 2001, 2003 and 2004.

Paul's first NFL coaching position was as the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1998-99.

Paul, a defensive back during his playing career, was the Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft choice in 1989. He played with the Bears until 1993, when he ended his career by playing one game with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Paul played in 71 games with 30 starts at strong or free safety. He intercepted seven passes, which he returned for a total of 100 yards.

A four-year starter at Syracuse, Paul holds the school record with 19 career interceptions. As a senior in 1988, he was credited with 76 tackles and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Football News. Paul earned a bachelor of science degree in retailing.

Paul was born in Orlando, Fla. He and his wife, Patricia, have a son, Jairus, and a daughter, Tabitha.

MICHAEL POPE

TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' head coach and began hiring assistant coaches in January 2004, he retained only one position coach from the previous staff: tight ends coach Michael Pope. Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical.

"He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 25th consecutive season as an NFL coach. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 24 postseason games and is one of the few assistants to make four trips to the Super Bowl. He is in the eighth season of his second tour of duty as a Giants assistant coach. In his two stints with the Giants, Pope has been with them for all three of their Super Bowl appearances. Pope also coached in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1996.

Pope has continued to enhance his reputation as the NFL's finest tight ends coach. In the previous five seasons, his guidance and teaching helped turn Jeremy Shockey into one of the NFL's very best tight ends. In 2006, Shockey was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five NFL seasons. In those five years, Shockey caught 314 passes for 3,609 yards and 24 touchdowns and developed into an outstanding blocker. The 314 catches place him eighth on the Giants' career list and fifth among active tight ends at the conclusion of the 2006 season.

Last year, Shockey led the Giants with 66 receptions, the second-highest total of his career. They accounted for 623 yards and 7 touchdowns, tying the career high he set in 2005.

Shockey, the Giants' 2002 first-round draft choice, caught 74 passes that year, the fifth-highest total in team history and a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl – Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope was re-hired by the Giants on Feb. 11, 2000. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense that season, which ended with the Giants winning the NFC championship and playing in Super Bowl XXV. He has further energized it the last five seasons by being at the forefront of Shockey's development.

Pope was a member of Bill Parcells' Giants' coaching staff from 1983-91. His first season with the Giants was as an assistant special teams coach; he became the tight ends coach the following year. Pope left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the New England Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74 as a graduate assistant. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as an assistant coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

During his playing days Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College, where his team won one national championship and was runner-up a second time. The team's combined record during his playing career was 34-8-3. An all-conference player, Pope was team captain and MVP as a senior. He was also inducted into Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities was the "Team Before Self" award winner as a senior. Pope is a member of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. A shoulder injury ended Pope's World Football League career after one year.

Pope was born March 15, 1942 in Monroe, NC. Michael and Lee have two sons who work in the financial services industry, Travus in Boca Raton, Fla., and Daron in New York City. Daron's wife, Rosie, is from London and will return to her native country when the Giants play the Miami Dolphins in Wembley Stadium on Oct. 28.

SEAN RYAN

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Sean Ryan is in his first seasons as the Giants' offensive quality control coach. He replaces John DeFilippo, who is now the Oakland raiders' quarterbacks coach.

Ryan came to the Giants from Harvard University, where he spent the 2006 season as recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and head coach of the junior varsity.

Prior to his tenure at Harvard, Ryan spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Columbia University. In 2003 and 2004, Ryan was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, DeFilippo left Columbia to join the Giants, and Ryan replaced him as quarterbacks coach.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany (where the Giants hold training camp) in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y. – north of Albany - Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

BILL SHERIDAN

LINEBACKERS

Bill Sheridan is in his third season as the Giants' linebackers coach. This is his 27th year in coaching, and third in the NFL. Sheridan was hired on Feb. 16, 2005 after a highly successful career as a collegiate coach.

Under Sheridan's tutelage, the Giants linebackers have played well despite sustaining several injuries at the position in each of the previous two seasons. In 2006, LaVar Arrington, Carlos Emmons and Brandon Short – all now former Giants - missed significant playing time with injuries. But middle linebacker Antonio Pierce remained healthy the entire season and was selected to his first Pro Bowl after leading the team with 159 tackles (93 solo). Pierce joined the Giants three weeks after Sheridan and under his coach's tutelage, has developed into one of the NFL's finest middle linebackers.

Injuries forced Sheridan to constantly juggle the linebackers in his first season with the team. An ankle sidelined Pierce for the final four games, including the playoffs. Emmons was limited to nine games because of a pectoral injury. Former Giant Barrett Green, projected to be the weakside linebacker, appeared in just one game. Reggie Torbor and Chase Blackburn suffered late-season injuries. Roman Phifer, signed late in the season, was the fourth linebacker to go on injured reserve. At one point during the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina, Sheridan's group on the field was composed of Kevin Lewis, Alonzo Jackson and Jay Foreman, none of whom had been on the team before late October.

Prior to joining the Giants, Sheridan spent the three seasons at the University of Michigan, the first as linebackers coach and the last two as defensive line coach. He was also the school's recruiting coordinator in 2002-2003 and netted a pair of classes that were rated among the 10 best in the country.

Sheridan, 48, began his career at Shrine High School in Royal Oak, Mich. from 1981-84. He was then a graduate assistant at Michigan for two seasons before coaching linebackers at three schools - Maine, Cincinnati and Army – from 1987-95. In 1996 and 97, Sheridan coached the defensive backs at West Point. He then put in a three-year stint as the linebackers coach at Michigan State. Sheridan spent the 2001 season at Notre Dame, where he coached safeties and special teams. He moved to Michigan the following year.

A native of Detroit, Sheridan earned four letters as a linebacker at Grand Valley State University. He graduated from De La Salle High School in Detroit.

Sheridan and his wife, Jaycine, have four children: Joseph, Nicholas, Mark and Natalie.

MIKE SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS

Mike Sullivan is in his fourth season as the Giants' wide receivers coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 20, 2004.

Under Sullivan's direction, Plaxico Burress has been an extremely productive player since joining the Giants prior to the 2005 season. In two years, he has led the team in receptions (139), receiving yards (2,202) and touchdown catches (17). In 2006, Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Earnest Gray had 10 in 1980.

Amani Toomer continued to make a deep imprint in the Giants' record book last year, despite missing eight games after undergoing knee surgery. Toomer had 32 receptions, including a career-high 12 at Philadelphia, to increase his career total to 561. That places him second in team history to Tiki Barber (586). Toomer is the franchise records-holder in receiving yards (8,157) and 100-yard games (22, plus one in the postseason). Toomer's 47 touchdown catches leave him tied for second in Giants history with Joe Morrison, just one behind record-holder Kyle Rote.

In 2005, Burress and Toomer caught a combined 136 passes for 1,898 yards and 14 touchdowns, the most scores by a duo of Giants wide receivers since Toomer and Ike Hilliard combined for 15 touchdowns in 2000. Burress' 76 receptions were the fifth-highest total in franchise history, and his 1,214 yards were the second-highest total every by a Giant.

Sullivan was the Jacksonville Jaguars' offensive assistant in 2003 after spending the previous season as Jacksonville's defensive quality control coach under Tom Coughlin. He was the only member of Coughlin's coaching staff retained by the Jaguars in 2003.

As the offensive assistant, Sullivan helped coach the Jaguars' wide receivers and helped the coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, statistical analysis of opponent's tendencies and preparing playbooks.

Sullivan joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching in college football. He began his coaching career at Humboldt State in 1993. He also coached at Army (1995-96 and 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98) and Ohio University (2001). In 1997, Youngstown State won the Division 1-AA national championship under Jim Tressel, now the coach at Ohio State. At Ohio University, Sullivan coached the defensive backs and tutored the kick blocking units on the special teams.

Sullivan was a defensive back at Army, where he received a B.S. degree in 1989. He also has a master's degree from Humboldt State. Sullivan is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools.

Sullivan and his wife, Julie, have a daughter, Carmen Enriqueta. Sullivan was born in Santa Maria, Calif.

MIKE WAUFLE

DEFENSIVE LINE

Mike Waufle is in his fourth season as the Giants' defensive line coach. A veteran who is in his 29th season of coaching, Waufle became a member of the Giants' staff on Jan. 20, 2004.

Players from Pro Bowl regular Michael Strahan to young veterans like Osi Uemyiora to unproven draft choice Barry Cofield have played well under Waufle's direction. In 2005, Strahan and Umenyiora were the NFL's most productive pair of defensive ends. Umenyiora has blossomed under Waufle, improving from one sack as a rookie in 2003 to seven in 2004 to 14.5 in 2005, when he was first in the NFC and second in the NFL. Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl. Last year, a hip injury limited him to 11 games, but he still led the team with six sacks. Strahan missed seven games with a Lisfranc sprain in his foot, but he increased his career sack total to 132.5, the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor. In 2005, Strahan was voted to his seventh Pro Bowl in nine seasons after finishing with 11.5 sacks.

Last year, two rookies thrived under Waufle. Defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka, the team's first-round draft choice, played in every game and had four sacks and two interceptions. Cofield arrived as an unheralded fourth-round choice, started every game at nose tackle and Cofield was selected as the nose tackle on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America first All-Rookie team. He was first Giants rookie defensive player to start every game since Taylor and defensive lineman Bill Neill in 1981 and was one of 13 rookies to start each of his team's games in 2006.

Prior to joining the Giants, Waufle was the defensive line coach of the Oakland Raiders for six seasons. In those six years (1998-2003), the Raiders made the playoffs three times, winning at least one postseason game in each of those seasons and advancing to Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season.

Before his stint with the Raiders, Waufle coached the defensive linemen at the University of California, where he was also the recruiting coordinator. At Cal, he helped develop several NFL defensive linemen, including two first-round picks in the 1996 draft, Duane Clemons and Regan Upshaw.

A native of Hornell, N.Y., Waufle began his coaching career as the defensive line coach at Alfred University in 1979. From 1980-84, he was an assistant at Utah State, his alma mater, working one season as the secondary coach, two as the offensive line coach and two as the defensive line coach. From 1985-88, Waufle was the defensive line coach and worked with the special teams at Fresno State. He was the defensive line coach at UCLA (1989) and Oregon State (1990-91) before moving to Cal.

After graduating from high school, Waufle served from 1972-75 three years in the United States Marines before beginning his collegiate football career at Bakersfield Junior College, which won the junior college national title and played in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1976. He then played defensive line at Utah

State, where he was named captain as a senior.

Waufle and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters: Michele, who lives with her husband, Ken Maghuyop, daughter Katie and son Cody in California, and Marsha, who is married to Sean Peterson and is a senior clinical research associate for Parexel International in San Diego. The Waufles live in Oakland, N.J.

JON BERGER

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL INFORMATION

Jon Berger has been associated with the Giants for 27 years, but this is his first season in the new position of Senior Director of Football Information. Berger manages databases and develops research reports for coaches, player personnel and management based on the analysis of statistical and tactical trends. He works particularly closely with head coach Tom Coughlin and several members of his staff.

Prior to his recent promotion, Berger spent 21 years as the Giants' Director of Information Technology. In that position, he was responsible for acquiring computer equipment to maintaining the data network to assisting the coaching staff in analyzing tendencies and trends of both the Giants and their opponents.

Berger first became affiliated with the Giants organization in 1981, when he worked in the team's preseason training camp as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended the University at Albany, where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's List honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society. As an undergraduate Berger served as a computer science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at the University at Albany for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure courtside at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and a daughter, Keri, and reside in Kendall Park, New Jersey.

COACHING ASSISTANTS

KIM KOLBE

ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Kim Kolbe joined the Giants in April 1981 – the day before the team drafted Hall of Fame linebacker Lawrence Taylor. This is her 27th season as the assistant to the head coach. Kim has worked for Ray Perkins, Bill Parcells, Ray Handley, Dan Reeves, Jim Fassel and Tom Coughlin. She is grateful for the opportunity to work with so many outstanding assistant coaches. Prior to joining the Giants, Kim worked in the restaurant business for seven years in Vermont. She was raised in Upper Montclair, N.J. Her many interests include traveling.

KEVIN ABRAMS

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Abrams is in his sixth season as the Giants' Assistant General Manager after serving for three years as the team's salary cap analyst.

Abrams is the primary negotiator for player contracts and is responsible for the Giants' salary cap management and related strategic planning for Football Operations, as well as coordinating the organization's compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement. Abrams also works with the College and Pro Personnel departments to evaluate players in preparation for the NFL Draft and free agency.

In July of 1999, Abrams was hired to fill the newly-created position of Salary Cap Analyst. He came to the Giants from the NFL Management Council, where he helped to monitor the league-wide salary cap and analyzed all new player contracts with respect to the rules and regulations of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Prior to working at the Management Council, Abrams completed internships and graduate assistant work in Player Personnel, Recruiting, Public Relations and Corporate Relations with the Washington Redskins, the Ohio University football program, the Buffalo Bills and the London Monarchs.

Abrams was born in Toronto, Canada. He completed his undergraduate degree at the University of Western Ontario, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University where he is currently a member of the Sports Administration Advisory Board.

MARC ROSS

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Marc Ross is in his first season as the Giants' Director of College Scouting. Ross, whose appointment was announced by general manager Jerry Reese on May 18, will be in charge of the Giants' college scouting department and the team's draft.

Ross came to the Giants from the Buffalo Bills, for whom he spent the previous three seasons as a national college scout.

Ross' first NFL job was as a public relations training camp intern with the Giants in 1995. After leaving camp, Ross worked in Columbia University's athletics department.

Ross returned to the NFL with the Eagles' personnel department during the club's 1996 training camp. He was the team's eastern regional scout from 1997 until 2000, when, at age 27, he became the NFL's youngest college scouting director. During his tenure in Philadelphia, Ross was responsible for drafting outstanding NFL Players such as Brian Westbrook, Lito Sheppard and Derrick Burgess.

After seven years with the Eagles' organization, Ross joined the Bills in the spring of 2004 as a national college scout.

Ross was an All-Ivy League wide receiver at Princeton in 1993 and 94. He holds five school records, including one as a receiver (a 20.2-yard average per catch in 1993) and four as a punt returner (most career returns, 74; most career return yards, 696; most returns in a season, 32 in 1994 and most yards in a game, 161 on six returns vs. Cornell in 1994).

Ross earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from Princeton and a master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1997.

A native of Sahron Hill, PA, Ross and his wife, Pualani, have a daughter, Skylar, who was born in 2006.

JERRY SHAY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jerry Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, has been the team's Director of College Scouting since 1977. Prior to earning that title, Shay had been a scout for the team since 1973. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the No. 1 draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He played for the Vikings for two years before being traded in 1968 to the Atlanta Falcons. He started in Atlanta for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade for a draft choice in 1970. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg. Shay retired following the 1971 season after appearing in only eight games.

Born in Gary, IN (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship, awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Shannon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, CA.

JOE COLLINS

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Joe Collins, who has more than 30 years of experience in coaching and scouting, joined the Giants in March, 2002. Collins came to the Giants from the Cleveland Browns, where he was the club's Executive Director of Player Personnel from 1999-2001. In Cleveland, he was responsible for the Browns' pro and college personnel departments.

Collins joined the Browns in March, 1999. From 1995 until his appointment with Cleveland, Collins was the San Francisco 49ers' Coordinator of Pro Personnel. Before moving to San Francisco, Collins spent 16 years as a scout for the New York Jets.

Collins began his coaching career as an assistant at Xavier University in Cincinnati in 1973. He then moved to Central State (Ohio) as the offensive coordinator from 1974-76. Collins also coached at North Carolina A&T in 1977 and Western Illinois in 1978.

He began his scouting career with BLESTO scouting combine in 1979. The following year, he joined the Jets and for 16 years he evaluated players across the country while learning from experts such as Dick Steinberg, Ron Wolf and Dick Haley.

During his playing career, Collins was an outstanding safety at the University of South Dakota (1965-68), where he set the school record for interceptions. He graduated in 1969 with a degree in accounting and business management.

Collins was born in Detroit on Sept. 14, 1947. His father, Rip, served for many years as the visiting clubhouse man in Tiger Stadium.

Collins is married (Sue). The couple has four children and four grandchildren and resides in Amelia Island, FL.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Jeremiah Davis is in his 20th year as a member of the Giants organization and his 18th as a full-time member of the team's scouting department. He joined the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach. Davis became a full-time member of the Giants' scouting department in March 1990.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, N.J. He began his collegiate football career at Washington State University before receiving a B.A. degree in criminal law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. Davis subsequently earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling, where he also worked with the linebackers. He then moved to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, followed by a stint as a recruiter at Purdue University in 1985. Davis was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

Davis is married to the former Marie-Line Jasor. They have a son, Jeremiah Pascal Emanuel Davis, who is three.

STEVE VERDEROSA

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

The 2007 season is Steve Verderosa's 20th with the Giants since he joined the organization's scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology, where he continued his dual roles.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977. He also had a stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the urge to return to football and began a coaching career as an offensive assistant at his alma mater, New York Tech. He then spent two seasons as a coach at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

Verderosa was born in Roslyn, Long Island. He is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew, and one daughter, Mikala.

STEPHEN DEVINE

SCOUT

Stephen W. Devine is in his seventh season as a member of the Giants' scouting department. Prior to joining the Giants, he was an athletic administrator and coach in the Marysville (Ohio) school system.

In 1999, he was a game day scout for the Giants in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

From 1990-95, Devine was the assistant head coach and offensive assistant at Ohio University. Prior to that, he spent two seasons as the offensive line coach at San Diego State.

Devine was the offensive guard and center coach at Ohio State from 1984-88. In 1983 he was the assistant coach in charge of recruiting at Ohio State. Prior to his stint with the Buckeyes, Devine coached the offensive line at Bowling Green for three years. Devine spent a year as a graduate assistant at Ohio State before going to Bowling Green. He began his college coaching career at the University of Washington, where he worked with the offensive line and recruited northern California and Oregon.

Devine earned a bachelor of arts degree from Heidelberg College and master's degrees in educational administration from the University of Toledo and Ashland University. He is married (Suzanne). They have three children: Stephanie, Paul and Connor.

DONNIE ETHERIDGE

SCOUT

Donald Etheridge is in his seventh season as a member of the Giants' college scouting department.

Etheridge joined the Giants after spending the 2000 football season as the offensive line coach at Westside High School in Houston, Texas.

From 1997 until his appointment at Westside, Etheridge coached at Santa Fe High in Edmond, OK. Etheridge was the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Langston University from 1992-96.

Etheridge coached at Union City High School in Union City, Tennessee from 1989-91.

He began his coaching career in 1986 as a student coach and graduate assistant for the football program at the University of Tennessee at Martin, where he spent three seasons.

Etheridge is married to the former Jennifer Boatright of Norman, OK.

RYAN JONES

SCOUT

Ryan Jones is in his seventh season as a member of the Giants organization. He joined the Giants in 2000 following nine years as a collegiate coach. Jones became a coach following a successful playing career as a defensive back at the University of New Hampshire (UNH), where he earned a bachelor of arts degree.

Jones began his coaching career in 1991 as a graduate assistant at the University of Minnesota, where he served as the assistant defensive backs coach. He then spent two seasons at Holy Cross College (1992-93), where he was responsible for the strength and conditioning of the entire Crusader athletic department, while also serving as the assistant defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the football team.

Jones was named defensive backs coach at New Hampshire in 1994 and remained in that capacity for six seasons before joining the Giants' scouting department.

As a defensive back Jones garnered All-Yankee Conference first-team honors and finished his career with 143 career tackles and 15 interceptions at UNH.

Jones was a 1986 graduate of South Plainfield (N.J.) High School, where he lettered in football, track and basketball. He is single and resides in Plainfield, N.J.

STEVE MALIN

SCOUT

Steve Malin is in his seventh season as a member of the Giants' scouting staff.

Prior to joining the Giants, Malin spent the 2000 season as a regional scout in the XFL. Before that, he was a defensive assistant coach for six seasons at Southern Methodist University, where his players included defensive end Luke Johnson, a 1997 All-Western Athletic Conference Mountain Division player, and linebacker Craig Swann, who earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in 1995 and '96.

Malin began his coaching career at East Texas State in 1993. He moved to SMU as a graduate assistant in 1994. Malin coached the inside linebackers in 1995 and '96 and the defensive line from 1997-99.

He began his playing career at West Texas State where he was a tight end in 1989-90, before transferring to East Texas State where he was a linebacker, tight end and offensive tackle in 1991-92.

A native of Texas, he earned a B.S. degree in kinesiology. Malin holds a master's degree in liberal arts from SMU.

Malin and his wife, Stacey, have five-year-old twins: son Tyler and daughter Taylor, a son, Trey, and a daughter, Trinity Reese, who was born this spring.

CHRIS PETTIT

SCOUT

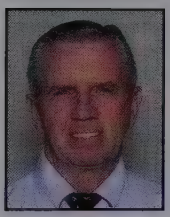
Chris Pettit joined the Giants' scouting staff in 2005 after spending the 2004 season as a scouting intern for the team. Pettit first worked for the Giants as a training camp pro personnel intern from 1998-2000.

Prior to joining the Giants, Pettit was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Huntington High School on Long Island, which won division championships in 2001 and 2003 and was the runner up in the Long Island championship in 2003. In the spring of 2002 and 2003, he was the head boy's lacrosse coach at Finley Junior High School, where the team went undefeated in both seasons.

Pettit spent the 2002 football season as an offensive assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin, where he worked with the running backs and assisted in the preparation of scouting reports for upcoming opponents, as well as recruiting. Wisconsin defeated Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl.

Pettit attended the University of Maryland on a lacrosse scholarship. He played on teams that reached the national finals in 1997 and 98. Pettit graduated from Maryland with a bachelor's degree in sports management.

Pettit was born in Huntington, N.Y.



RAY WALSH, JR.

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Ray Walsh, Jr. has been a member of the Giants organization since 1973, initially as an administrative assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants preseason training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is universally known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac High School in his hometown of White Plains, New York. After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973, when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David and Timothy, and a daughter Susan. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particularly the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

CHRISTOPHER WATTS

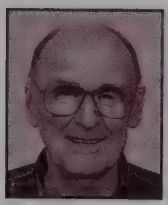
Christopher A. Watts is in his first season as the Giants' scout in the Blesto scouting combine. Watts spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant coaching the offensive line at Langston University in Oklahoma.

From 1998-2004, Watts worked in the corporate world. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration-management in 1998 and a master's degree in education in 2006, both from Langston.

Watts attended Langston on a football scholarship and earned four letters as an offensive lineman. He was elected a first team NAIA All-America and an Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference (OIC) first team tackle in 1996. Watts, who threw the shot put, also lettered once on the track team. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Watts is a Graduate of M.B. Smiley High School in Houston, where he lettered four times in football, twice in track and once in baseball. He was an All-District 21-5A honorable mention as a tackle in 1994.

Watts is married to the former Myeshia Jones of Pauls Valley, OK. He has a daughter, Carrington (7) and a stepson Anthony (11).



HARRY HULMES

SCOUT EMERITUS

Harry Hulmes is in his 24th year with the Giants organization. After retiring in 1998 from his post as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Hulmes remained with the Giants as a player personnel scout, one of his duties since joining the club as Assistant General Manager in 1984.

Prior to joining the Giants, Hulmes served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL. But virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL, where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager. He was then the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as the Colts' business manager in 1958. Hulmes subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

Hulmes graduated from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, then spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU. Harry and Barbara Hulmes have six grandchildren.

DAVE GETTLEMAN

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Dave Gettleman is in his 22nd season in the NFL, his 10th with the Giants and his ninth as the team's Director of Pro Personnel. Gettleman joined the Giants in the spring of 1998 as then-director Tim Rooney's assistant. He was promoted to his current position in the spring of 1999 upon Rooney's retirement.

Gettleman's NFL career includes being a part of four Super Bowl teams in an 11-year period (Buffalo, 1990 and 1991; Denver, 1997; and the Giants, 2000). Gettleman's primary responsibility with the Giants has been the addition of quality veteran free agents to the team's roster. With Gettleman at the head of the pro personnel department, the Giants have been consistently competitive and productive in the veteran free agent market. During the season, Gettleman is responsible for scouting the Giants' upcoming opponent and presenting weekly reports to the coaching staff.

Gettleman entered the NFL in 1986 as a scouting department intern for the Buffalo Bills. He became a full-time scout for Buffalo after the 1987 draft. Following a year as an area scout, Gettleman was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO scouting combine and continued in that capacity through the 1992 draft as the Northeast area scout. From June 1992 through December 1993 Gettleman worked as a regional scout for BLESTO, concentrating in the East and Midwest regions. In January 1994, Gettleman joined the scouting department of the Denver Broncos, for whom he spent more than four years scouting the East and Southeast.

Gettleman began his football career as a teacher-coach at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. As the head coach (1973-1978, 1980-1981) he led his teams to a pair of league titles. He spent a season as a volunteer assistant at Cal State Long Beach (1979). Gettleman joined the faculty of Kingston High School in 1982 and became the head coach in 1984, when he led his team to a Section I Bowl Berth.

Born in Boston, MA, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (MA) College in 1972. He was an offensive tackle on the freshman football team. Gettleman has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration (1986) from St Thomas University in Miami.

Gettleman and his wife, Joanne, have three children: Aaron, Sam, and Ana Jane and live in North Haledon, N.J.

KEN STERNFELD

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Ken Sternfeld is in his sixth season as the Giants' Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. He joined the Giants on May 12, 2002 after spending 21 seasons with the New England Patriots in a variety of capacities, primarily in scouting. Prior to joining the Giants, he served as a college scout assigned to the East Coast region.

Sternfeld works closely with Director of Pro Personnel Dave Gettleman in the pro scouting evaluation process.

From 1995 until joining the Giants, Sternfeld was a member of the Patriots' scouting department. During that period, New England played in Super Bowl XXXI in January 1997 and won Super Bowl XXXVI five years later.

Sternfeld joined the Patriots as an intern in 1981. The following year, he began a two-year stint as an administrative aide. In 1984, Sternfeld was named the Patriots' ticket office manager, a post he held until 1987.

In 1987, he joined the scouting department for five years before returning to the ticket office, where, during his second tenure, franchise tickets sales reached record highs.

Sternfeld returned to the scouting department in January of 1995 and remained there for the rest of his tenure in New England.

Sternfeld is a native of Long Island. He attended Locust Valley High in Locust Valley, N.Y., before earning a business degree at Northeastern University. Sternfeld and his wife Anne have two children, Anna and Timmy.

MATT SHAUGER

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Matt Shauger is in his third season with the Giants organization in 2007 and second as a full-time member of the pro personnel department. His duties include maintaining the pro scouting database, player evaluation, and preparation for upcoming opponents and free agency. Prior to joining the Giants, the northern New Jersey native lived in Europe, where he was an assistant to the NFL's current international scouting director. Based in the league's foreign headquarters in London, Shauger aided in the identification and development of international players while researching and formulating strategies for globally expanding American Football. His efforts helped launch the NFL International Practice Squad program-advancing the NFL's goal to develop non-US playing talent. Shauger earned a B.S. degree in business administration and sport management from Seton Hall University in 2002. He resides in West New York, N.J.

JEREMY BREIT

PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Jeremy Breit is in his second season with the Giants and first as pro personnel assistant. He assists in player evaluation, advanced scouting, and data maintenance. Breit spent his first year with the Giants as the pro personnel intern before joining the staff prior to the 2007 season. He spent the 2005 season in the personnel department with the Houston Texans. Breit is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, where he assisted the Director of Football Operations in the day-to-day functions of the program for two seasons. He also has an MBA from Dowling College. A native of West Islip, NY, Breit resides in Lyndhurst, N.J.

MATTHEW HARRISS

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

Matthew is in his second season in the Giants' organization. After assisting former general manager Ernie Accorsi in 2006, Harriss now works with assistant general manager Kevin Abrams on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance, and player contract negotiations. Prior to joining the Giants, Harriss spent more than four years in the NFL Office. He began as an intern in the Football Operations department in September 2001, and three months later became a player personnel analyst for the Management Council. His responsibilities included salary cap and free agency management, annual NFL draft eligibility, as well as personnel rules assistance for all 32 NFL teams. During his last three seasons in the league office, Harriss also worked with the officiating department as an instant replay booth communicator during games. Harriss graduated from Lafayette College in 2001 with a degree in history. A native on Bronxville, NY, he now lives in Manhattan.

ANDREA WAGNER

ASSISTANT TO PRO PERSONNEL

Andrea DeNonno Wagner began working for the Giants while still in high school as a part-time employee, assisting Jim Lee Howell in the college scouting department and in preparing for the NFL draft. She became a full-time employee upon her graduation, and continued in college scouting, working with Tom Boisture until his retirement. This is her ninth season with the pro personnel department, where she assists in the acquisition of players. Originally from New York, Andrea now resides in River Edge, N.J. with her children, Donna Lea, a fifth-grade teacher in River Edge, N.J., and Christopher, who attends the University at Albany.

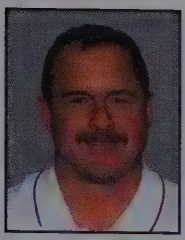
Ed Skiba was named assistant equipment manager prior to the 1999 season, after serving for three years as an intern in the equipment room. His role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants' practice, day of game and travel operations. Ed resides in West New York, N.J. and is a proud alumnus of Bergen Catholic High School, where he was a member of the nationally-ranked football team in 1991. He is also the proud uncle of Maggie Ann Twomey, Kyleigh Elizabeth and Alexander Joseph Skiba.

TIM SLAMAN

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

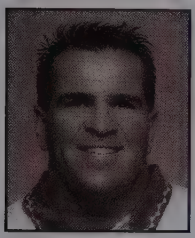
Tim Slaman is in his eighth season as a full-time assistant equipment manager. He spent his first season with the club in a part-time capacity. Slaman assists with the maintenance of the equipment room and the locker room. He is a graduate of Fairliegh Dickinson University. Slaman grew up in West Caldwell, N.J., where he attended Caldwell High School. He lives in Highlands, N.J.



TERRY MANSFIELD

FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

Terry Mansfield is in his eighth season as the Giants' field security manager. He joined the organization in July 2000, succeeding his father, Joe, who worked for the organization for more than a quarter-century, the majority of that time as the field security manager. Mansfield came to the Giants shortly after retiring from the White Plains, N.Y. Police Department, where he served for 25 years. Mansfield was born in The Bronx and grew up in White Plains. He graduated from Archbishop Stepinac High School in 1972 and Iona College in 1976. He and his wife of 29 years, Debra, have a daughter, Caryn (25) and a son, Robert (20). They reside in White Plains.



MIKE MURPHY

TEAM SECURITY

Mike Murphy is in his 18th season in charge of team security for the Giants. In his position, Murphy handles all Giants travel, game day and training camp security operations.

Murphy has been a police officer in Florham Park, N.J. for more than 20 years and is a member of the town's D.A.R.E. unit. A sergeant, he is in charge of the department's community service. Murphy is a Crime Prevention Officer, and is also a Nationally Certified School Resource Officer. He is a 1983 graduate of the 180th Municipal Class of the New Jersey State Police Academy.

Murphy was born in Newark, N.J. He grew up in Florham Park and earned his undergraduate degree in management and a master's in administrative science from Fairleigh-Dickinson University. He is the proud father of twins, Rose Elizabeth and Michael John.

JOHN GORMAN
Ticket Manager

MARIANNE VOGT

LORI MARIE HANDRAS

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Lori Handras is in her fourth season in the Giants' ticket office. Her responsibilities include managing the waiting list, coordinating the Stadium Club and acting as a liaison for season ticket holders. In addition, Lori administers players insurance and is a member of the team's game day statistics crew. She began her collegiate studies at Cortland State and completed her undergraduate degrees in communications and history at the State University at Old Westbury. She attended Bethpage High School in Long Island.

CHARLES WAY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Charles Way is in his eighth season as the Giants' director of player development. Way develops and manages off-field player programs, rookie orientations and player counseling and advises the players regarding career planning, educational opportunities, and team and professional requirements. He also coordinates player activities in support of the public relations and community relations programs. Way was a Giants fullback from 1995-99. In five seasons he rushed for 1,356 yards, caught 118 passes and scored 14 touchdowns. Way was a sixth-round draft choice in 1995. At the University of Virginia, Way was named the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Player as a senior. He received an honorary doctorate of humane letters degree in May 2005 from Centenary College, where he as the 2005-2006 Gates-Ferry lecturer. A native of Philadelphia, Way lives in Wayne, N.J. with his wife, Tahesha and their daughters Fallon (10), Farrah (7) and Faythe (4).

ASHLEY LYNN

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Ashley Lynn is in her first season as the Giants' Player Development Coordinator. She originally joined the organization as a player development intern in the summer of 2001 and 2002. Lynn works with Charles Way in assisting the players with their continuing education, life skills, and preparation for a successful career after football. She earned her bachelor's degree in communications, with an emphasis in public relations, from Hampton University in 2005 and a master's degree in sports administration, from Canisius College in 2007. Lynn resides in New Jersey with her two year old son, Kourdai.

NEW STADIUM/COMPLEX CONSTRUCTION

MARY MUSCA

PROJECT EXECUTIVE, NEW STADIUM PROJECT

Mary Musca joined the Giants in September 2006 to lead the new stadium project team as its Project Executive. Prior to joining the organization, she worked with the late Preston Robert Tisch and the Tisch family on special real estate and charitable projects. Ms. Musca previously worked as the Executive Director of the Riverside South Planning Corporation, the $5.6 billion mixed use development project (residential, retail, commercial, recreational) owned by the Trump Organization and New World Development and located on 75 previously undeveloped acres of the West Side of Manhattan from 59th to 72nd Streets. In addition, Ms. Musca worked as an investment banker in public finance for Morgan Stanley and Company and served as the head of Policy and Strategic Planning for the Empire State Development Corporation during the Cuomo Administration. Ms. Musca has bachelor's degree from Penn State University and a master's degree and Ph.D. from Harvard University. She grew up in Berkeley Heights, N.J, and she and her family are lifeling Giants fans.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (8th pick overall) draft choice by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2000.
- Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 17, 2005.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Eli Manning's favorite target since joining the team in 2005...Over the last 2 seasons has led the team in receptions (139), receiving yards (2,202) and touchdown catches (17).
- Has recorded at least 60 receptions in a season 5 times and more than 1,000 receiving yards in a season 3 times.
- Burress has a career average of 15.9 yards per receptions (400 catches for 6,366 yards). That is 1st among the 51 active players with at least 300 receptions. New England's Randy Moss is 2nd with a 15.8-yard average.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Burress played 5 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers before joining the Giants prior to the 2005 season. He has played in 102 games with 97 starts and has started all 31 games in which he's played for the Giants. Burress has 400 career receptions (31st among active players at the end of the 2006 season), 6,366 yards (24th) and 39 touchdowns (23rd).
- In 2006, led the Giants with 988 receiving yards and a career-high 10 touchdown catches. His 63 receptions were second on the team, trailing only Jeremy Shockey (66). Burress was the first Giant with double-digit touchdown receptions since Earnest Gray had 10 in 1980.
- In 2006, Burress started all 15 regular season games in which he played, as well as the NFC Wild Card Game...He led the Giants with 988 receiving yards and a career-high 10 touchdown catches. His 63 receptions were second on the team, trailing only Jeremy Shockey (66). Burress was the first Giant with double-digit touchdown receptions since Earnest Gray had 10 in 1980.
- Had 5 receptions for 89 yards and 2 touchdowns in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)...His 17-yard touchdown reception on the Giants' 1st possession gave the team an early 7-0 lead...Burress' 11-yard scoring catch in the 4th quarter tied the game at 20-20.
- Finished with 6 receptions for 114 yards and a touchdown at Philadelphia (9/17)...His 31-yard touchdown reception in overtime gave the Giants a 30-24 victory...Burress' 20-yard reception in the 3rd quarter converted a 3rd-and-18...Fumbled into the end zone after a 23-yard reception, but the ball was recovered by Tim Carter for a touchdown to bring the Giants within 10 at 24-14...His 16-yard reception on 3rd-and-8 in the 1st quarter helped set up Amani Toomer's 37-yard touchdown catch.

- Had a 50-yard touchdown reception to end the Giants' 1st series of the game at Dallas (10/23).
- In his 1st season with the Giants in 2005, Burress had team-high totals of 76 receptions and 1,214 yards and tied with Toomer and Shockey for the lead with 7 touchdown catches...The 76 receptions were the 5th-highest total in team history and 2 shy of the career high he set with Pittsburgh in 2002 - and 41 more passes than he caught for the Steelers in 2004...Burress' 1,214 receiving yards were the 2nd-highest total in team history. He passed Homer Jones (1,209) in 1967. Toomer holds the team record with 1,343 in 2002...Burress was selected NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his Week 4 performance against St. Louis, when he caught 10 passes for 204 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Finished with 5 catches for 128 yards and a season-long 78-yard touchdown on a catch and run at Oakland (12/31). Also threw 2 key blocks to help spring Tiki Barber on his record 95-yard touchdown run in the regular-season finale at Oakland (12/31).
- Caught 2 passes for 34 yards and threw 3 key blocks to help Barber score on his 41-yard touchdown in the 2nd quarter vs. Kansas City (12/17).
- Finished with 6 receptions for a team-high 113 yards and a touchdown vs. Philadelphia (11/20). Caught a short pass after a double move on 3rd-and-2 in the 4th quarter that he turned into a 61-yard touchdown reception.
- Recorded a team-high 5 receptions for 79 yards at San Francisco (11/6), including a spectacular 50-yard reception on the last play of the 3rd quarter to help set up Brandon Jacobs' 1-yard touchdown run that gave the Giants a 17-6 lead.
- Had season-high totals of 10 catches, 204 yards and 2 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2). The 10 catches are the most by a Giant since Barber had 10 vs. Atlanta on Nov. 9, 2003 and the most by a Giants wide receiver since Toomer had 10 at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. His 204 yards tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history. Del Shofner had 269 yards at Washington on Oct. 28, 1962, Gene "Choo Choo" Roberts had 212 at Green Bay on Nov. 13, 1949, and Toomer had 204 at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. It was the 19th time in Giants history a receiver caught at least 10 passes in a game. Burress is the 14th different player to accomplish the feat, and just the third wide receiver, joining Shofner and Toomer. His 2 touchdown catches (of 31 and 17 yards) made him the first Giant with two receiving touchdowns in a game since Ike Hilliard had 2 at Minnesota on Oct. 26, 2003.
- In 2004, started all 11 games in which he played in his final season in Pittsburgh and finished 3rd on the 15-1 Steelers with 35 receptions for 698 yards and 5 touchdowns...His 19.9-yards-per-receptions average was 2nd in the NFL...Moved into 7th place on the Steelers' all-time receptions list (244) and 8th place in receiving yardage with 3,824 yards...Hampered by a hamstring injury that forced him to miss 5 of the last 6 regular season games (vs. Washington 11/28, at Jacksonville 12/5, vs. Jets 12/12, at Giants 12/18 and at Buffalo).
- Scored 2 touchdowns, including a 47-yarder, and finished with 3 receptions for 63 yards, vs. New England (10/31).
- In 2003, started all 16 games for the 3rd year in a row and finished with 60 receptions for 860 yards and 4 touchdowns.
- Started all 16 games in 2002 and finished with career-high totals of 78 receptions for 1,325 yards and 7 touchdowns, a team-best 17.0-yard average.
- Enjoyed a career game vs.

Atlanta (11/10), when he had 9 receptions for a team-record 253 yards and 2 touchdowns. Had 4 catches of more than 30 yards, including a 62-yard score and a 50-yard catch off a Hail Mary pass that fell 1 yard short of the game-winning touchdown in overtime.

- Recorded 6 receptions for 100 yards and a touchdown in AFC Wild Card Game vs. Cleveland (1/5). Burress and Hines Ward became Pittsburgh's first pair of receivers to each record a 100-yard game in postseason play since Jan. 21, 1979, when John Stallworth and Lynn Swann achieved that feat in Super Bowl XIII.
- In 2001, played and started in all 16 games for the 1st time. Caught 66 passes for 1,008 yards, his 1st 1,000-yard season, and scored 6 touchdowns...Led Pittsburgh with 10 postseason receptions for 151 yards and 1 TD.
- Enjoyed the 1st 2-touchdown game of his career at Cincinnati (12/30), when he had 6 receptions for 102 yards, his 4th 100-yard performance of the season...Eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark vs. Cleveland (1/6/), when he had 3 catches for 48 yards. Burress joined Ward as the Steelers' 1st 1,000-yard receiver tandem.
- In 2000, played in 12 games with 8 starts as a rookie...Caught 22 passes for 273 yards...Season ended prematurely because of a right wrist injury that required surgery...Was placed on injured reserve (11/3/00).

NEW YORK GIANTS

PERSONAL:

- Originally a 4th round (110th pick overall) by the Giants in 2005.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Big, physical running back who made important contributions in his first 2 seasons as a goal line and short-yardage back.
- Will compete to become the featured back after the retirement of Tiki Barber.
- Became the 1st Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since 1984 and led the team with 9 touchdowns last season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Jacobs played in 31 regular season games and 2 postseason games the previous 2 years....He has rushed for 522 yards on 134 carries with 16 touchdowns...Has also caught 11 passes for 149 yards.
- In 2006, saw action in 15 games (he suited up but did not play vs. New Orleans) and the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia...Finished the season with 97 carries for 432 yards and a team-best 9 rushing touchdowns...Added 11 receptions for 149 yards, with a long catch of 43 yards.
- Had 8 carries for a career-high 54 yards and a touchdown vs. Indianapolis (9/10)...His 1-yard touchdown run in the 4th quarter brought the Giants within 2 points of the Colts at 23-21.
- Finished with a career-high 11 carries for 53 yards and a touchdown at Atlanta (10/15).
- Rushed for 40 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries at Dallas (10/23).
- Had 5 carries for 29 yards and 2 receptions for 52 yards vs. Dallas (12/3)...Career-long 43 yard reception in the 4th quarter and helped set up Jay Feely's 22-yard field goal to tie the game at 13-13.
- Scored touchdowns on runs of 1 and 8 yards on his only 2 carries of the game vs. Chicago (11/12).
- Played in all 16 games as a rookie in 2005, when he was used primarily in short-yardage and goal-line situations and on special teams...Finished the season with 38 carries for 99 yards and 7 touchdowns, with a long run of 21 yards...Converted 20 of 32 opportunities on rushing attempts of 4 or less yards to go.
- Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for 7 touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.
- Scored touchdowns in each of his first 2 games, the 1st Giants rookie to accomplish that feat since Tiki Barber in 1997. Scored on a 5-yard vs. Arizona (9/11) and a 1-yard run at New Orleans (9/19).

- Carried 6 times for season-high 39 yards and a touchdown in his NFL debut vs. the Cardinals.

COLLEGE:

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally selected by the Miami Dolphins in the second round (44th pick overall) of the 1997 NFL draft.
- Released by the Dolphins on March 1, 2006.
- Signed by the Giants as a free agent on March 14, 2006.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Veteran cornerback was voted to 4 consecutive Pro Bowls with the Miami Dolphins.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has appeared in 150 regular season games with 139 starts and has started all 9 postseason games in which he's played...Career statistics include 450 tackles (368 solo) and 33 interceptions.
- In 2006, started 12 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at right cornerback...Missed 4 games with a hamstring injury...Finished with 44 tackles (34 solo) 2 interceptions, 8 passes defensed and 1 fumble recovery.
- At Philadelphia (9/17), finished with 6 solo tackles and 3 passes defensed...Nearly intercepted a Donovan McNabb pass to Donte Stallworth in the end zone in the 1st quarter...Broke up another McNabb to Stallworth attempt later in the 1st quarter...Made a game-saving open-field tackle of Thomas Tapeh in the 4th quarter to force a punt and set up the Giants game-tying drive...Broke up another McNabb attempt to Stallworth in overtime.
- Contributed 2 solo tackles, 1 interception, 2 passes defensed and 1 fumble recovery at Atlanta (10/15)...Intercepted a Michael Vick pass in the 1st quarter and returned it 24 yards...Recovered a Vick fumble later in the 1st quarter...Broke up a Vick attempt to Ashley Lelie in the 4th quarter to end the game.
- At Dallas (10/23), intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass at the one-yard line, his 2nd pick in as many weeks and the 33rd of his career. That tied Madison with his former Miami Dolphins teammate, Patrick Surtain, for 6th among active players.
- In 2005, started all 15 games in which he played at right cornerback in his final season in Miami... Inactive at New Orleans (10/30) due to a hip injury, breaking his streak of 59 consecutive games played...Finished the season with 59 tackles, 2 interceptions and 12 passes defensed.
- Had 3 tackles and 1 interception vs. Tennessee (12/24). Intercepted a Steve McNair pass intended for Drew Bennett in the 2nd quarter, setting up a Gus Frerotte touchdown pass to Chris Chambers. It was Madison's 5th interception off McNair, whom he has picked off more than any other quarterback.
- Recorded 2 tackles and 1 interception vs. Buffalo (12/4)...Picked off a J.P. Losman pass and returned it 11 yards.

- In 2004, started all 16 games for the 3rd year in a row, 15 at right cornerback and one on the left side...Registered 60 tackles, 3 forced fumbles and 9 passes defensed, which ranked 3rd on the club...Was an integral part of a defense that ranked 1st in the AFC and 2nd in the NFL in pass defense (162.0 yards per game)...Since Madison became a full-time starter in 1998 through the 2004 season, the Dolphins finished lower than 8th in the NFL in pass defense just once (19th in 2003).
- Made the 100th start of his NFL career in game vs. Jets (10/3).
- In Dolphins' 1st win of the season, a 31-14 decision over St. Louis (10/24), Madison helped limit the Rams' explosive offense to 269 net passing yards, including just 6 receptions for 102 yards combined for the starting receiving duo of Isaac Bruce and Torry Holt (1 for 4 yards for Holt).
- Forced a Mack Strong fumble at Seattle (11/21). The ball was recovered by Jason Taylor at the Seattle 35 and led to A.J. Feeley's 7-yard touchdown run 6 plays later.
- Started all 16 games at right cornerback in 2003...Posted 55 tackles (50 solo), three interceptions for 82 yards and 1 touchdown, 2 fumble recoveries and 14 passes defensed, which placed him 2nd on the team.
- Had his best game of the 2003 season at Jacksonville (10/12) with the 6th multiple-interception game of his career...Picked off 2 Byron Leftwich passes for 46 yards in returns. Also recovered a fumble when Sammy Knight forced the ball loose from Fred Taylor on the game's 3rd play from scrimmage and Madison recovered at the Jaguars' 41, leading to a Ricky Williams touchdown run 6 plays later. Intercepted his 1st pass of the season later in the opening half when the Jaguars were at midfield. With the Dolphins leading 17-10 and the Jaguars at their own 16 with 1:28 to play, Madison picked off another Leftwich pass and returned it 29 yards for a score to put the game out of reach. It was the 2nd interception return for a touchdown in his career and 1st since Dec. 5, 1999 against Indianapolis, when he picked off a Peyton Manning pass and returned it 21 yards for a score. His interception return in the Jaguars game marked the 3rd touchdown of his career, including a 20-yard fumble return for a score on Oct. 8, 2000 vs. Buffalo. Also had 7 tackles and 4 passes defensed in the Jaguars contest.
- Had a 36-yard interception return of an Anthony Wright pass which led to a field goal in a 9-6 overtime win over Baltimore (11/16). It was the 29th interception of his career.
- Started all 16 games at right cornerback in 2002 and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate...Made the AFC squad after teammate Patrick Surtain could not play because of a knee injury...Registered 31 tackles (27 solo), 3 interceptions for 15 yards and a team-high 14 passes defensed.
- Picked off a Tom Brady pass for his 1st interception of the year vs. New England (10/6/02). Also defensed two passes in the Dolphins' victory over the defending Super Bowl champion Patriots.
- Posted a season-high 5 tackles and picked off Brian Griese pass, which he returned 15 yards, at Denver (10/13). The interception occurred on the 1st series of the 4th quarter. Madison returned it to the Dolphins' 48, setting up Ricky Williams' 2-yard touchdown run. The interception was his 25th as a Dolphin, moving him ahead of Louis Oliver and William Judson into sole possession of 4th place on the Dolphins' career list. It also was one of a season-high 5 passes defensed for Madison, which helped earn him a defensive game ball.
- Collected 4 tackles and intercepted a Daunte Culpepper pass at Minnesota (12/21).

- Started all 13 regular season games in which he played and the AFC Wild Card Game at right cornerback in 2001...Was inactive for 3 contests...Voted as a starter on the AFC Pro Bowl team for the 3rd year in a row, but did not play in the game because of a shoulder injury...Madison and Zach Thomas were Miami's defensive co-captains...Finished the year with 30 tackles (23 solo), 2 interceptions and 13 passes defensed...A key component on the NFL's top-ranked defense, which yielded an average of only 176.8 yards a contest.
- Registered a season-high 6 tackles in opener at Tennessee (9/9), when he also intercepted a Steve McNair pass.
- Second interception of the 2001 season came in the 2nd quarter at Indianapolis (11/11), where he picked off a Peyton Manning pass at the Dolphins' 3. Sustained a right shoulder A/C joint separation on the play and was forced permanently from the game. Was inactive for each of the next 3 weeks with the injury...The 1st game that he missed was vs. Jets (11/18), ending a string of 57 consecutive starts.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick and 2005 1st and 5th-round picks.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Strong-armed quarterback with a historic football heritage and superstar potential.
- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL...Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft, is a 2-time NFL Most Valuable Player and the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI.
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Record as a starting quarterback is 20-19 in the regular season and 0-2 in the postseason.
- Manning is 12-9 in Giants Stadium, including 11-9 as the home team starter and 0-1 as a visitor (9/19/05 vs. New Orleans).
- Manning has started the Giants' last 39 regular season games, the fifth-longest streak among active quarterbacks entering the 2007 season. Brett Favre is first with 237 consecutive starts, followed by Peyton Manning (144), Tom Brady (94) and David Carr (50).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Enters his 4th season with Giants and has started 39 of 41 games and completed 690 of 1,276 pass attempts for 8,049 yards with 54 touchdowns, 44 interceptions, a long pass of 78 yards and a career quarterback rating of 73.2...The 54 touchdown passes place him 6th on the Giants' career list.
- In 2006, started all 16 games and completed 301 passes on 522 attempts for 3,244 yards with 24 touchdowns, 18 interceptions and 77.0 QB rating...His 522 pass attempts were the sixth-highest total in Giants history. The 301 completions topped the 294 completions he had in 2005, his first full season as a starter. It was the 4th season in history that the Giants had a quarterback complete 300 passes. Kerry Collins had the other three: 335 in 2002, 327 in 2001 and 311 in 2000...Manning's 24 touchdown passes matched his 2005 total and left him tied for 4th in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger...Manning is the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86

- Completed a career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for a career-high 371 yards with 3 touchdowns and 1 interception for a QB rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)...His 37-yard touchdown pass to Amani Toomer ended the first series of the game and a 22-yard scoring pass to Toomer in the 4th quarter brought the Giants within 24-21 with 3:28 remaining...Efficiently drove the team down the field in the final 58 seconds to set up Jay Feely's 35-yard game-tying field goal. On the drive, Manning was 3-for-4, including a 22-yard completion to Tim Carter with an Eagles defender pulling him to the ground...In overtime, Manning completed 8-of-8 passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.
- Threw a 50-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 1st quarter to give the Giants a 7-0 lead at Dallas (10/23).
- Completed 5-of-6 passes for 45 yards on the Giants' game-winning drive that ended in a 3-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Shockey to give the Giants a 14-10 victory vs. Houston (11/5).
- Finished with 17 completions on 33 attempts for 172 yards with 3 touchdowns, 0 interceptions, a long pass of 45 yards and a QB rating of 97.0 at Carolina (12/10)...Game long 45-yard pass to Burress was followed by a 28-yard touchdown pass to the same receiver in the 2nd quarter...Completed a 12-yard pass to David Tyree on 4th-and-10 to extend a drive that would later result in a 32-yard field goal...Manning's 25-yard pass to Jeremy Shockey on 3rd-and-5 late in the 2nd quarter set up a 2-yard touchdown pass to Shockey that gave the Giants a 17-10 lead at halftime...Manning's 3-yard touchdown pass to Tyree in the 3rd quarter was his 3rd of the game and 22nd of the season.
- Threw a season-long 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress which was his longest of the season and gave the Giants a 7-0 lead in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (12/24).
- Finished with 16 completions on 27 attempts for 161 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)...The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress...Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.
- Finished the 2005 season with 294 completions on 557 attempts for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns, 17 interceptions, a long completion of 78 yards and a QB rating of 75.9...The 557 passes thrown was the 2nd-highest total in team history. Kerry Collins threw 568 passes in 2001...His 294 completions place him 4th on the Giants' single-season list (behind Collins in 2002, 2001 and 2000). His 3,762 yards were 5th all-time...Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.
- Completed 12 of 24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions at Oakland (12/31). Threw his career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress (12/31).

- Completed 28 of 44 passes for 312 yards, with 1 touchdown and 3 interceptions, and ran for a score at Philadelphia (12/11). Threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Tiki Barber on the Giants' 1st possession. Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter, the 1st rushing touchdown of Manning's career and the first by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).

- Threw a career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27/05). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 17th time in Giants history that they have thrown at least 50 passes in a game, the 15th time when one quarterback made all the throws. The Giants are 0-17 in those games. It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64. Threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Shockey in the 2nd quarter to give the Giants a 10-7 lead. His 13-yard completion to Shockey converted a 3rd-and-10 on the Giants' game-tying drive in the 4th quarter and set up Manning's 2nd touchdown of the game, an 18-yarder to Toomer. Successful 2-point conversion pass to Shockey tied the game at 21.

- Completed 17 of 26 passes for 218 yards with 3 touchdowns, no interceptions and career-high QB rating of 130.0 vs. Philadelphia (11/20/05).

- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23). Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8 of 13 passes for 68 yards. Manning's key completions on the drive were a 6-yard pass to Burress after scrambling to elude a sack on 3rd-and-4, a 24-yard completion to Shockey on 3rd-and-10 and the 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer. A 23-yard pass to Burress earlier in the 4th quarter set up Barber's 4-yard touchdown drive. Threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 1st quarter.

- Completed 19 of 35 passes for 296 yards, a career-high 4 touchdowns (2 to Burress and 1 each to Toomer and Shockey) vs. St. Louis (10/2). Became the first Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis (12/22/02). Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03). Two of Manning's touchdown passes were 31 yards long (the 1st to Burress and the 2nd to Shockey).

- Played in 9 games as a rookie in 2004, including starts in the final 7 games...Rookie record as a starter was 1-6...Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.

- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas. Completed 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5. Threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.

- Completed 16 of 23 passes for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yarder to Shockey. Completed a 49-yard pass to Tyree and a 17-yarder to Barber on a drive that resulted in his 2nd touchdown pass of the game, a 1-yarder to Marcellus Rivers. Completed a pair of 17-yard passes to Toomer and a 15-yarder to Ike Hilliard to help set up Barber's 1-yard touchdown run.

- Made his NFL starting debut vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17 of 37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Shockey. Coincidently, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998...Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the team when the stadium opened in 1976). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner...Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft since 1970, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.

- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. Completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 3rd round (79th pick overall) draft choice by the New York Jets in 2001...Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 4, 2005.

GIANTS NOTE:

- McKenzie blocked for two NFL running backs who totaled 24,550 rushing yards: the Giants' Tiki Barber (10,449) and the Jets' Curtis Martin (14,101).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 85 career regular season games with 77 starts and started all 6 of the postseason games in which he's played. In his 1st 2 seasons with the Giants, McKenzie started all 29 regular season games in which he played and both postseason games.
- Started every game at right tackle for the Jets from 2002-2004...His blocking helped Martin lead the NFL in rushing in 2004 with 1,697 yards.
- In 2006, started all 15 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right tackle...Was active but did not play vs. Houston (11/5) because of migraine headaches.
- The offensive line helped the Giants rush for 2,156 yards, the 7th-highest total in the NFL.
- Thanks in part to McKenzie's blocking, the Giants ran for 151 yards on 31 carries in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7/07).
- The O-line cleared the holes for the Giants' 261-yard rushing attack at Washington (12/30), including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber.
- The offensive line did not allow a sack in consecutive games (11/26 at Tennessee, 12/3 vs. Dallas)...The Giants gained 396 yards vs. the Cowboys.
- In 2005, started all 14 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right tackle...Was inactive for 2 games with a hamstring injury (vs. Kansas City, 12/17 and at Washington, 12/24).
- Offensive line provided enough run blocking for Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards...The pass blocking enabled Eli Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history
- McKenzie returned to action at Oakland (12/31) and helped Barber rush for 203 yards.
- The O-line's outstanding run blocking enabled the Giants to rush for 262 yards vs. Washington (10/30), the 8th-highest total in team history and the Giants' highest total since they ran for 289 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 21, 1985.
- In 2004, started all 16 regular season games and two postseason games at right tackle for the Jets.

- The line's blocking helped the Jets gain 396 yards, including 296 passing yards by Chad Pennington, in an AFC Wild Card victory at San Diego (1/8/05).
- Was a member of the line that helped the offense gain 482 total yards (229 rushing, 253 passing) vs. Seattle (12/19). The line did not allow a sack for the 5th time in 2004 and helped the Jets rush for more than 200 yards for the 4th time.
- In 2003, started all 16 games at right tackle and helped Martin rush for 1,308 yards.
- Leading member of the line that paved the way for Martin to rush for 174 yards on 30 carries vs. Pittsburgh (12/14).
- In 2002, started all 16 games of the regular season for the 1st time in his career, plus 2 postseason games, at right tackle.
- Was not flagged for a penalty all season.
- Helped team rush for 120 yards in AFC Divisional Playoff Game at Oakland (1/12/03) and 180 yards in AFC Wild Card Game vs. Indianapolis (1/4/03).
- Play at right tackle helped Martin rush for 112 yards as part of team's season-high output of 189 yards at Detroit (11/17).
- Made his 1st career start at right tackle in the season opener at Buffalo (9/8).
- In 2001, played in 8 games as an extra tight end in short-yardage.

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter who was only the 5th Nittany Lion to earn All-Big Ten Conference honors 3 times.
- As a senior in 2000, he was an All-Big Ten 2nd-team selection after starting 11 games at left tackle.
- Collected 54 knockdown blocks as the Lions averaged 325.7 yards per game.
- Was an All-Big Ten Conference 1st-team choice as a junior in 1999, when he was on the field for 908 plays and delivered 85 pancake blocks as the team generated 5,014 yards.
- In 1998, he was All-Big Ten 2nd team after starting the first 9 games at left guard before injuries hampered him late in the season.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:
- Greeted team sponsors at the Giants 2006 Marketing Summit.
- Attended the United Way of NYC's 2006 Gridiron Gala.
- Spoke to H.S. students about academic achievement at the NATS Combine.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Washington Redskins on April 22, 2001.
- Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 3, 2005.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Last season, Pierce became the 1st Giants linebacker to play in the Pro Bowl since Jessie Armstead made a 5th consecutive appearance in 2001. Pierce and Armstead were once teammates on the Redskins and remain close friends.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Pierce has played in 84 games with 53 starts for the Redskins and Giants. In his first 2 seasons with the Giants, he started all 29 games in which he played, plus the 2006 NFC Wild Card Game.
- Has career totals of 503 tackles (345 solo), 5.5 sacks, 6 interceptions, 6 forced fumbles and 9 fumble recoveries. With the Giants he has 257 tackles (171 solo), 3.5 sacks, 2 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries and 3 interceptions. He scored a touchdown on an interception return with Washington in 2004 and on a fumble recovery with the Giants in 2005.
- In 2006, Pierce started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at middle linebacker...He led the Giants with 159 tackles (93 solo), 1 tackle shy of the career-high he set with Washington in 2004...Pierce also had 1 sack, 1 interception, 11 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries.
- Pierce played in the Pro Bowl for the first time after Chicago's Brian Urlacher was unable to play because of an injury. He had 3 solo tackles and intercepted a Vince Young pass in the Pro Bowl.
- Contributed a team-high 12 tackles (8 solo) and 1 pass defensed vs. New Orleans (12/24).
- Finished with 10 tackles (5 solo) and a fumble recovery vs. Philadelphia (12/17)...Recovered a Jeff Garcia fumble in the 4th quarter.
- Had a team-high 9 tackles (5 solo) and a sack at Tennessee (11/26)...Recorded his 1st sack of the season when he dropped Vince Young for a 5-yard loss in the 1st quarter.
- Registered 13 tackles (7 solo), 1 quarterback hurry and 2 passes defensed vs. Chicago (11/12)...Tackled Cedric Benson for a 1-yard loss after a reception in the 2nd quarter...Stopped Thomas Jones for a 2-yard loss after a reception later in the 2nd quarter...Broke up a Rex Grossman attempt for Michael Bradley late in the 2nd quarter...Stuffed Jones for a 1-yard loss on a run in the 3rd quarter.
- Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo), an interception and 2 passes defensed at Dallas (10/23)...Recorded his 1st interception of the season when he picked off Tony Romo's 1st attempt of the game after the ball was deflected by Michael Strahan. The interception gave the Giants the ball on Dallas' 14-yard line and 3 plays later, Jeremy Shockey caught a 13-yard touchdown pass to give the Giants a 19-7 lead early in the 3rd quarter.

- In 2005, started all 13 games in which he played at middle linebacker and was voted a 1st alternate to the Pro Bowl.
- Before suffering a season-ending ankle injury at Philadelphia on Dec. 11, Pierce led the Giants with 98 tackles (78 solo) and had 2.5 sacks, 2 interceptions, a forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries, 1 of which he returned for a touchdown.
- Did not play in the final 3 regular season games or the NFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Carolina (1/8/06), yet was second on the team to Gibril Wilson in tackles.
- Finished with a team-high 7 tackles (5 solo), 1 pass defensed and a fumble recovery vs. Dallas (12/4). Scored the Giants 1st defensive touchdown of the season when he recovered a Drew Bledsoe fumble and returned it 12 yards for the score on the 1st play from scrimmage in the 3rd quarter.
- Recorded a team-high 11 tackles, 1 interception and 2 passes defensed vs. Washington (10/30). Intercepted his 2nd pass of the season when he picked off a Mark Brunell attempt for David Patten in the 2nd quarter. Broke up a Patrick Ramsey pass to Robert Royal in the end zone in the 4th quarter to preserve the Giants 36-0 shutout. Played a key role on a Giants defense that held the Redskins to 125 total yards, the smallest output by an opponent since the Vikings gained 114 yards in the 2000 NFC Championship Game and the smallest in a regular season game since Dallas had 108 yards on Dec. 16, 1989.
- In 2004, started all 16 games at middle linebacker for Washington.
- Finished with a career-high 160 tackles (109 solo), 1 sack, 2 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble.
- Had 9 tackles (7 solo) and scored his 1st career touchdown on a 78-yard return after intercepting a Ken Dorsey pass at San Francisco (12/18).
- Recorded a season-high 15 tackles (9 solo) and had a 4-yard sack of Kyle Boller vs. Baltimore (12/12).
- In 2003, played in 15 games with one start...Most of his action was on special teams.
- Finished 3rd on the team in special teams tackles with 18, 13 on kickoff coverage and 5 on punt coverage.
- In 2002, played in 8 games with 1 start and finished with 13 tackles (11 solo).
- As a rookie in 2001, played in all 16 games with 7 starts and had 64 tackles (48 solo), 1 interception, 1 sack, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery.

- Played at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif. before being recruited by Arizona.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Antonio Pierce continues to make an impact in communities on both coasts of the country as an NFL athlete. Each year he hosts a football camp free of charge for children in his hometown of Compton, Calif.

- In 2006, he also opened up his arms to the students at Giants Academy in Newark, N.J., making monthly visits to the school and creating "Antonio's A-List" which rewards students who meet certain academic challenges each semester. Giants Academy is a cooperative effort between the New York Giants and Communities in Schools of Newark to create a heightened learning environment for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders in Spencer School who are designated as "at risk" students. The program consists of approximately 50 students and focuses on improving math, reading, leadership skills, as well as social skills.
- In addition to his school visits, Pierce has also hosted the students at a Giants home game as well as training camp in Albany, NY. Held a "meet the parents night" for Giants Academy families, where he could discuss his goals with the students' parents as well.
- During the holidays, Pierce also took several boys from a group home in New York State out for a day in New York City, treating them to lunch, games, as well as a discussion about goal setting and perseverance.
- Visited Odyssey House for Read Across America.
- Greeted team sponsors at the Giants 2006 Marketing Summit.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed by the Giants as a rookie free agent on April 27, 2001.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Seubert has the third-longest tenure on the team among current Giants players, trialing only Michael Strahan and Amani Toomer.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Seubert has been an important contributor as both a starter and reserve. He has played in 42 regular season games with 26 starts and 3 postseason games with 2 starts.
- Suffered a serious leg fracture in Oct. 2003 that forced him to miss the remainder of season along with the entire 2004 season.
- Made an inspirational return to the field in 2005.
- In 2006, played in 14 games with 3 starts…Also started the NFC Wild Card Game at left guard…Used as a 2nd tight end throughout the season…Was inactive for 2 games (vs. New Orleans, 12/24, at Washington, 12/30) with a shin injury.
- Started at left guard in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)…Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided the blocks that enabled the Giants to rush for 151 yards on 31 carries.
- Started at center in place of injured Shaun O'Hara vs. Philadelphia (12/17)…Left the game for 1 play due to a knee injury in the 4th quarter but would later return.
- Began the game in his normal role in double tight end formations and started for the 2nd straight week at Carolina (12/10)…Played center in the 1st half when O'Hara left the game due to injury…Played the entire second half at left guard in place of David Diehl who was at right tackle in place of the injured Kareem McKenzie…O-line allowed 1 sack.
- Played on special teams and as an extra lineman/eligible receiver at Atlanta (10/15)…The line's blocking helped the Giants gain 259 yard on the ground, the 10th highest total in franchise history.
- In 2005, returned to action after missing the entire 2004 season while recovering from 3 fractures in his right leg suffered in 2003…Played in 4 games with 1 start.
- When he started at left guard vs. the Chiefs it was his 1st playing time on the offensive line since Oct. 19, 2003, when he suffered a severely fractured right leg against the Eagles. The line's run blocking enabled Tiki Barber to rush for a then-franchise record 220 yards.
- In 2004, missed the entire season after being placed on the physically unable to perform list as a result of the fractured right leg he suffered in 2003.
- In 2003, started the first 6 games at left guard before suffering an injury that forced him to miss the rest of the season…Fractured the right fibula, tibia and ankle when N.D. Kalu stepped on the back of his leg late in the 1st quarter vs. Philadelphia (10/19). He was placed on injured reserve the following week.

- In the 5 full games he played, the Giants offense averaged 355 total yards (including 399 at Washington and 381 at New England) and allowed just 8 sacks.
- In 2002, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card game at left guard.
- Was 1 of 3 undrafted free agents to start on the offensive line; the others were Chris Bober at center and Jason Whittle at right guard...The line gave up only 24 sacks all season.
- Stellar play by the line enabled the Giants to average 364.1 yards a game, good for 6th in the NFL. The Giants also ranked 6th in the league in passing, with a team-record 246.9 yards a game.
- As a rookie in 2001, played in 2 games, with no starts...Played only on special teams.
- Suited up for a 3rd game but did not play and was inactive for 13 games.

COLLEGE:
- Named 1st-team All-Gateway Conference as a senior in 2000.
- Helped Leathernecks to the 21st-ranked rushing attack in the country.
- Began career as a tight end before moving to offensive line full-time as a junior in 1999.
- Started all 11 games at tight end as a true freshman in 1997...Caught 2 passes for 17 yards.
- Started first 5 games at tight end as a sophomore and caught 4 passes for 58 yards.
- Started the remainder of the season at guard. Switched to tackle as a junior.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (14th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2002.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Entered NFL draft after junior season at Miami.
- The Giants traded up 1 spot in the 2002 draft to obtain Shockey with the 14th pick. They traded their 1st-round pick (No. 15) and their 4th-round pick (No. 110) to the Tennessee Titans, who owned the 14th pick.
- Has been selected to 4 Pro Bowls in his first 5 seasons, the most ever by a Giants tight end.
- Shockey was the 1st Giant voted to the Pro Bowl in each of his 1st 2 NFL seasons since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor in 1981-82.
- His 74 receptions in 2002 set franchise records for rookies and tight ends.
- Shockey's 314 receptions place him 8th on the Giants career list and 2nd among the franchise's tight ends (Bob Tucker, No. 7 overall, is 1st among tight ends with 327).
- Shockey finished the 2006 season 5th in career receptions among active tight ends, trailing Tony Gonzalez (721), Kyle Brady (334), Marcus Pollard (321) and Todd Heap (316).
- Shockey's 3,609 receiving yards place him 4th among Giants tight ends, behind Tucker (4,376), Aaron Thomas (4,253) and Mark Bavaro (3,722). He is 5th among active tight ends, behind Gonzalez (8,710), Pollard (4,007), Alge Crumpler (3,768) and Heap (3,658).
- Shockey's 24 career touchdown receptions place him 3rd among Giants tight ends, behind Thomas (35) and Bavaro (28).
- Shockey has caught at least one pass in 69 consecutive games in which he's played, the third-longest active streak among tight ends, behind Gonzalez (99) and Heap (70).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Shockey has played in 69 regular season games with 68 starts and started all 3 postseason games in which he has played. He has 314 receptions (8th on the Giants' career list) for 3,609 yards and 24 touchdowns. In postseason play, he has 13 catches for 143 yards and 1 score.
- In 2006, Shockey started all 15 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game. He was inactive at Washington (12/30) with an ankle injury. It was the 4th season in a row he sat out the regular season finale with an injury.
- Led the Giants with 66 receptions, the second-highest total of his career. They accounted for 623 yards and 7 touchdowns, tying the career high he set in 2005. He added 3 catches for 25 yards in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7).

- Shockey was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 4th time in his 5-year career, though he was unable to play in the game because of an ankle injury that kept him out of the regular season finale in Washington
- Finished with a team-high and tied his season high with 8 receptions for 70 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/17). His 14-yard catch late in the 2nd quarter helped set up Jay Feely's 47-yard field goal.
- Caught 6 passes for 49 yards...His 25-yard catch helped set up his 2-yard touchdown reception.
- Shockey had 6 receptions for 65 yards and a 17-yard touchdown catch on the opening series vs. Dallas (12/3).
- Finished with a team-high 6 receptions for 55 yards and 2 touchdowns at Atlanta (10/15)...His 2-yard touchdown catch in the 3rd quarter gave the Giants a 17-14 lead...A 10-yard reception in the 4th quarter converted a 3rd-and-4 to extend a drive that would result in his 2nd touchdown of the game, a 4-yarder.
- In 2005, he started all 15 regular season games in which he played, plus the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina. Inactive due to ankle injury at Oakland (12/31)
- Shockey's 65 catches and 891 yards placed him 2nd on the team behind Plaxico Burress in both categories and his 7 touchdown receptions tied Burress and Amani Toomer for the team lead.
- Became the second-fastest tight end in history with 200 receptions when he reached that mark in his 43rd game, behind only Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow (39 games).
- Was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 3rd time in his 4-year career, the most ever by a Giants tight end (he did not play in the game because of an ankle injury).
- Tied a season high with team best 10 receptions for 107 yards at Philadelphia (12/11). It was the 4th time in his career he has had at least 10 catches in a game. The 100-yard game was his 4th of the season and the 7th of his career.
- In 2004, Shockey started all 15 games in which he played. Did not play in the season finale vs. Dallas (1/2/05) because of a back injury.
- Led the team with 61 receptions for 666 yards and 6 touchdowns.
- Became the first tight end to lead the team in receptions since Mark Bavaro in 1987 (55).
- Started all 9 games in which he played in 2003...Selected to his 2nd Pro Bowl despite missing the season's final 7 games with a knee injury.
- Finished 4th on the Giants and 6th among NFL tight ends with 48 catches for 535 yards and 2 touchdowns.
- Tied his career high with 11 receptions for 110 yards vs. Miami (10/5). It was his 3rd career 100-yard game.
- In 2002, played in 15 regular season games with 14 starts and started the NFC Wild Card Game at San Francisco.
- Voted Pepsi Rookie of the Year in balloting by NFL fans.
- Selected 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest.
- Voted to NFL All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly.
- Selected to All-NFC team by Pro Football Weekly.
- Caught 74 passes for 894 yards and 2 touchdowns...The 74 catches was the 5th-highest total in Giants history, a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). The 74 receptions were the 2nd-most ever for an NFL rookie tight end (Philadelphia's Keith Jackson had 81 catches in 1988).
- Accounted for 894 receiving yards, the most by a Giants tight end since Bavaro had 1,001 in 1986 and the 2nd-most in history by a 1st-year player at his position. The rookie receiving yardage record of 1,076 was set by Hall of Famer Mike Ditka of Chicago in 1961

- Named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for Week 17 and the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month for both November and December
- Won the NFC Player of the Week award in the season finale vs. Philadelphia (12/28) when he caught 10 passes for 98 yards. Scored the Giants only touchdown in the 4th period when he jumped, moving backwards, and ripped the ball away from Philadelphia's Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins in the end zone.

COLLEGE:

- Was 1 of 3 finalists for the John Mackey Award, given to the finest tight end in college football.
- Played just 2 seasons at Miami, but finished his career ranked 6th on the school's career-record list for tight ends with 61 receptions for 815 yards.
- Only Bubba Franks (12, 1997-2000) had more touchdown catches than his 10 scores among tight ends who have worn a Miami uniform.
- As a junior in 2001, was a 1st-team All-America selection by CNNSI, adding 2nd-team honors from Associated Press, Sportsline.com and ABC Sports.
- Led the team with a career-high 40 receptions for 519 yards (13.0-yard avg.) and 7 touchdowns.
- In 2000, earned 1st-team All-Big East Conference honors by the league's coaches, College Football News and The Sporting News for his outstanding season.
- Attended Northeast Oklahoma A&M (Miami, Oklahoma) in 1999.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Attended the 2006 "Meet the Giants" dinner benefiting The Ronald McDonald House of NYC.
- Made a financial contribution to the Giants Players Holiday Collection, assisting in funding the 2006 Jingle Jam and adopting the Bowery Mission for Thanksgiving.

PERSONAL:

NEW YORK GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

GIANTS NOTES:

- His 132.5 career sacks tie the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and is 1st among active players and tied for 7th on the league's career list (with Taylor and Leslie O'Neal).
- Set an NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks in 2001.
- Led the NFL in 2003 with 18.5 sacks, the 2nd-highest total of his career. He is the only Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. The only other time a Giant topped the NFL's sack list was 1986, when Lawrence Taylor had 20.5 sacks. The only other players who have led the NFL in sacks at least twice are Mark Gastineau (1983-84), Hall of Famer Reggie White (1987-88) and Kevin Greene (1994 and 1996).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Strahan has played in 200 regular season games, the 3rd-highest total in franchise history, behind only Howard Cross (207) and George Martin (201). He has started 190 of those games at defensive end.
- Strahan has recorded 822 tackles (629 solo), 132.5 sacks, 3 interceptions, 36 passes defensed, 22 forced fumbles and 13 fumble recoveries. He has scored 3 touchdowns, including 2 on interception returns and 1 on a fumble return.
- Rebounded from injury-shortened 2004 season to play brilliantly in 2005, when he was selected to his 7th Pro Bowl in 9 seasons in 2005, the most ever by a Giants defensive lineman. Only Taylor (10), Harry Carson (9), Rosie Brown (9) and Emlen Tunnell (8) were selected to more Pro Bowls as Giants.
- Played every game for 8 consecutive seasons before tearing his pectoral muscle in 2004.
- Moved into the starting lineup in his 2nd NFL season in 1994 after missing 7 games as a rookie due to a foot injury.
- Named Giants Most Valuable Player in 1998 and 2001 and 1997 Defensive Player of the Year.
- In 2006, started all 9 games in which he played at left defensive end. Missed 7 games with a Lisfranc sprain in his foot...Placed on injured reserve on Dec. 26.
- Sacked Drew Bledsoe twice at Dallas (10/23) to increase his career total to 132.5, tying the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor...The 2 sacks also tied Strahan with Taylor and Leslie O'Neil for 7th place on the NFL's career list. He leads all active players in sacks.

- Finished the 2006 season with 50 tackles (34 solo), 3 sacks and 4 passes defensed.
- Returned to action vs. New Orleans (12/24) to start at left defensive end after missing 6 games with a foot injury...Recorded 5 tackles (3 solo) and a pass defensed before leaving the game in the 3rd quarter after re-aggravating his foot injury...Tackled Reggie Bush for a 1-yard loss in the 1st quarter...Batted down a Drew Brees attempt for Marques Colston in the 2nd quarter.
- Recorded 4 tackles (3 solo), 1 pass defensed and 4 quarterback hits vs. Tampa Bay (10/29)...Stuffed Carnell Williams for no gain on the 1st play of the game...Batted away a Bruce Gradkowski pass attempt to Alex Smith in the 1st quarter.
- Finished with a team-high 5 solo tackles and had 2 sacks and a pass defensed at Dallas (10/23)...Sacks of Drew Bledsoe were for losses of 5 and 6 yards. The sacks increased his career total to 132.5, tying the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor. Strahan also tied Taylor and Leslie O'Neal for 7th place on the NFL's career list.
- In 2005, Strahan started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at left defensive end, making a successful return from injury after missing the final 8 games of the 2004 season with a pectoral tear that was surgically repaired...Finished the season with 82 tackles (61 solo), 11.5 sacks, 2 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery.
- Was voted to his 7th Pro Bowl in 9 seasons and was selected a selected a 1st-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated.
- Strahan and teammate Osi Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.
- Strahan and Umenyiora were the first Giants from the same position group to be selected to the Pro Bowl together since Taylor and Pepper Johnson in 1990. They were the first pair of Giants defensive linemen chosen in the same season since end Leonard Marshall and tackle Jim Burt in 1986. Strahan and Umenyiora were the first tandem of defensive ends from the same team to go to the Pro Bowl together since Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong of the Miami Dolphins in 2000.
- Finished with 6 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a pass defensed against Carolina in the NFC Wild Card Game (1/8/06). Sacked Jake Delhomme for an 8-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and a 5-yard loss in the 3rd quarter.
- Contributed 3 tackles and 2 sacks of Mike McMahon at Philadelphia (12/11). Increased his season sack total to 11.5, the sixth time in his career has been in double digits and increased his career sack total against Philadelphia to 20.5, his highest total against any opponent. McMahon became the 60th different quarterback he has at least a half-sack against.
- In 2004, started in the season's first 8 games at left defensive end, increasing his number of games played in a Giants uniform to 175, the 6th-highest total in franchise history...Strahan's 4 sacks increased his career total to 118.0 which put him 1st among active players and 12th on the NFL's career list.
- Finished the season with 35 (25 solo) tackles, 4 sacks and 3 fumble recoveries.
- Missed the final 8 games of the season after being placed on injured reserve (11/9) with a torn pectoral muscle that required surgery...He suffered the injury on Nov. 7 against Chicago.

- Finished with 4 tackles (3 solo) at Minnesota (10/31), when he surpassed Harry Carson and Keith Hamilton to move into sixth place with 174 career games played in franchise history.
- In 2003, started all 16 games at left defensive end, the 8th season in a row he did not miss a game and the 5th consecutive year he started every game.
- Led the NFL with 18.5 sacks to become the 1st Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. Strahan had an NFL-record 22.5 sacks in 2001.
- Finished with 84 tackles (64 solo), 5 passes defensed, 3 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery.
- Named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Football Digest...Received All-Pro honors from Pro Football Weekly, Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News...Named to the Pro Football Weekly All-NFC team.
- In 2002, Started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at San Francisco. All but 1 of those starts was at left defensive end (started at right defensive end vs. Washington (11/17).
- Led Giants and was tied for 9th in the NFL with 11.0 sacks for 57.5 yards.
- Selected to start in the Pro Bowl, the 5th time in 6 years he was voted to play in the game...Named 2nd team All-Pro by the AP.
- Finished with 75 tackles (57 solo), a team-high 3 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery and 2 passes defensed.
- In 2001, Strahan started all 16 games at defensive left end
- Set an NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. The previous record of 22 sacks was set by Mark Gastineau of the Jets in 1984...Became the 6th player to record at least 20 sacks in a season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. He was the 1st player with at least 20 sacks in a season since the late Derrick Thomas accomplished the feat for Kansas City in 1990 and the 1st with 21 since Minnesota's Chris Doleman did it in 1989...The previous Giants record was held by Taylor, who had 20.5 sacks in 1986.
- Strahan's 4.0 sacks at St. Louis (10/14) was .5 shy of the team's single-game record of 4.5 sacks by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991.
- Led the NFL with a career-high 7 forced fumbles.
- Scored the 3rd touchdown of his career on a 13-yard fumble recovery against Seattle (12/23). He had previously scored on interception returns of 24 yards against Washington in 1998 and 44 yards at Philadelphia in 1999.
- Voted to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 seasons...Named the NFL's Player of the Year by Paul Zimmerman of Sports Illustrated...Named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, the only Giant other than Taylor to win the award. Taylor received the honor in 1981, '82 and '86.
- Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after recording 9.5 sacks in 4 games...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in 3 games: St. Louis and New Orleans.
- Finished tied for 4th on the team with 73 tackles, including 62 solo...Also had 2 passes defensed and 1 fumble recovery...A 7-yard, 4th-period sack of Brett Favre vs. Green Bay (1/6/02) boosted Strahan's total to a single-season NFL record 22.5. Finished game with 4 tackles (3 solo).

HIGH SCHOOL- DE LASALLE HIGH SCHOOL (CONCORD, CA)
HOW ACQUIRED-DRAFT (2ND RD., 1996)
NFL EXP.-12TH YEAR
GIANTS EXP.-12TH YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Holds franchise records with 8,157 receiving yards and 22 100-yard receiving games (plus 1 in the postseason). He has 2,723 more receiving yards than franchise runner-up Frank Gifford (5,434).
- Toomer is 2nd on the Giants' career list with 561 receptions. He trails only retired running back Tiki Barber, who caught 586 passes.
- Toomer's 47 touchdown catches leave him tied for 2nd in Giants history with Joe Morrison (47). Kyle Rote is first with 48.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Toomer has played in 158 regular season games (tied with Doug Van Horn for 14th on the franchise's career list) with 114 starts. He played in 127 consecutive games before a hamstring injury kept him out of the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas. Toomer has also played in 6 postseason games with 5 starts.
- His 561 career receptions placed him 19th among active players at the conclusion of the 2006 season. His 8,157 yards and 47 touchdowns left him 17th in each category.
- Before injuring his knee in 2006, Toomer had caught at least 50 passes in 7 consecutive seasons and at least 700 receiving yards in 6 of the last 8 seasons, including 5 in a row with more than 1,000 yards. No other Giant in history has more than three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons.
- From 1999-2002, he became the 1st receiver in team history to catch at least 70 passes in 4 consecutive seasons.
- Has the 3 highest single-season reception totals in team history: 82 in 2002, 79 in 1999 and 78 in 2000.
- Caught at least 1 pass in a Giants-record 98 consecutive games before the streak ended in the 2005 season opener vs. Arizona.
- In 2006, started all 8 games in which he played before a partial tear of the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee forced him to undergo surgery...Finished the season with 32 receptions for 360 yards and 3 touchdowns.
- Toomer had 4 receptions for a team-high 81 yards vs. Washington (10/8)...His 44-yard catch in the 1st quarter helped set up Jay Feely's 24-yard field goal...A 21-yard reception in the 3rd quarter converted a 3rd-and-16 to extend a drive that would result in the Giants' only touchdown of the game.

- Caught a career-high 12 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns at Philadelphia (9/17). His previous best was 10 catches at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. His 137 yards were his highest total since he had 204 that day against the Colts. It was Toomer's first 100-yard game since he gained exactly 100 yards at Arizona on Nov. 14, 2004 and his first multiple-touchdown game since he had 3 at Indianapolis in 2002...Toomer became the first Giant to score 2 touchdowns in a game since Tiki Barber did it vs. Kansas City on Dec. 17, 2005 and the first to catch a pair of scoring passes since Plaxico Burress did against St. Louis on Oct. 2, 2005...It was Toomer's 22nd career 100-yard game, extending his own team record.
- In 2005, played in all 16 regular season games with 15 starts at flanker, and started the NFC Wild Card Game.
- Caught 60 passes for 684 yards and tied Burress and Jeremy Shockey for the team lead with 7 touchdown receptions
- Caught 6 passes for 62 yards and a touchdown at Seattle (11/27). Made a spectacular 18-yard touchdown reception by somehow keeping his feet inbounds in the back of the end zone in the 4th quarter. The subsequent 2-point conversion tied the score at 21-21.
- Became the 1st Giant in history with 500 receptions when he caught a 15-yard pass on 3rd-and-15 to help set up Jay Feely's field goal in the 1st quarter vs. Philadelphia (11/20). Finished the game with 6 receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown. Scored his 4th touchdown of the season when he caught a 1-yard pass from Eli Manning on 4th-and-1 in the 2nd quarter to give the Giants a 10-0 lead.
- In 2004, Played in 15 games with 14 starts at split end and led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards, the 6th consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards.
- Finished the season with 7,113 receiving yards, extending his franchise record and becoming the first Giant in history with at least 7,000 yards. No one else in team history has as many as 6,000.
- Caught a pass in every game he played, extending his team record to 98 consecutive games with a reception...Did not catch a touchdown pass for the 1st time since his rookie year in 1996.
- Missed the season finale vs. Dallas (1/2) due to a hamstring injury, ending his streak of consecutive games played at 127.
- Finished with a season-high 8 catches for 100 yards at Arizona (11/14). It was his 21st 100-yard game of his career, extending his own team record.
- In 2003, started all 16 games at split end and led the team with 1,057 receiving yards, the 5th consecutive season he set the pace in that category.
- Finished 2nd on the team in receptions with 63 (Barber had 69) and touchdown catches with 5 (Ike Hilliard had 6).
- Became the Giants career receiving yardage leader with 6,366 and finished the season with 418 career catches, second in team history to Barber (422).
- Caught a pass in every game, extending his team record to 83 consecutive games with a reception
- Finished with 5 receptions for 66 yards, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season, at Dallas (12/21).

- Caught 6 passes for season-high 127 yards and a touchdown and surpassed Homer Jones with his team-record 18th career 100-yard receiving game at Jets (11/2).
- Had 7 pass receptions for 126 yards and a touchdown and set 2 team records and tied another vs. Dallas (9/15). His 1st catch gave him a reception in 69 consecutive games, a new franchise mark. He had shared the record with Hilliard. Toomer's game-long 40-yard catch late in the 2nd period boosted his career-receiving yardage total to 5,459, which surpassed Frank Gifford's former standard of 5,434 yards, which had stood since the end of the 1964 season. The 100-yard game was the 17th of his career, tying Jones' for the team record. Jones played for the Giants from 1964-69.
- In 2002, had the finest season by a wide receiver in Giants history...Set franchise records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with 8 touchdown catches...Broke his own record of 79 receptions, set in 1999, and Homer Jones' record of 1,209 yards, set in 1967.
- Most prolific performance was at Indianapolis (12/22), where he had 10 catches for 204 yards and 3 touchdowns...Became the 1st Giants wide receiver to catch at least 10 passes in a regular season game since Del Shofner caught 11 against Washington on Oct. 28, 1962. Tight end Jeremy Shockey had 11 catches vs. the Redskins (11/17); Hilliard had 10 receptions in the 2000 NFC Championship Game. Toomer's 204 receiving yards vs. the Colts was the 3rd highest single-game total by any player in 2002 (Pittsburgh's Plaxico Burress had 253 yards against Atlanta and Denver's Shannon Sharpe had 214 yards at Kansas City – both of those games went into overtime). It was the 3rd-highest single-game receiving yardage total in Giants history, surpassed only by Shofner's 269 on Oct. 28, 1962 and Gene Roberts' 212 on Nov. 13, 1949.
- Toomer's 82-yard touchdown reception at Indianapolis was the longest play of his career and the 7th-longest play from scrimmage - and the 6th-longest pass - in Giants history.
- In 2001, played in all 16 games for the 5th consecutive season, with 14 starts...Did not start vs. Dallas (11/4) and vs. Green Bay (1/6/02).
- Caught 72 passes, tying Barber for the team lead...Became the 1st Giants player to catch 70 passes in 3 consecutive seasons...Led the team with 1,054 receiving yards...Caught 5 touchdown passes, 1 behind team-leader Ike Hilliard.
- In 2000, played in 16 regular season games with 14 starts and started all 3 postseason games.
- Caught 78 passes - 1 shy of the team record he set in 1999 - for 1,094 yards (a 14.0-yard average), and 7 touchdowns.
- Caught 6 passes for 88 yards and a touchdown in NFC Championship Game vs. Minnesota (1/14/01). Scored his 1st career playoff touchdown when he caught a 7-yard pass in the corner of the end zone to give the Giants a 41-0 lead early in the 3rd quarter.
- Finished with then career-high 193 receiving yards on 8 receptions vs. Jacksonville (12/23). It was the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 196 on Oct. 1, 1967.
- In 1999, started all 16 games for the 1st time in his NFL career
- His 79 receptions broke Earnest Gray's Giants single-season record of 78, set in 1983

- Had 1,183 receiving yards to become the 1st Giants receiver to gain over 1,000 receiving yards in a season since Lionel Manual had 1,029 in 1988...The 1,183 yards was the 2nd-highest total in team history; Homer Jones had 1,209 receiving yards in 1967...Combined with Hilliard to gain 2,179 receiving yards as they became the 1st Giants receiving duo to combine for over 2,100 yards in a season.
- Enjoyed huge game against the Jets (12/5) when he caught 6 passes for 181 yards and 3 touchdowns. Had touchdown receptions of 9, 61, and 80 yards. Toomer's 181 receiving yards were the most by a Giants receiver since Jones caught 4 passes for 196 yards at Washington on Oct. 1, 1967. It was the 1st 3-touchdown game by a Giants receiver since Gray had 3 vs. Green Bay on Nov. 16, 1980.
- In 1998, played in all 16 games as a reserve at wide receiver and as the Giants punt returner...Caught 27 passes for 360 yards and 5 touchdowns...Returned 35 punts for 252 yards...Also returned 4 kickoffs for 66 yards
- Caught the game-winning 37-yard touchdown pass from Kent Graham with just 48 seconds left in the victory over previously undefeated Denver (12/13). Made an adjustment to get underneath Broncos cornerback Tito Paul before using his leaping ability to out-jump the defender for the ball.
- In 1997, played in all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game...Returned 47 punts for 455 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown return at Detroit (10/19/97).
- Fielded a short punt in the 3rd quarter against the Lions and raced 53 yards in and out of traffic for a 17-10 Giants lead. Awarded a game ball by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL for his performance
- Finished the season with 16 catches for 263 yards and a touchdown...Caught his 1st NFL touchdown pass on a 56-yarder from Danny Kanell in the 2nd quarter vs. Arizona (11/16).
- As a rookie in 1996, played in 7 games with 1 start before suffering season-ending knee injury.
- Finished with 18 punt returns for 298 yards (16.6 avg.) and 2 touchdowns, joining David Meggett (1994) as the only Giants to finish a season with 2 punt returns for touchdowns in a season...Returned 11 kickoffs for 191 yards (17.4 avg.)...Caught 1 pass for 12 yards...
- In his 1st NFL game, Toomer scored on an 87-yard punt return vs. Buffalo (9/1), the longest punt return in Giants history. The previous team mark was an 83-yard return by Eddie Dove at Philadelphia on Sept. 29, 1963.
- Injured the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee at the end of the 1st half at Washington (10/20). Played the rest of that game and attempted to go through Wednesday's practice prior to the Detroit game (10/27) before the extent of his injury was diagnosed.

COLLEGE:

- At conclusion of his collegiate career, Toomer ranked 2nd on Michigan's career lists with 143 receptions for 2,657 yards, topped only by Anthony Carter (161-3,076, 1979-82)...Caught 18 touchdown passes.
- All-America Dream Team selection by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, All-Big 10 Conference 2nd-team choice following senior season in 1995.

- As a senior, finished 2nd on the Wolverines with 44 receptions for 758 yards (17.2-yard avg.) and 7 touchdowns and gained 177 yards on 21 punt returns (8.4-yard avg.) with a score and 204 yards on 11 kickoff returns (18.5-yard avg.).
- In his junior season's (1994) he was a 1st-team All-Big 10 Conference choice after he caught 54 passes for 1,096 yards (20.3-yard avg.) and 6 touchdowns.
- Became only the 3rd receiver in school history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season, joining Jack Clancy (1,079 yards in 1966) and Desmond Howard (1,025 in 1990)...The 1,096 yards was the 3rd-highest single-season total in school history.

OFF-THE-FIELD:

- In 2001, Toomer founded the Amani Toomer Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to increasing the awareness of, and providing resources to after-school recreation programs in the New York metropolitan area. The mission of the foundation is to identify established after- school programs in these underserved communities and assist them in furthering their efforts. Through the foundation, he has constructed several new playgrounds in local under served neighborhoods.
- In February of 2004, Toomer joined the United Nations' World Food Program along with then Giants quarterback Kurt Warner, his wife Brenda, and Tony Richardson of the Kansas City Chiefs, traveling to the tsunami affected areas of Indonesia and Sri Lanka. During the 12-day trip, the group visited the most damaged areas, separating and delivering food rations to the affected people.
- Prior to departing Toomer joined several teammates in heading up to the AmeriCares warehouse in Connecticut where they packaged items to send for the tsunami relief effort and created a PSA that ran during the Super Bowl thanking the American public for their efforts towards the cause.
- For his contributions to the community, Toomer was selected as the Giants' 2003 Man of the Year.
- He was also honored by the United Way of NYC as the "2002 Hometown Hero."
- Visited Orange High School to promote the 3-A-Day Dairy Program.
- Made a financial contribution to the Giants Players Holiday Collection, assisting in funding the 2006 Jingle Jam and adopting the Bowery Mission for Thanksgiving.
- Attended the Jay Fund's "Pigskin Ball" fundraiser dinner.

PERSONAL:

- USA Today, The Sporting News, Parade and Super Prep All-American selection at De LaSalle (Concord, CA) High.
- Named Gatorade California Player of the Year...Western Region Player of the Year.
- Was named the California Interscholastic Federation Player of the Year as a senior after catching 70 passes for 1,204 yards (17.2-yard avg.) and 12 touchdowns while leading the team to a 12-1 record and a berth in the state Class 4-1 championship game.
- Father, Donald, Sr., played football at Ohio State and is presently a Pac-10 Conference official...Brother, Donald, Jr., was a defensive back at Utah State (1990-94).
- Born Amani (pronounced ah-MAH-NEE) Toomer on Sept. 8, 1974 in Berkeley, CA.

the NFC and 2nd in the NFL and was highest total by a Giants player other than Michael Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

- That season, Umenyiora and Strahan combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.
- Umenyiora was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly and was selected the NFL's Most Improved Player by Pro Football Weekly.
- Umenyiora and Strahan became the 1st tandem of defensive ends from the same team to go to the Pro Bowl together since Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong of the Miami Dolphins in 2000.
- Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/31)...Dropped Kerry Collins for a 12-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and recorded his 2nd sack of the game in the 4th quarter when he stripped Collins of the ball for a 9-yard loss.
- Had 8 tackles (7 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Seattle (11/27)...Sacked Matt Hasselbeck for an 8-yard loss and stripped him of the ball and dropped him for a 4-yard loss, all in the 2nd quarter.
- Finished with 9 tackles (4 solo) and 2 sacks vs. Minnesota (11/13)...Picked up his 7th and 8th sacks of the season when he dropped Brad Johnson for a pair of 4-yard losses.
- In 2004, played in 16 games with 7 starts at defensive right end...Led the team with 7 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries (including 1 he returned for a touchdown) and 3 forced fumbles along with 58 tackles (42 solo) and 3 passes defensed.
- Recorded 9 tackles, 1 sack and a forced fumble vs. Dallas (1/2/05)... Sacked Vinny Testaverde and forced a fumble in the 4th quarter that was recovered by Reggie Torbor and led to Tiki Barber's 3-yard touchdown reception.
- Finished with a career-high 13 tackles and a sack vs. Pittsburgh (12/18)...Sacked Ben Roethlisberger for a 2-yard loss in the 3rd quarter.
- Did not start at Baltimore (12/12), but recorded 4 tackles, a half-sack, 2 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Scored the 1st touchdown of his career when he recovered a Kyle Boller fumble that was forced by a Reggie Torbor sack, and returned it 50 yards in the 2nd quarter.
- Played in 13 games with 1 start as a rookie in 2003...Playing time increased late in the season because of injuries suffered by defensive linemen...Finished with 19 tackles (15 solo), 1 sack and one special teams tackle in rookie season.
- Set up all 3 Giants touchdowns in season finale against Carolina (12/28), the first 2 with blocked punts and the third with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered for a score by Keith Washington. Umenyiora's feat was the first time the Giants blocked 2 punts in 1 game since Oct. 9, 1943 against the Phil-Pitt Steagles, a team made up of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia players during World War II. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He finished with 4 tackles (1 solo) and a sack for a loss of 17 yards.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey and is valued at $12,500. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name.

Giants	0	7	7	7	21

Big buildup. Big opening night. Big game. Big letdown. The Giants had hoped to begin their 2006 season with a statement victory over a team many considered the NFL's best – and one that would win the Super Bowl five months later. Instead they beat only themselves with mistakes in all phases of the game and fell to the Indianapolis Colts in Giants Stadium, 26-21. The game will long be remembered for being the first in NFL history in which two brothers started at quarterback. Eli Manning of the Giants and Peyton Manning of the Colts played to a virtual draw: Eli completed 20 of 34 passes for 247 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and had a rating of 88.7. His older brother hit 25 of 41 passes for 276 yards, one touchdown, one interception and had a rating of 78.9. The Giants held sizeable advantages in total yards (433-327) and rushing yards (186-55). But they also had more turnovers (2-1), more penalties (10-3) and a lower third-down conversion percentage (50-69). They dropped two probable interceptions and generated little in their return game. The result was their first home-opening loss since 2002. Peyton Manning threw a touchdown pass to tight end Dallas Clark, Dominic Rhodes ran for a score and Adam Vinatieri kicked four field goals in his first game for the Colts. For the Giants, Eli Manning threw scoring passes to Plaxico Burress (34 yards) and Jeremy Shockey (15 yards) and Brandon Jacobs scored on a one-yard run. The Giants had two chances to pull out the game in the fourth quarter, though the second was a longshot. After forcing a Colts punt, the Giants got the ball on their own 10 with 4:58 left, trailing, 23-21. On third-and-two, Manning threw what appeared to be a 19-yard completion to Tim Carter. But the receiver was penalized for offensive pass interference, though replays indicated he didn't touch Harper. On the next snap, Manning's pass for Amani Toomer was intercepted by Nick Harper, who returned the ball to the 34. The turnover led to Vinatieri's fourth field goal and a five-point Colts lead with 1:12 remaining. The Giants began their subsequent possession at the 23. They reached the Indianapolis 49-yard line with 17 seconds remaining, but center Shaun O'Hara was penalized for a false start. That resulted in a mandatory 10 second runoff. With only seven seconds to work with, Manning's desperation pass to Burress fell incomplete. Jacobs' score with 8:01 remaining pulled the Giants to within 23-21 and capped an 11-play, 78-yard drive. Manning threw passes of 12 and 13 yards to Shockey and Tiki Barber contributed a 22-yard run on the march. Rhodes' one-yard dive into the end zone with 13:13 remaining in the fourth quarter increased the Colts' lead to 23-14. Indianapolis drove 51 yards in eight plays, including Manning's 20-yard pass to Marvin Harrison.

NOTES: The Giants fell to 46-31-5 on opening day and 45-33-4 in home opening games. They are 17-14 in Giants Stadium openers and 12-8 in season-opening games in Giants Stadium...Barber rushed for 110 yards on 18 carries, his 31st 100-yard game...Shockey's five receptions increased his career total to 253. He became the 10th player in Giants history with at least 250 catches...Fourth-round draft choice Barry Cofield started at nose tackle against the Colts, the first Giants rookie defensive lineman to start the season opener since Bill Neill in 1981...Giants great Harry Carson, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2006, received his Hall of Fame ring from the Hall's President and Executive Director Steve Perry during a halftime ceremony.

ELI AND PEYTON FACED EACH OTHER IN THE 2006 KICKOFF GAME

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 2
GIANTS 30, EAGLES 24
At Lincoln Financial Field, Sept. 17, 2006

	1	2	3	4	OT	Total
Giants	7	0	0	17	6	30
Eagles	7	10	7	0	0	24

The Giants earned one of the most memorable victories in their long and storied history, rallying from a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Philadelphia, 30-24, in overtime. Jay Feely's 35-yard field goal with seven seconds remaining tied the game and Eli Manning's 31-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with 3:11 left in the extra period won it, ending a three-hour, 56-minute marathon. Amani Toomer was given four bags of fluid via an IV after catching a career-high 12 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns. Manning had career-high totals of 31 completions and 371 yards and threw three touchdown passes, two to Toomer and the game-winner to Burress. Tim Carter recovered a fumble in the end zone for the Giants and Feely added his field goal. Donovan McNabb threw touchdown passes to Donte Stallworth and Reggie Brown, Brian Westbrook ran in for another score and David Akers kicked a field goal for the Eagles. The teams exchanged punts in overtime before the Giants took possession at their own 15. Tiki Barber quickly ran twice for 16 yards and Toomer picked up 15 more on a pair of receptions. Later in the drive, a seven-yard Manning pass to Toomer gave the Giants a first down at the Eagles' 30-yard line. Brandon Jacobs ran for nine and then six yards, putting the Giants in easy field goal range at the 15. But Carter was penalized for holding, sending the Giants back to the 25. On third-and-11 from the 31, Burress lined up on the left side, got a step on cornerback Sheldon Brown and used his superior height and strength to jump up and come down with the ball - and the victory. The Giants trailed 24-7 entering the fourth quarter, but scored 17 unanswered points to tie the score and force an overtime. A heads-up play by Carter, who recovered Burress' fumble in the end zone, lifted them to within 24-14 with 13:40 remaining in the period. The Giants moved from their own 23 to the Eagles' 39 where, on first down, Manning completed a 23-yard pass to Burress. Safety Brian Dawkins stripped the ball from Burress' hands. Toomer's 22-yard touchdown catch with 3:28 remaining made it 24-21. The Giants forced a punt and Manning threw passes of 22 yards to Carter, 10 yards to Toomer and eight yards to Jeremy Shockey. After that last reception, Eagles defensive lineman Trent Cole was penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct. That moved the ball to the 17-yard line and Tom Coughlin immediately sent Feely onto the field. Feely's kick was perfect, tying the game.

NOTES: The Giants had not won a game in which they trailed by at least 17 points in the fourth quarter since Nov. 15, 1970. That day, the Giants faced a 33-14 deficit entering the final quarter, but won, 35-33, as Ron Johnson ran for two touchdowns (including the game-winning nine-yarder with a minute left) and Fran Tarkenton threw a 57-yard scoring pass to Tucker Frederickson…Toomer caught a career-high 12 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns. His previous best was 10 catches at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. His 137 yards were his highest total since he had 204 that day against the Colts…Burress caught six passes for 114 yards and joined with Toomer to give the Giants two 100-yard receivers in the same game for the first time since Nov. 27, 2005 at Seattle (Burress and Shockey)… Eli Manning completed 31 of 43 passes for 371 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. The completions and yardage totals were career highs. It was the fourth 300-yard game of Manning's career.

SEAHAWKS 42, GIANTS 30
At Quest Field, Sept. 24, 2006

Seahawks	21	14	7	0	42

If the Giants never see Qwest Field again, it will be too soon. Ten months after suffering a heartbreaking overtime defeat there, the Giants absorbed a vastly different kind of loss, one that might have been more painful than the previous version. The Giants actually outscored the Seahawks in the fourth quarter, 27-0. But because they were 39 points behind when the period began, that scoring binge did no more than bring them within two touchdowns of their opponents. Seattle cruised to leads of 35-0 and 42-3 before holding off the Giants, 42-30. The Giants committed four turnovers in a first half that ended with them on the wrong end of a 35-3 score, the largest halftime deficit in the 82-year history of the franchise. In that half, the Giants were out-gained, 229-105, had 14 fewer first downs (18-4) and allowed the Seahawks to succeed on six of eight third-down conversion attempts (75 percent). Hasselbeck completed 17 of 24 passes for 176 yards and the four scores. After falling behind in the first quarter, 21-0, the Giants spent the rest of the game in a futile effort to catch up. Seattle quarterback Matt Hasselbeck threw five touchdown passes, two to Darrell Jackson and one each to Nate Burleson, Will Heller and Bobby Engram. Shaun Alexander scored the Seahawks' other touchdown. Jay Feely kicked a 46-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter for the Giants' only first-half points. The Giants' offense finally came to life in the fourth quarter, when Eli Manning threw touchdown passes of 13 yards to Amani Toomer, 25 yards to Tim Carter and nine yards to David Tyree, and R.W. McQuarters returned an interception 27 yards for another score. Manning threw three interceptions and Plaxico Burress lost a fumble. Ken Hamlin had two of the interceptions, Michael Boulware had the other and Leroy Hill had the fumble recovery. All four of the turnovers led to Seahawks touchdowns. The Seahawks completed their first-half onslaught with 45 seconds remaining in the second quarter, when Hasselbeck threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Engram. Seattle had extended its advantage to 28-0 on Hasselbeck's 10-yard touchdown pass to Heller. The pick that set up the score was made by Boulware, who was in the right spot after Manning's pass caromed off Burress. Two Hamlin interceptions helped the Seahawks jump out to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter. It was the Giants' first 21-0 first-period deficit since Sept. 19, 1999 against Washington in Giants Stadium. The Seahawks needed only two plays to score after Hamlin's first interception, a 13-yard pass to Jackson on the left side and Alexander's two-yard run up the middle that gave the Seahawks a 7-0 lead just 2:21 into the game. The Seahawks increased their lead to 14-0 when Burleson caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Hasselbeck, who also fired a four-yard touchdown pass to Jackson. That made it 21-0 and 4:12 still remained in the first quarter.

NOTES: The 72 combined points were the most scored in a Giants game since a 45-29 victory over New Orleans on Sept. 24, 1995...The Giants lost a game prior to a regular season bye for the first time since 2002 and fell to 14-4 in pre-bye games...Amani Toomer caught three passes for 29 yards to become the first Giant in history with at least 8,000 receiving yards (he finished the game with 8,004). No other Giant has 5,500 receiving yards...Toomer's fourth-quarter, 13-yard touchdown catch was the 47th of his career, tying him with Joe Morrison for second on the Giants' all-time list, one behind franchise record-holder Kyle Rote.

GIANTS 19, REDSKINS 3
At Giants Stadium, Oct. 8, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Redskins	3	0	0	0	3
Giants	0	9	7	3	19

After working on fundamentals during their bye week, the Giants used a strong running game and rock-solid defense to dominate the Washington Redskins in a 19-3 victory in Giants Stadium. After falling into an early 3-0 hole, the Giants shut out Washington the rest of the way. The Redskins gained only 164 yards (just 86 passing), had 10 first downs and owned the ball for 25:13, almost 10 minutes less than the Giants. The three points were the fewest allowed by the Giants since the Redskins' previous visit - a 36-0 rout on Oct. 30, 2005. The offense also got into the spirit of the day. Tiki Barber rushed for 123 yards and averaged 5.3 yards a carry. Eli Manning completed 23 of 33 passes for 256 yards, including a touchdown to Plaxico Burress and long strikes to set up three of Jay Feely's four field goals. The Giants did not commit a turnover. Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Burress with 6:55 remaining in the third quarter increased the Giants' lead to 16-3. On second-and-goal, Burress lined up on the right side, where he received solo coverage from safety Sean Taylor. At the snap, Burress easily slipped past Taylor and leaped high to catch Manning's pass near the back of the end zone. The score capped a 69-yard drive that covered 15 plays and 8:05 and included three successful third-down conversions. After the touchdown, Washington drove from its own 21 to the Giants' 24-yard line. But Mark Brunell's third-down pass fell incomplete, and John Hall's 42-yard field goal attempt was wide left. The only scoring in the fourth quarter was Feely's 40-yard field goal. Three second-quarter field goals by Feely gave the Giants a 9-3 halftime lead. Feely's 24-yard field goal 45 seconds into the second quarter tied the score at 3-3. The big play on the 50-yard drive was a 44-yard pass down the middle from Manning to Amani Toomer, who brought the ball to the Washington 10-yard line. The Redskins punted on their next possession and the Giants took the ball at their 32-yard line. Manning again threw deep down the center of the field, where Burress caught it for a 46-yard gain to the Redskins' 22-yard line. But the Giants were unable to get another first down, and Feely came on to kick his second three-pointer. Feely's 32-yard field goal with just two seconds remaining in the period increased the Giants' lead to six points at halftime. The Giants traveled 88 yards, including a 27-yard pass to Tim Carter to the Washington 14-yard line with 11 seconds remaining. After an end zone incompletion, Feely padded the Giants' advantage. Washington had taken a 3-0 lead on John Hall's 39-yard field goal with 2:59 remaining in the first quarter.

NOTES: The Giants broke a five-game losing streak in games following a bye and improved to 4-14 overall in regular season games after a week off...Neither team had a turnover...Washington gained only 164 yards, the lowest total allowed by the Giants since the Redskins had 125 yards on Oct. 30, 2005, also in Giants Stadium...Toomer caught four passes to raise his career total to 553 and become the first Giant with more than 550 receptions...Michael Strahan's first sack of the season raised his career total to 130.5. He became the ninth player in NFL history with at least 130.0 sacks... The sack was Strahan's 17th against Washington, second only to Philadelphia (20.5 sacks) among his list of victimized teams... Burress' seven receptions were his highest total since he had a 10-catch game against St. Louis on Oct. 2, 2005.

Game 5
GIANTS 27, FALCONS 14
At The Georgia Dome, Oct. 15, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Giants	0	3	14	10	27
Falcons	0	7	7	0	14

Even in a domed stadium, the sky seemed to be falling on the Giants in Atlanta. Two early possessions ended with Eli Manning throwing an interception. They trailed at halftime by four points and early in the third quarter by 11, after giving up the longest touchdown run they've ever allowed. But the Giants scored 24 unanswered points to defeat the Falcons, 27-14. They outscored Atlanta in the second half, 24-7, including 10-0 in the fourth quarter. Tiki Barber led the way with 185 rushing yards on 26 carries, a 7.1-yard average. He got help from Brandon Jacobs, who ran for 53 yards and a touchdown, as the Giants gained 259 yards on the ground, 152 of them after halftime. Jay Feely kicked two field goals and Jeremy Shockey scored the Giants' other two touchdowns, on receptions of two yards in the third quarter and four yards in the final period. Shockey led the team with six catches for 55 yards. Defensively, the Giants surrendered 223 rushing yards. Warrick Dunn had 146 of those yards, including 90 on a third-period touchdown run. But the Giants sacked Michael Vick seven times and held the Falcons to 106 net passing yards. And with the game on the line, Atlanta's final five possessions yielded zero points. The situation looked bleak for the Giants when Dunn sped through the defense for his 90-yard touchdown run on the Falcons' first play in the third quarter. The score increased Atlanta's lead to 14-3. Instead of wilting, the Giants responded with one of their best drives of the game, a nine-play, 84-yard march that ended with Jacobs' two-yard touchdown run up the middle. The defense then forced the Falcons into a three-and-out, and the Giants took possession at their own nine-yard line. Ninety-one yards and almost six minutes later, Shockey's two-yard touchdown catch gave the Giants a 17-14 lead just 25 seconds before the end of the third quarter. The drive included runs of 29 and 16 yards by Barber and Manning's 15-yard pass to Tim Carter on third-and-11. Feely's second field goal, with 11:04 remaining in the fourth quarter, increased the Giants' lead to 20-14. Atlanta again quickly punted and the Giants took the ball at their own 45. They covered the 55 yards in nine plays, including Shockey catches of 10 yards and the four-yard score. The Falcons never got closer than the Giants' 22-yard line, and that was in the game's final moments. The Falcons led at halftime, 7-3, thanks to Vick's 22-yard touchdown run with 1:52 remaining in the second quarter. Vick dropped back to pass, saw no one open and took off. The Giants took a 3-0 lead on Feely's 21-yard field goal in the second quarter.

NOTES: The Giants' victory increased the visiting team's winning streak in the series to 11 games. The Giants have won six games in a row in Atlanta, including 2-0 in the Georgia Dome...The Giants improved their record in domed stadiums to 20-12...Barbr led the Giants in rushing for the 69th consecutive game, breaking the record held by Barry Sanders, who led the Detroit Lions in rushing in each of 68 straight games from 1994 to 1998...Manning's two touchdown passes increased his career total to 41, moving him past Dave Brown and into sixth place on the Giants' career list...Dunn's 90-yard run was the longest ever allowed by the Giants. The previous long was an 83-yard end-around by Green Bay's James Lofton in Giants Stadium on Sept. 20, 1982. The longest by a running back had been an 80-yard run by Oakland's Napolean Kaufman on Sept. 13, 1998.

Giants	9	3	14	10	36
Cowboys	0	7	0	15	22

The Giants benefited from several outstanding performances as they took over sole possession of first place in the NFC East with a 26-22 road Monday night victory over the Dallas Cowboys. Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Plaxico Burress and Jeremy Shockey. The former gave the Giants a lead they would never relinquish just 2:59 into the game. Tiki Barber rushed for 114 yards, his third consecutive 100-yard gain. The Giants ran for 155 yards against the NFL's top-ranked rushing defense, one that had had allowed only 67.0 yards a game. The defense was equally impressive, limiting the Cowboys to 69 yards on the ground. Dallas quarterbacks Drew Bledsoe and Tony Romo were sacked six times and threw four interceptions – one apiece to Sam Madison, Antonio Pierce, Fred Robbins and rookie Kevin Dockery, who returned his 96 yards for a touchdown. The only negative on the night were the several injuries the Giants suffered, the most notable being to linebacker LaVar Arrington, who sacked Bledsoe in the end zone for a safety, and tore his Achilles tendon in the second quarter and was out for the season. The Giants led, 26-7, entering the fourth quarter. Terrell Owens' eight-yard touchdown catch and Romo's two-point conversion pulled the Cowboys to within 26-15 with 13:01 remaining. Dallas' next drive ended when Robbins intercepting a pass by Romo, who replaced Bledose at the start of the third quarter. That takeaway led to Jay Feely's 32-yard field goal and a 29-15 lead. The Cowboys moved to the Giants' 11-yard line before Romo threw to the right side for Patrick Crayton. Dockery, who made the roster as a rookie free agent, picked off the ball and sprinted 96 yards for a touchdown. The Giants led at halftime, 12-7, an advantage that was preserved after they stole the ball from Dallas near their goal line late in the second quarter. The Cowboys got on the board when Bledsoe scored on a one-yard run with 3:51 remaining in the half. Dallas got the ball back moments later when Barber was hit by linebacker DeMarcus Ware and fumbled. The Cowboys had a first-and-goal at the four when Sam Madison stepped in front of Terry Glenn and intercepted Bledsoe's pass at the goal line. The Giants jumped ahead 7-0 just 2:29 into the game when Manning and Burress hooked up for a 50-yard touchdown pass. They increased their lead to 9-0 when Arrington sacked Bledsoe in the end zone for a safety with 3:39 remaining in the first quarter. Two big plays in the first minute of the second half helped the Giants increase their lead to 19-7. On the opening play of the third quarter, Romo threw a pass that was tipped by Michael Strahan and intercepted by Pierce, who returned it to the Cowboys' 14-yard line. Three plays later Manning fired a touchdown pass to Shockey. Late in the quarter, Brandon Jacobs scored on a three-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-one to increase the Giants' lead to 26-7.

NOTES: The Giants scored 36 points, their second-highest point total in 45 visits to Dallas and the most they have scored in 34 games in Texas Stadium…Strahan's two sacks increased his career total to 132.5, tying the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor. Strahan also tied Taylor and Leslie O'Neal for seventh place on the NFL's career list… Jeff Feagles' 146 yards on three punts increased his career total to a record 60,779…Dockery's 96-yard interception return was tied for the fourth-longest in Giants history and was the team's longest since Lawrence Taylor scored on a 97-yard return at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1982.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 7
GIANTS 17, BUCCANEERS 3
At Giants Stadium, Oct. 29, 2006

Buccaneers	0	3	0	0	3
Giants	7	7	0	3	17

The winning team punted nine times. So did the losing team, which never got within 20 yards of the end zone. The teams combined to average 3.1 yards a carry and completed 46 percent of their passes. The dominant elements in the game were defense and wind. Not that the Giants were complaining. Despite the absence of three starters, their defense suffocated Tampa Bay's offense and the Giants earned a 17-3 victory over the Buccaneers. Plaxico Burress (seven-yard reception) and Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) scored touchdowns for the Giants. Jay Feely kicked a late 31-yard field goal. Matt Bryant kicked a 43-yard field goal for the Buccaneers' only points. The wind chill was 44 degrees and a steady 20-mile-an-hour wind blew throughout the game, with gusts of more than 30 miles an hour. Tampa Bay gained only 174 yards, converted two of 16 third-down opportunities and had 10 first downs. The Bucs rushed for 40 yards on 13 carries, a 3.1-yard average. Rookie quarterback Bruce Gradkowski completed only 20 of 48 passes for 159 yards, none longer than 14 yards. The Giants' defense excelled despite the absence of linebacker LaVar Arrington (torn Achilles tendon), defensive end Osi Umenyiora (strained hip flexor) and cornerback Sam Madison (hamstring strain). Tampa Bay's deepest penetration was to the Giants' 21-yard line – in the game's final 45 seconds. Offensively, the Giants also had trouble getting on track in the wind. They also averaged 3.1 yards per carry (35 for 108). Tiki Barber needed 26 carries to gain 68 yards (2.6 yards an attempt). Eli Manning completed 16 of 31 passes for 154 yards. It's no surprise punters Jeff Feagles and Josh Bidwell were busy. Feagles averaged 37.3 yards on his nine punts, two of which he placed at or inside the five-yard line. Bryant's 43-yard field goal with 58 seconds remaining in the second quarter pulled Tampa Bay to within 14-3. Until that score, the Bucs had punted on six of their first seven possessions – and fumbled away the ball on the other. Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 8:59 remaining in the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 14-0. The Giants took possession at the Tampa Bay 28-yard line after defensive tackle Fred Robbins recovered Gradkowski's fumble. On the first play, Burress was wide open on the left side for what would have been his second touchdown. But Manning's pass was held up by the stiff wind, forcing Burress to stop to catch the ball at the three. After Barber ran to the one, Jacobs forced his way into the end zone for his fourth score of the season. Through this game, Jacobs had all of the Giants' rushing touchdowns this season. The Giants took a 7-0 lead on Burress' acrobatic touchdown reception with 3:27 remaining in the first quarter. On second-and-goal from the seven, Manning threw to the left side of the end zone for Burress. The 6-5 receiver out-jumped 5-10 cornerback Ronde Barber and made a sensational catch with his left hand.

NOTES: Barber rushed for 68 yards to increase his career total to 9,502 yards. He became the 21st player in NFL history with 9,500 rushing yards...Punter Jeff Feagles played in his 295th regular season career game, tying him with former Washington cornerback Darrell Green for sixth on the NFL's all-time list...The Giants recognized the 50th anniversary of the 1956 NFL championship team. Twelve players from that team were on the field and introduced to the crowd at halftime: Ben Agajanian, Frank Gifford, Herb Rich, Alex Webster, Ray Beck, Sam Huff, Gerald Huth, Ken McAfee, Andy Robustelli, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker and Cliff Livingston.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 8
GIANTS 14, TEXANS 10
At Giants Stadium, Nov. 5, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Buccaneers	0	3	7	0	10
Giants	7	0	0	7	14

The Giants needed a spark to shake off their offensive doldrums when Tom Coughlin decided to rev up the offensive engine. Trailing Houston early in the fourth quarter, Coughlin turned to his no-huddle offense. The Giants promptly drove 67 yards in 11 plays, the last a three-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Jeremy Shockey with 7:49 remaining in the game that gave the Giants a hard-fought 14-10 victory over the Texans in Giants Stadium. The victory was the Giants' fifth in a row – their longest winning streak since 2000 – and improved their midseason record to 6-2. On the game-winning drive, Tiki Barber rushed for 18 of his game-high 115 yards (including a seven-yard run on third-and-six) and Manning completed five of seven passes for 45 yards. Shockey, helping to make up for the loss of Plaxico Burress (inactive with back spasms), had a team and season-high total of eight catches for 66 yards. Four starters were on the inactive list: Burress (back), defensive end Osi Umenyiora (hip flexor strain), cornerback Sam Madison (hamstring) and linebacker Brandon Short (quad). Another starter, right tackle Kareem McKenzie, did not play because of migraine headaches that worsened after he tried to warm up. In the second quarter, the Giants lost their other Pro Bowl defensive end when Michael Strahan left the game with a Lisfranc foot sprain, an injury that would force him to miss all but one of the eight remaining games. The Texans took a 10-7 lead on David Carr's two-yard run with 1:14 remaining in the third quarter. The touchdown successfully concluded an 18-play, 80-yard drive that took 8:12 to complete. Kris Brown's 41-yard field goal with 7:11 remaining in the second quarter lifted the Texans to within 7-3, a score that held up until halftime. The Giants took a 7-0 lead on Barber's 16-yard touchdown run with 5:03 remaining in the first quarter. It was Barber's first touchdown of the season and it came on his 158th rushing attempt and his 187th touch (including receptions). The touchdown capped a seven-play, 68-yard drive that began after Brown was wide left on a 42-yard field goal attempt on the game's first series. Later in the drive, the Giants faced a first-and-20 at the Texans' 41-yard line. Manning flipped a short pass to Jacobs, who turned it into a 20-yard gain. Barber then gained four yards around right end. On the next play, he took a handoff, took advantage of Jim Finn's block, then cut to his left and sprinted to the front corner of the end zone for the score.

NOTES: The Giants won their fifth consecutive game, their longest winning streak since they won their final five games of the 2000 season…The Giants won their 11th game in a row in which they scored first…Barber rushed for 115 yards and caught three passes for 40 yards to increase his career totals to 9,617 rushing yards and 5,000 passing yards. Barber is just the third player in NFL history with at least 9,000 rushing yards and 5,000 receiving yards. The others are Hall of Famer Marcus Allen (12,243 rushing and 5,411 receiving) and Marshall Faulk (12,279 & 6,875)…Barber's 40 receiving yards enabled him to move past Joe Morrison (4,993) and into third place on the Giants' career list, behind Amani Toomer (8,157) and Frank Gifford (5,434)… Manning's game-winning touchdown pass to Shockey gave him 12 consecutive games with a scoring pass, tying his career high…Manning threw 28 passes to increase his career total to 1,015...Amani Toomer played in his 158th game, tying him with Doug Van Horn for 14th on the franchise's all-time list.

Game 9
BEARS 38, GIANTS 20
At Giants Stadium, Nov. 12, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Bears	3	7	14	14	38
Giants	7	6	7	0	20

The showdown atop the NFC became a lowdown for the Giants. Poised to take over the top spot in the conference playoff race, the Giants squandered a 10-point first-half lead and lost to the Chicago Bears, 38-20, ending their winning streak at five games. Rex Grossman threw three touchdown passes for the Bears and Devin Hester (on a 108-yard play) and Thomas Jones added fourth-quarter scores. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 141 yards, Brandon Jacobs scored a pair of touchdowns and Jay Feely kicked two field goals. But it was a Feely miss that best epitomized the Giants' frustration. The Giants trailed, 24-20, when they faced a third-and-15 on the Bears' 34. Tom Coughlin elected to try a 52-yard field goal. Feely's kick descended short of the crossbar. Hester caught the ball at the back of the end zone, hesitated for about three seconds, then took off. He sprinted down the right sideline without being touched for the score that tied him with Nathan Vasher for the longest play in the NFL history. Vasher returned a missed field goal 108 yards against San Francisco on Nov. 13, 2005. Jones' two-yard touchdown run with 8:20 remaining increased Chicago's lead to 38-20. Jones, who rushed for 113 yards, made the evening's other game-turning play late in the second quarter. Trailing 13-3, the Bears appeared to be in dire straits when two consecutive penalties and a two-yard loss left them with a third-and-22 with 1:30 remaining in the half. But Jones took a delayed handoff from Grossman, broke through a hole on the left side and ran for a 26-yard gain to the Giants' 46. An illegal shift penalty and incomplete pass set up a second-and-15. Grossman then fired a 20-yard pass down the middle to Muhsin Muhammad, who was tackled at the Giants' 29. On the next play, Grossman lofted a pass down the left side for Mark Bradley, who caught the ball at the goal line. Bradley's touchdown closed the gap to 13-10 at halftime. Chicago then outscored the Giants in the second half, 28-7. The Bears seized control by scoring two touchdowns in a 2:45 span of the third quarter to take a 24-13 lead. They jumped ahead for the first time at 17-13 when Grossman threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Muhammad. On the ensuing Giants possession, Eli Manning was sacked by Alex Brown and fumbled. Adewale Ogunleye recovered at the Giants' 21-yard line. Four plays later, Grossman threw a two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Desmond Clark. Jacobs opened the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run. The score was set up by Mathias Kiwanuka's first career interception. The defensive end dropped into coverage, picked off Grossman's pass for Rashied Davis and returned it to the Chicago one. On the next play, Jacobs ran off right tackle into the end zone. After Robbie Gould kicked a 49-yard field goal for the Bears, Feely increased the Giants' lead to 13-3 with field goals of 46 and 40 yards.

NOTES: The Giants fell to 0-4 against the Bears in regular-season games in Giants Stadium...Chicago's 38 points were the most allowed by the Giants in Giants Stadium in exactly six years. The St. Louis Rams won there on Nov. 12, 2000, 38-24...The Giants had won their seven previous games in which they led at halftime, including four in 2006...Barber caught three passes to increase his career total to 563. He passed the injured Amani Toomer (561) and moved into first place on the franchise's career list...Punter Jeff Feagles played in his 297th career game, breaking a tie with Bruce Matthews and moving into fifth place on the NFL's all-time list.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 10
JAGUARS 26, GIANTS 10
At Alltell Stadium, Nov. 20, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Giants	3	0	7	0	10
Jaguars	3	7	6	10	26

The Giants spoiled the homecoming of coach Tom Coughlin and fell into a three-way tie atop the NFC East with Dallas and Philadelphia after a 26-10 Monday night loss in Jacksonville. Coughlin coached the Jaguars from 1995-2002. Fred Taylor and Maurice Jones-Drew each rushed for a touchdown and Josh Scobee kicked four field goals for the Jaguars, who, like the Giants, finished the night at 6-4. Plaxico Burress scored on a 25-yard reception and Jay Feely kicked a field goal for the Giants. But the Giants never really had a chance to win, because of their inability to generate any offense. They finished with 247 yards and 13 first downs. The Giants rushed for only 25 yards and owned the ball for only 19:41. Eli Manning completed 19 of 41 passes for 230 yards. He threw the touchdown pass to Burress, but he also tossed two interceptions. The Giants lost a fumble to give them three turnovers. The Giants were particularly ineffective in the first half, when they gained 73 yards, had three first downs and did not complete a pass to a wide receiver. The Giants took a 3-0 lead on Feely's 40-yard field goal just 3:22 into the game. Although the Giants put points on the board, it was a squandered opportunity. They took possession on the Jacksonville 29-yard line after the Jaguars punted out of their end zone and they had a second-and-three at the 22. Jacksonville then drove 53 yards to set up Scobee's 39-yard field goal, which tied the score at 3-3. Taylor's 10-yard touchdown run with 10:15 remaining in the second quarter gave the Jaguars a 10-3 lead that held up until halftime. On second down, Taylor took a handoff and ran straight up the middle, capping an eight-play, 57-yard drive following a Giants punt. Scobee's 24-yard field goal with 9:43 left in the third quarter increased Jacksonville's lead to 13-3. The Giants pulled to within three points on a terrific individual effort on a touchdown reception by Burress with 6:32 remaining in the third quarter. The Jaguars blitzed Manning on second-and-10 from the Jacksonville 25-yard line. Manning negated the rush by firing a quick strike to the left side for Burress, who used several clever moves to escape the Jacksonville defense and reach the end zone. Jacksonville pushed its lead to 16-10 on Scobee's 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. The Jaguars put the game away in the final quarter, when Maurice Jones-Drew scored on a three-yard run and Scobee added a 48-yard field goal. The touchdown was set up by a 49-yard catch-and-run by wide receiver Matt Jones, who caught a David Garrard pass at the Giants' 37, sidestepped safety James Butler and didn't stop running until he was pushed out of bounds at the three. Jones-Drew scored on the next play.

NOTES: The Giants lost back-to-back games for the first time since their eight-game losing streak from Nov. 7-Dec. 26, 2004...They are 0-2 in Jacksonville...The Giants rushed for 25 yards, their lowest total since they ran for 24 yards against Buffalo on Nov. 30, 2003...Tiki Barber rushed for 27 yards, his lowest total since he had 20 yards against the Bills in that same game...Barber's 40 yards increased his career total in yards from scrimmage (rushing and receiving only) to 14,814. That moved him past Hall of Famer Jim Brown (14,811) and into 14th place on the league's career list...The game was one of just two in 2006 in which the Giants did not sack an opposing quarterback. The other was the loss at Seattle.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 11
TITANS 24, GIANTS 21
At LP Field, Nov. 26, 2006

Titans	0	0	0	24	24

The Giants suffered one of the most inexplicable and excruciating losses in their history when a 21-point fourth-quarter lead evaporated into a 24-21 defeat to the Titans in LP Field. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time the Giants ever owned a lead of at least 20 points in the fourth quarter and lost. Eli Manning was twice intercepted by Pacman Jones in the quarter and the second pick set up Rob Bironas' game-winning 49-yard field goal with six seconds remaining. The Giants were seemingly cruising along, thanks to a pair of Brandon Jacobs rushing touchdowns and a Plaxico Burress scoring reception. They led by three touchdowns at halftime and owned the ball for 12 minutes in the third quarter. But on the first play of the final quarter, Manning's fourth-down pass for Tim Carter fell short and the Giants got no points despite holding the ball for 7:57. After Tennessee went three-and-out, the Giants had a second-and-four at their 35. Manning's pass down the right sideline sailed past Burress and was intercepted by Jones, who returned it 26 yards to the Giants' 46. The turnover injected life into the Titans, who traveled the 46 yards in nine plays, the biggest was Vince Young's seven-yard scramble on fourth-and-nine. Frank Walker's roughness penalty gave Tennessee a first down at the six. Three plays later, Young threw a four-yard touchdown pass to tight end Bo Scaife. Jones' 23-yard punt return gave the Titans possession on the Giants' 36-yard line. On the sixth play of the drive, Young ran around right end for a one-yard score and suddenly it was 21-14. The Giants punted again and Tennessee took over on its own 24 with 3:07 remaining. The Titans didn't gain a yard on three snaps and faced a fourth-and-10 with just 2:44 remaining. Defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka had Young in his arms, but released him because he was concerned about drawing a penalty. Young then ran 19 yards for a critical first down. On the next play, Young threw a 20-yard pass to Roydell Williams, giving Tennessee a first down at the Giants' 37 at the two-minute warning. When play resumed, Young scrambled for 16 yards, hit Drew Bennett for a seven-yard gain, then found Brandon Jones in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown pass. With 44 seconds remaining, the score was tied at 21. The Giants took possession at their own 19 with 40 seconds remaining and all three of their timeouts. They could have elected to take the game into overtime but tried to win it in regulation. On second down, Manning moved to his right and threw a pass for David Tyree that was picked off again by Jones, who returned it to the Giants' 49-yard line. Young threw to Scaife for 11 yards and Brandon Jones for seven. Bironas then kicked the game-winning field goal. The Giants scored 21 points in the first 22 minutes of the game. Two Jacobs touchdown runs within a span of 4:17 in the second quarter increased the Giants' lead to 21-0.

NOTES: The Giants had won the previous 13 games in which they owned the lead after three quarters. They had last lost a game in which they led entering the final quarter on Dec. 18, 2004, when a 24-23 advantage over Pittsburgh became a 33-30 defeat...The Giants are 7-3 playing a Sunday road game the week after a Monday night road game...Tiki Barber rushed for 82 yards to increase his season total to 1,080 yards, his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season and the sixth time in seven years he has crossed that milestone.

ELI MANNING AND THE GIANTS RELINQUISHED A 21 PT. 4TH QTR. LEAD

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 12
COWBOYS 23, GIANTS 20
At Giants Stadium, Dec. 3, 2006

Cowboys	7	3	3	10	23
Giants	7	0	3	10	20

The Giants suffered their second heartbreaking loss in as many weeks when they fell to the Dallas Cowboys in Giants Stadium, 23-20. Martin Gramatica kicked the game-winning 46-yard field goal with one second remaining in the fourth quarter. Despite the defeat, the Giants had several positives. Eli Manning completed 24 of 36 passes for 270 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions. Defensive starters Osi Umenyiora, Brandon Short and Sam Madison returned to the field after missing significant time because of injuries. Tiki Barber rushed for 90 yards and added 53 yards on five catches. Jeremy Shockey and Plaxico Burress had touchdown receptions, and Jay Feely kicked a pair of field goals for the Giants. For Dallas, Marion Barber ran for two touchdowns and Gramatica kicked three field goals in his first game for Dallas. Manning's touchdown pass to Burress with 1:06 remaining tied the score at 20-20 – the fourth deadlock of the game. Manning led a seven-play, 63-yard drive that took only 2:21 to complete. The biggest play on the drive was a 28-yard catch-and-run by Barber after a short Manning pass. Manning then threw a seven-yarder to Barber before he fired a strike into the end zone for Burress for the five-yard touchdown. After the score, the Cowboys took possession at their own 32–yard line with one minute left. Dallas effectively won the game on the first snap, when Tony Romo rolled left to evade a rush, then hit tight end Jason Witten for a 42-yard gain to the Giants' 26. Marion Barber gained a yard and the Cowboys lost five on a false start penalty before Gramatica lined up for the game-winning kick. The Giants tried to ice him with a timeout, but his kick was perfect. Marion Barber's seven-yard touchdown run with 3:33 remaining in the fourth quarter gave the Cowboys their third lead of the game at 20-13. After the Giants had tied the score, Dallas drove 66 yards in 12 plays, including three 11-yard Romo passes - two to Terrell Owens and one to Patrick Crayton. Feely's 22-yard field goal with 9:44 remaining in the fourth quarter tied the score at 13-13. The score ended a 10-play, 68-yard drive that included Brandon Jacobs' career-long 43-yard reception on a screen pass to the right side. Gramatica's 35-yard field goal with five seconds left in the third quarter had regained the lead for Dallas at 13-10. Feely's 23-yard field goal with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter tied the score at 10-10. The Giants took possession at their 20-yard line following a Dallas punt and moved 75 yards in 17 plays and 8:33. Gramatica's 41-yard field goal with one second remaining in the second quarter gave the Cowboys a 10-7 halftime lead.

NOTES: According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Tennessee and Dallas defeats were the first time the Giants lost back-to-back games with the winning points occurring with less than seven seconds remaining in the fourth quarter since Nov. 17, 1974 (Detroit's Errol Mann kicked a 37-yard field goal with two seconds remaining and the Giants lost, 20-19) and Nov. 24, 1974 (St. Louis' Jim Bakken kicked a 36-yard field goal with three seconds left and the Giants lost, 23-21)...Tiki Barber played in his 150th regular season game with the Giants. He rushed for 90 yards to lead the team in rushing for the 76th consecutive games, extending his NFL record...Punter Jeff Feagles became the fifth player in NFL history to play in 300 games, joining Morten Anderson (362) Gary Anderson (353), George Blanda (340) and Jerry Rice (303). Andersen and Feagles both played their 300th games for the Giants at home against Dallas.

GIANTS 27, PANTHERS 13
At Bank of America Stadium, Dec. 10, 2006

Giants	3	14	10	0	27
Panthers	0	10	0	3	13

It had been a little more than a month since they last won a game, but the Giants ended their four-game losing streak and thrust themselves back into the think of the NFC postseason race with a 27-13 victory over the Panthers in Bank of America Stadium. As was the case with so many of their 2006 victories, the Giants had a lengthy honor roll. Tiki Barber led the way with 112 rushing yards. Eli Manning threw three touchdown passes – one each to Plaxico Burress, Jeremy Shockey and David Tyree – and Jay Feely kicked a pair of field goals for the Giants. The offense held Julius Peppers – who entered the game with an NFL-best 11.0 sacks -- to two harmless tackles and did not turn the ball over. The defense held the Panthers to only 45 rushing yards on 15 carries. Quarterback Chris Weinke – who played because Jake Delhomme was sidelined with a sprained thumb – completed 34 of 61 passes for 423 yards, but did little real damage because he was playing catch-up most of the game. The Giants intercepted three Weinke passes, two by Gibril Wilson and another by rookie Kevin Dockery. The special teams also played well, particularly Jeff Feagles, who punted nine times and kept the ball away from dangerous returner Steve Smith all day. Feagles repeatedly punted the ball outside the numbers or out of bounds. Six of his punts landed inside the 20-yard line. Smith totaled 11 yards on three returns. Carolina scored on Weinke's touchdown pass to Drew Carter and two field goals by John Kasay, including one with just 4:32 left. Feely opened the scoring with a 32-yard field goal in the first quarter. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 when Manning threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Burress on the second play of the second quarter. The score was set up by a drive-opening 45-yard pass from Manning to Burress, who beat cornerback Dion Byrum on the play. Down 10-0, the Panthers scored 10 straight second-quarter points to tie the score, first on Weinke's 36-yard touchdown pass to Carter (eight catches for 144 yards), then on Kasay's 37-yard field goal. Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Shockey with 27 seconds remaining in the second quarter gave the Giants a 17-10 halftime lead. Feely's second field goal – a 29-yarder with 10:44 remaining in the third quarter – increased the Giants' lead to 20-10. Manning's three-yard touchdown pass to Tyree with 6:59 remaining in the third quarter inflated the Giants' lead to 27-10. The score was set up by Wilson's first interception of the season, a pick of a Weinke pass that bounced off Smith's hands and was returned 25 yards to the Panthers' 14-yard line.

NOTES: The Giants defeated the Panthers for the first time. They had lost the three previous games against them, two in the regular season (1996 and 2003) and the 2005 NFC Wild Card Game…Weinke, who played the entire game because Jake Delhomme had a sprained thumb, threw 61 passes, the second-highest total ever against the Giants. On Oct. 2, 2005 St. Louis quarterback Marc Bulger passed 62 times…The Giants were flagged for a season-low two penalties for just 10 yards…Tiki Barber rushed for 112 yards on 20 carries to increase his career total to 10,069. He is the first Giant and the 20th player in NFL history with 10,000 rushing yards…Shockey increased his career total to 304 catches in his 67th career regular season game. He achieved the 300-catch mark in the second fewest games in history for a tight end, behind Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow (57). Kansas City's Tony Gonzalez, who caught his 300th pass in his 71st game, dropped to third.

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 14
EAGLES 36, GIANTS 22
At Giants Stadium, Dec. 17, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Eagles	7	7	0	22	36
Giants	7	3	3	9	22

The Giants lost their third consecutive home game and fell to 3-4 in Giants Stadium with a 36-22 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. Mistakes and missed opportunities were the Giants' undoing. They matched their season high with four turnovers, surrendered 161 rushing yards, gave up a key 64-yard kickoff return and twice kicked field goals after putting themselves in first-and-goal situations. The game fell apart for the Giants in the fourth quarter, when the visitors scored two touchdowns in 10 seconds to clinch the victory. After the Giants took a 22-21 lead on Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 7:05 left in the game, Philadelphia took possession at its own 20-yard line. On the fourth play of the drive, Jeff Garcia threw a 27-yard pass down the middle to tight end L.J. Smith. That moved the ball to the Giants' 36-yard line. Four plays later, Garcia fired a 19-yard touchdown pass up the right sideline to Reggie Brown, who got a step on cornerback R.W. McQuarters. Garcia's two-point conversion to Smith gave the Eagles a 29-22 lead. After a touchback, the Giants took over at their own 20, confident they could match the Eagles' 80-yard drive. On the Giants' first offensive play, Eli Manning tried to throw a pass to Burress in the face of a heavy rush by blitzing cornerback Sheldon Brown. The ball flew up in the air. Tiki Barber attempted to bat it down but missed and it was plucked out of the air by defensive end Trent Cole, who ran 19 yards for the backbreaking touchdown. Jacobs scored with 7:05 remaining to give the Giants a slim lead. The Giants went for two, but Tiki Barber was stopped short. Late in the third quarter, Will Demps sacked Garcia and forced him to fumble. The ball was recovered by Pierce at the Eagles' seven-yard line. Despite the advantageous field position, the Giants gained only one yard in three plays and Feely came on to kick a 24-yard field goal, his third of the game and second in a little more than two minutes, to give the Giants a 16-14 lead with 14:08 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Giants followed that with another major error, allowing Reno Mahe to return the ensuing kickoff 64 yards to the Giants' 36-yard line. Three plays later, on second-and-two, the Eagles spread the defense by lining up with four wide receivers, then handed off to Westbrook, who ran 28 yards untouched up the center of the field for the score. Feely's 23-yard field goal with 1:10 remaining in the third period moved the Giants to within a point at 14-13. Feely's 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining in the second quarter closed the Giants' halftime deficit to 14-10.

NOTES: The Giants and Eagles split their season series for just the third time in the last 22 years. They also split in 1990 and 2002. In every other season since 1985, one of the teams has swept the season series. The 2006 season was the first since 1983 in which the visiting team won both Giants-Eagles games...Barber's first-possession touchdown was the 65th of his career, tying him with Joe Morrison for second on the Giants' career list...Jeff Feagles punted twice, increasing his career total to 1,501. He is the first player in NFL history with 1,500 punts...Rich Seubert made his first career start at center in place of O'Hara, who missed the game with an ankle injury. It was Seubert's first start in exactly a year. On Dec. 17, 2005, he started at left guard in a victory over Kansas City.

Game 15
SAINTS 30, GIANTS 7
At Giants Stadium, Dec. 24, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Saints	3	10	7	10	30
Giants	7	0	0	0	7

Squandering an opportunity to advance in the NFC postseason race, the Giants played poorly across the board and lost to the Saints, 30-7, in Giants Stadium. The 23-point margin of defeat was the Giants' largest in a regular season home game since a 50-21 loss to Washington on Sept. 19, 1999. The numbers were grim – 142 total yards, 59 passing yards, six first downs, zero-for-10 on third-down conversion attempts, 19:26 time of possession, 236 rushing yards allowed and, most remarkably, zero snaps in New Orleans territory. The Giants' lone score was a 55-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Plaxico Burress on their first possession. Rookies Reggie Bush and Marques Colston and veteran Deuce McAllister scored touchdowns and John Carney kicked three field goals for the Saints. Bush led the Saints with 126 rushing yards, the 2005 Heisman Trophy winner's first professional 100-yard rushing game. McAllister rushed for 108 yards. The Giants trailed at halftime, 13-7, but were confident they could turn the game around in the second half. But they went three-and-out on their first offensive series. The Saints then drove 51 yards in just five plays, the last Bush's one-yard touchdown run that increased the Saints' lead to 20-7 with 7:55 remaining in the third quarter. Bush was split to the right. The big play on the drive was a 40-yard pass from Drew Brees to Terrance Copper on a third-and-one from the Giants' 42-yard line. McAllister's nine-yard touchdown run on the third play of the fourth quarter increased the Saints' lead to 27-7. The score capped a 10-play, 62-yard drive that was highlighted by Bush's 18-yard run to the Giants' 11 on third-and-two. McAllister ran for 33 yards during the serie. On the Giants' second play on the ensuing drive, Manning wasn't ready for a shotgun snap, the ball fell to the ground and was recovered by Charles Grant at the Giants' 24-yard line. That led to Carney's third field goal, a 38-yarder. New Orleans jumped ahead, 13-7, on Brees' fourth-down, two-yard touchdown pass to Colston with 1:51 remaining in the second quarter. The score capped an 18-play, 89-yard drive that took 8:39 to complete. The drive's longest play was the first, a 17-yard run Bush run around left end. The Saints converted a third down and two fourth downs on the series. Bush ran for seven yards on third-and-three. Two minutes later, the Saints gained three yards on third-and-five. But on fourth down, McAllister ran for two yards and a first down. Carney got the Saints on the scoreboard with field goals of 32 yards in the first quarter and 26 yards in the second. The Giants took a 7-0 lead just 2:17 into the game when Manning threw a 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress.

NOTES: The Giants had six first downs, their lowest total since they had four in a 17-13 victory at Tampa Bay on Sept. 12, 1999… The Giants had 59 net passing yards, their lowest total since they had 48 on Dec. 15, 1996 – also at home vs. New Orleans…Tiki Barber rushed for 71 yards on 16 carries and had a team-high three receptions for 12 yards in his final game in Giants Stadium. In 79 regular season games in the stadium, including two as a visitor, Barber Barber rushed for 5,389 yards and caught 288 passes…Burress' touchdown was his 10th of the season. He was the first Giant with double-digit scoring receptions since Earnest Gray had 10 in 1980… Michael Strahan started and played for the first time since suffering a sprained foot on Nov. 5 vs. Houston. He had five tackles (three solo).

TIKI BARBER'S LAST HOME GAME

2006 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 16
GIANTS 34, REDSKINS 28
At FedEx Field, Dec. 30, 2006

	1	2	3	4	Total
Giants	3	17	7	7	34
Redskins	7	0	7	14	28

Tiki Barber proved he wanted to keep playing football by saving his best for what could have been his last game. In his final regular season game, Barber rushed for career highs of 234 yards (a franchise record) and three touchdowns – including 50 and 55-yarders - as the Giants all but clinched a postseason berth with a 34-28 victory over the Redskins in FedEx Field. Barber's previous career high – and the Giants' former franchise record – was his 220-yard outing vs. Kansas City on Dec. 17, 2005. He set the record on his 50-yard touchdown run with 6:13 remaining in the final quarter that increased the Giants' lead to 34-21. The score capped a drive in which Barber ran for 70 of the 75 yards. The other five yards were the result of a Washington penalty. Barber and the Giants took control of the game in the third quarter. The Giants trailed, 7-3, after Santana Moss caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from fellow wide receiver Antwaan Randle El. Barber put them in the lead for good with a 15-yard touchdown run with 13:15 remaining in the second quarter. Barber's season-long 55-yard touchdown run increased the Giants' lead to 17-7 with 5:44 left in the quarter. It was Barber's longest run since his record 95-yard run in the 2005 season finale on Dec. 31 in Oakland. Feely's 31-yard field goal two seconds before halftime increased the Giants' lead to 20-7. Eli Manning's six-yard touchdown pass to Tim Carter with 9:11 remaining in the third quarter increased the Giants' lead to 27-7. The score was set up by the first interception of Jason Bell's six-year career. But the Redskins did not go down easily. Touchdown runs of seven yards by Ladell Betts and one yard by T.J. Duckett pulled Washington to within 27-21 with 9:25 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Giants then handed the ball, the game and their playoff dreams to Barber. Taking possession at the 25, Barber quickly ran for 10 yards, the five on the next two snaps to set up a third-and-five. Kenny Wright's defensive holding penalty gave the Giants a first down at the 45. Barber went the rest of the distance, first on a five-yard run off left tackle, then on a 50-yard burst around left end. Jason Campbell's one-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sellers again made it a six-point game with 3:22 left. The Giants went three-and-out, but Campbell threw four consecutive incomplete passes to end Washington's hope for a comeback.

NOTES: The Giants, who won the NFC East in 2005, qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1989-90…The Giants finished 5-3 on the road after going 3-5 at home, the first time since 2000 they had a better record on the road. That year, they were 5-3 in Giants Stadium and 7-1 as visitors…Barber rushed for 1,662 rushing yards, the second-highest total of his career and the second-highest total in Giants history. He extended his record by leading the Giants in rushing for the 80th consecutive game and finished his career with 10,449 yards (17th on the NFL's career list)…In his last four games against Washington, Barber rushed for 643 yards, a 160.75 per-game average. That included games of 206 and 234 yards…Barber's 18 points in the game increased his career total to 416. He is the fifth Giant in history with at least 400 points, joining Pete Gogolak, Brad Daluiso, Gifford and Joe Danelo…Barber, of course, finishes his career with 68 touchdowns (55 rushing, a team record). That places him second in team history, behind Frank Gifford's 74.

TIKI BARBER'S 234 RUSHING YARDS WAS A FRANCHISE RECORD

WILDCARD PLAYOFF GAME

EAGLES 23, GIANTS 20

At Lincoln Financial Field, Jan. 7, 2007

Giants	7	3	0	10	20
Eagles	0	17	3	3	23

For the second season in a row, the Giants were one-and-done in the playoffs. But unlike the previous season's one-sided loss to Carolina, the Giants played valiantly and courageously in an NFC Wild Card Game against the Philadelphia Eagles in Lincoln Financial Field. They overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score. But despite their competitiveness and resilience, the Giants didn't play particularly well. Their offense wasted scoring opportunities and the defense allowed the Eagles to march unfettered down the field after their final score. David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired gave the Eagles a 23-20 victory and again sent the Giants home bitterly disappointed. The Giants scored on Plaxico Burress touchdown receptions of 17 and 11 yards and Jay Feely field goals of 20 and 24 yards. But three times in the first quarter they took possession near midfield and punted each time. In the second quarter they had a first-and-goal at the three and settled for a field goal. The last play of the third period was a second-and-two at the Philadelphia six. Again they failed to reach the end zone. Tiki Barber, in the final game of his illustrious career, Barber rushed for a career postseason-best 137 yards. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal – the longest in Philadelphia postseason history – increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Philadelphia appeared to have a touchdown when Westbrook returned Jeff Feagles' punt 65 yards. But the play was nullified by an illegal block penalty on Torrance Daniels. Feely's second field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. At one point during the series, the Giants faced a first-and-30, thanks to three straight penalties plays (two false starts and a hold). But Manning overcame that obstacle by throwing to Burress on three consecutive plays – throws of 18 and 14 yards gave the Giants a first down at the 11. On the next play, they hooked up for the touchdown. After the score, the Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owned the ball again. Philadelphia took possession at its own 34-yard line. On the first snap, Westbrook gained 11 yards. Garcia then threw to Matt Schobel for a six-yard gain. Westbrook gained five yards before Garcia passed to Reggie Brown for seven more. Westbrook then ran twice for 18 yards, giving Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line as the Giants' used their lone remaining timeout with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

NOTES: The Giants made their 28th postseason appearance, tying them with Dallas for the most in NFL history…The Giants' all-time postseason record fell to 16-23, including 3-14 on the road…They are 2-1 against the Eagles in postseason play, 1-1 in Philadelphia. Barber rushed for 137 yards on 26 carries in his final game. That is the fifth-highest postseason total in Giants history. Barber's 475 career postseason yards and 120 carries are both second-most in Giants history. Joe Morris rushed for 550 playoff yards on 140 attempts…Burress' two touchdown receptions were the fourth and fifth of his postseason career.

TIKI BARBER RUSHED FOR 137 YARDS IN HIS FINAL GAME

2006 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 17, RAVENS 16

At M&T Bank Stadium
Aug. 11, 2006

The Giants scored 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including Jay Feely's game-winning 29-yard field goal as time expired, as the Giants defeated Baltimore in their preseason opener, 17-16. The Giants trailed by nine points midway through the final quarter when Michael Jennings caught Sam Koch's punt and raced 57 yards up the field for the touchdown that reduced the deficit to 16-14. At least five Ravens had a chance to tackle Jennings, but the elusive returner evaded all of them before sprinting the final 25 yards to the end zone. After forcing Baltimore to punt, the Giants took possession at their own 27-yard line with 5:40 remaining. Quarterback Jared Lorenzen led the reserves on a 16-play, 63-yard drive. The Giants converted three third-down opportunities, with quarterback Lorenzen running for the first down each time, including an eight-yard gain on third-and-seven. Lorenzen's final run gave the Giants a first down at the Baltimore 11-yard line. Two plays later, Feely kicked the winning field goal. The Ravens took a 7-0 lead on quarterback Steve McNair's six-yard touchdown run on their first possession. Brandon Jacobs tied the score early in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run that capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive that included Eli Manning's 43-yard pass down the left side for Plaxico Burress. Moments later, Matt Stover regained the lead for Baltimore with a 27-yard field goal. Stover's 43-yard field goal on the final play of the quarter gave the Ravens a 13-7 halftime lead. Stover added a 43-yarder in the third quarter. Manning and the starting offense played the first three series. Manning completed four of seven passes for 74 yards. Tim Hasselbeck played the second and most of the third period and completed seven of 13 passes for 79 yards. Lorenzen hit four of eight passes for 34 yards. The Giants are 32-22-3 in preseason openers since 1950.

GIANTS 17, CHIEFS 0

At Giants Stadium
August 17, 2006

The Giants played soundly in all phases of the game and defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-0, in their preseason home opener. It was the first time since 2002 that the Giants won their first two preseason games. The first-team offense had touchdown drives of 60 and 52 yards in its three possessions of work and the defense held the Chiefs to 111 yards and seven first downs. Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored the Giants' touchdowns and Jay Feely added a field goal. Eli Manning completed 11 of 14 passes for 80 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions. Manning used all of his advertised weapons as Toomer, Plaxico Burress, Jeremy Shockey, Tim Carter and Tiki Barber all caught his passes. Manning was relieved by Rob Johnson, who played in his first NFL game since December 2003. Johnson completed seven of 14 passes for 62 yards and led a possession that resulted in Feely's 31-yard field goal on the final play of the third quarter. The Giants' defense set the tone on the game's first series. Fred Robbins dropped Larry Johnson for a four-yard loss and the Chiefs had to punt. On its next possession, Kansas City settled for 22 net yards and another punt. The Giants took a 7-0 lead when Manning threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Toomer on their first possession. The Giants drove 60 yards in nine plays and 4:06. Manning completed three of five passes and Barber rushed for 19 yards and contributed a nine-yard reception on the drive. Carter started the march with a 20-yard end-around on the Giants' first offensive play. The Giants increased their lead to 14-0 on Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 9:23 remaining in the second quarter. Manning was four-for-four on the 51-yard drive, connecting with Carter and Visanthe Shiancoe twice apiece.

2006 PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS 13, JETS 7

At Giants Stadium
Aug. 25, 2006

The Giants won their annual preseason game with the Jets, 13-7, as the first-team defense allowed no opponent points for the second week in a row. The victory gave the Giants their first 3-0 preseason start since 1995. The Jets' offense never got closer than the Giants' 28-yard line and only a fourth-quarter blocked punt that was returned for a touchdown prevented the Giants from recording consecutive preseason shutouts for the first time since 1959. Brandon Jacobs scored a touchdown for the third week in a row and Jay Feely kicked field goals of 39 and 34 yards for the Giants. The Jets scored their only points with 5:15 remaining in the game, when Darrell McClover blocked and then returned Travis Dorsch's punt 26 yards for a touchdown. The Giants' first team offense and most of the starting defense played the entire opening half, plus the initial series of the third quarter. Tiki Barber rushed for a game-high 60 yards on 11 carries. Eli Manning completed 10 of 20 passes for 107 yards. Manning was relieved by Jared Lorenzen, who promptly completed five of seven passes for 44 of the 51 yards on the drive prior to Feely's second field goal, a 34-yarder with 13:09 remaining in the fourth period. Overall, Lorenzen hit seven of 12 passes for 60 yards. Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 56 seconds remaining in the second quarter gave the Giants a 7-0 halftime lead. The Giants took possession on their own 39 after Mike Nugent's 49-yard field goal attempt hit the right upright. The 11-play, 61-yard drive included a 14-yard pass to Jeremy Shockey and Barber's 20-yard run. On third-and-eight from the Jets' 12, Manning fired a pass to the right side for Amani Toomer, who stepped out of bounds at the three to set up a first-and-goal situation. Jacobs scored two plays later.

GIANTS 31, PATRIOTS 23

At Giants Stadium
Aug. 31, 2006

The Giants concluded a perfect preseason with a 31-23 home victory over the New England Patriots. The triumph left the Giants with a 4-0 record in August, their first unblemished preseason since 1990. Second-year running back Brandon Jacobs was the star of the game. He carried the ball 15 times for 130 yards, including touchdown runs of 57 and two yards. Jacobs rushed for 98 yard on 10 carries in the first half. While most of the starters played little or not at all, several reserves distinguished themselves. Defensive end Mathias Kiwanuka intercepted a pass and had a 10-yard sack. Justin Tuck had a team-high eight tackles, including a sack. Wide receiver Michael Jennings caught three passes for 37 yards and ran for 15 yards on an end-around. Linebacker Chase Blackburn had six solo tackles and several big hits. The anonymous backup offensive line, including NaShani Goddard, Todd Londot and Matt Lentz, consistently opened holes for Jacobs and protected Jared Lorenzen, who completed 10 of 15 passes for 116 yards. Rookie running back James Sims scored a touchdown on a three-yard run and Tim Hasselbeck threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to tight end Darcy Johnson in the fourth quarter. Jay Feely kicked a 29-yard field goal and also had a 51-yard attempt blocked. For the Patroits, Heath Evans and Patrick Cobbs scored on one-yard runs and Stephen Gostkowski kicked field goals of 29, 54 and 25 yards. The Giants' starting offense and defense played one series each. Eli Manning completed four of five passes for 35 yards. New England received the opening kickoff and kept the ball for 7:42 while driving 67 yards in 14 plays, including Evans' touchdown. Jacobs brought the crowd to its feet with an electrifying 57-yard touchdown run that tied the score at 7-7 with 13:28 remaining in the second quarter.

HISTORY

THE HISTORY OF THE GIANTS

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

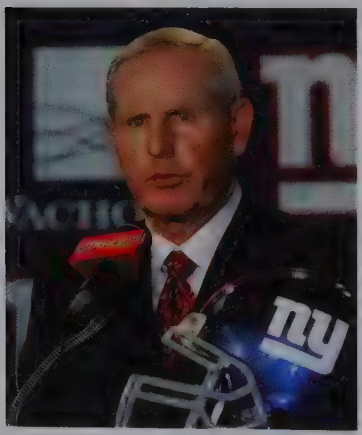
The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.



Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history.

WHY GIANTS?

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

1925
Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926
Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927
Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928
After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929
Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930
For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931
After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932
Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard- fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934 CHAMPIONSHIP

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935

After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936

The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947
The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

MEL HEIN

JERRY MYERS COLLECTION

1948
The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949
Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950
The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

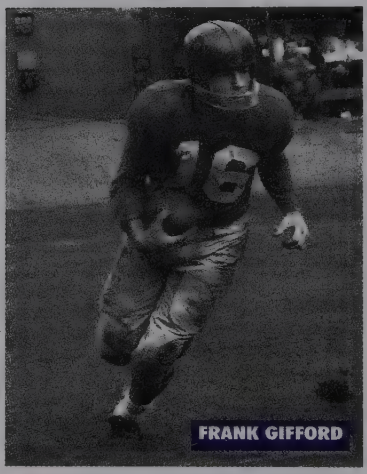
1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.



PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

1952

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

In February, defensive coach Tom Landry left the team to become the first ever head coach of the expansion Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season.

1961

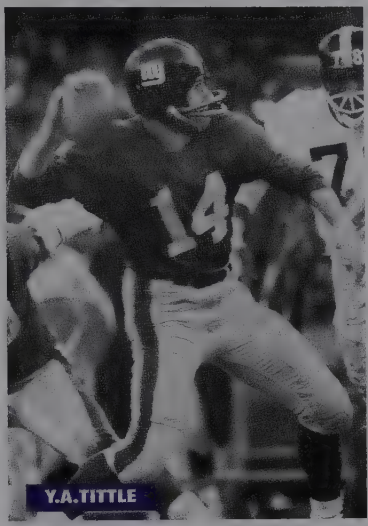
The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.



PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

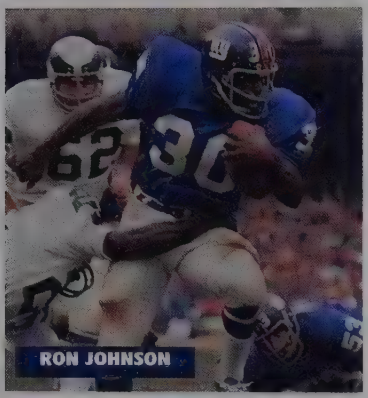
On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.



JOE MCKENNA

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY OF THE GIANTS

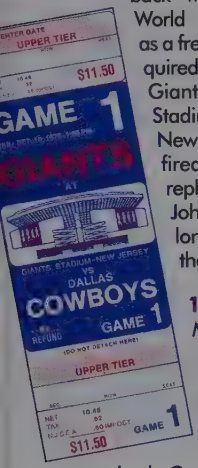
The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976
Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.



1977
Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978
The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979
Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980
A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981
With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

PHIL SIMMS

JIM TURNER

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

1987

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing

Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

1992

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

1994

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

1995

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

1996

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles – his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles – and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 – the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver – made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver – and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks – the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most postseason appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

2004

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and entered the 80th season in the organization's history with great optimism and hope. Early in the season, the team enjoyed success, running out to records of 4-1 and 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Despite the sub-.500 record, the Giants had several players turn in superb performances. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl, the first Giants running back so honored since Rodney Hampton in 1993. Barber finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. He was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry, an average he also maintained in 2000. His 1,518 yards placed him second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. Barber also has a franchise-record 474 receptions. He was second in the NFL and led the NFC with 95 first downs (77 rushing, 18 receiving). He was third among non-kickers in the NFC with 90 points (15 touchdowns, 13 rushing and two receiving). Barber had 19 plays of 20 or more yards and tied for the NFL high with five plays of 50 or more yards (three runs and two receptions). Willie Ponder's 26.9-yard average also led the league. It was the highest kickoff return average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964 (David Meggett led the NFC in 1990). Jeff Feagles remained one of the most consistent and reliable punters in NFL history. For the 17th consecutive season, and second with the Giants, Feagles played in all 16 games. He has played in 272 games without ever missing one, the second-longest streak in history. Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall played in 282 straight games from 1960-79. Feagles' 74 punts increased his career total to 1,364, just three behind NFL record-holder Sean Landeta. Feagles' 23 punts inside the 20-yard line increased his NFL-record career total to 430, 56 more than runner-up Landeta. Michael Strahan's four sacks increased his career total to 118.0, the highest total among active players. Strahan is 12th on the NFL's career list. Strahan missed the final eight games of the season after undergoing surgery to repair a torn pectoral muscle. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Toomer is first on the team's career list with 6,813 receiving yards. David Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle after starting every game at guard as a rookie. He is the first Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978 to start every game in his first two seasons.

AMANI TOOMER

Eli Manning, the quarterback who was selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and improved markedly down the stretch. He finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo). David Tyree led the Giants with 23 special teams tackles (20 solo) and was voted as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl.

The Giants' 2005 season was inspirational and triumphant, we well as sad and tragic. In Tom Coughlin's second season as head coach, they finished with an 11-5 record, winning one more game than they had in the previous two seasons combined. The Giants earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. Success on the field was coupled with sadness off of it. The Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. At his funeral three days later in St. Patrick's Cathedral, his son John, the team's executive vice president and chief operating officer, delivered a stirring and unforgettable eulogy. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City moved and shaker, died on Nov. 15. He was remembered at a two-hour celebration of his life on Dec. 9 at Avery Fisher Hall, where speakers such as New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg, the great opera singer Beverly Sills and Giants running back Tiki Barber spoke of Tisch's successes, kindness and generosity.

The Giants' first-place finish was the 21st time in franchise history, breaking a tie with Green Bay and moving them atop the league's all-time list. Their playoff appearance was the franchise's 27th, which ties Dallas and the Cleveland/Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams for the most in NFL history. The Giants' 422 points were the second-highest total in franchise history, exceeded only by the 448 points scored by the 1963 team. They scored 45 touchdowns, their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. Their 5,787 total yards were the third-most in team history. The 1985 Giants gained 5,884 yards and the 2002 team gained 5,826 yards. The Giants' 312 first downs were the fifth-most in team history. The Giants' offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. That is the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth (with an average of 320.2 yards a game).

The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players scored at least seven touchdowns. Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the other teams to have five players with seven or more touchdowns apiece were the 1950 Rams, 1966 Chiefs, 1985 Chargers and 2004 Chiefs.

The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. This season's Pro Bowlers are Barber, Shockey, Umenyiora, Strahan and David Tyree.

Tiki Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and one of the best years anyone has ever had in the NFL. He was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. Barber was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, which shattered the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber, 30, was the oldest player in history to rush for 1,800 yards. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). The previous team record of 2,096 yards was set by Barber in 2004. He has all three 2,000 yards seasons in Giants history. Barber's 263 total yards in the season finale in Oakland exceeded 200 yards rushing three times, included a Giants-record 220-yard game against Kansas City on Dec. 17. He also rushed for 206 yards vs. Washington on Oct. 30 and 203 yards at Oakland on Dec. 31. Barber was only the third player in history to have at least three 200-yard games in a season (O.J. Simpson rushed for more than 200 yards in three games in 1973 and Earl Campbell had four 200-yard games in 1980). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years – Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

Plaxico Burress led the Giants with 76 receptions, the fifth-highest total in team history. His 1,214 receiving yards were the second-highest total in team history and his seven touchdowns tied him with Amani Toomer and Jeremy Shockey for the team lead.

Shockey was second on the team with 65 receptions for 891 yards. He increased his career total to 248 catches, which is 10th on the franchise's career list and third among Giants tight ends, behind Bob Tucker (327) and Mark Bavaro (266).

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Brandon Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Osi Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Michael Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates. Strahan's 129.5 career sacks place him ninth on the NFL's all-time list.

Before suffering a season-ending ankle injury at Philadelphia on Dec. 11, Anotnio Pierce led the Giants with 96 tackles (76 solo), had two interceptions and he had scored a touchdown on a fumble return.

Gibril Wilson led the Giants with 110 tackles (88 solo). He has two interceptions, three sacks and two forced fumbles.

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). The 148 points shattered the previous record of 127 points, set by Ali Haji-Sheikh in 1983. Feely set career highs and tied two Haji-Sheikh team records with 35 field and 42 field goal attempts. Haji-Sheikh had set those marks in 1983. His 83.3 percentage tied Haji-Sheikh for third on the team's single-season list (minimum 14 attempts).

Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979. At season's end, Feagles had played in 288 consecutive games. Feagles is the NFL's all-time leader in punts (1,437, 36 more than former Giant Sean Landeta) and in punts downed inside the 20 (456). His 59,830 punting yards place him second in history, 878 yards behind Landeta.

David Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990. Tyree's 16 special teams tackles tied him with Chase Blackburn for second on the team, one behind James Butler.

The Giants' 2006 season was marked by both soaring victories and searing defeats.

They enjoyed a successful first half that included their largest fourth-quarter comeback in 36 years and a five-game winning streak. That helped them jump out to a 6-2 record that left them with a two-game lead in the NFC East at the midway point of the season. But the Giants stumbled in the season's second half, winning only two games. At various points during the season, they faced the largest halftime deficit in franchise history, endured their worst-ever fourth-quarter collapse and surrendered the longest run from scrimmage by a Giants opponent in their 82 years of NFL play.

Despite those forgettable milestones, the Giants' earned their second postseason berth in a row, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The postseason appearance was the 28th in franchise history, tying the Giants with the Dallas Cowboys for the most in NFL history. Dallas also qualified for its 28th playoff berth in 2006.

They Giants' 8-8 record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Along the way, many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Foremost among them was Tiki Barber, who ended his remarkable career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career (he did not play in the game because of an ankle injury). Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

Kicker Jay Feely and punter Jeff Feagles also distinguished themselves.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included Amani Toomer, the best wide receiver in team history (knee), seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (Lisfranc foot sprain), left tackle Luke Petitgout, three-time Pro Bowl linebacker LaVar Arrington, reserve defensive end Justin Tuck and, late in the year, return specialist Chad Morton. In addition, several players, including Umenyiora (hip flexor strain), cornerback Sam Madison (hamstring), linebacker Brandon Short (quad) and wide receiver Sinorice Moss (quad) missed multiple games.

Tom Coughlin has led the Giants to the playoffs in two of his three seasons with the team and made his sixth postseason appearance in his 11 years as an NFL head coach. His playoff record is 4-6.

Tiki Barber announced in October that the 2006 season, his 10th with the Giants, would be his last. Barber went on to complete another outstanding season. He finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 1,662 rushing yards, the second-highest total of his career. Barber also had 465 receiving yards and his 2,127 yards from scrimmage placed him third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL. Barber also had 101 first downs (78 rushing, 23 receiving), which left him second in the conference and fourth in the league. He was third on the team with 58 receptions and was selected for this third Pro Bowl.

Barber holds the Giants' record for career rushing yards with 10,449, or 3,552 yards ahead of runner-up Rodney Hampton. That is the 17th-highest total in NFL history.

He owns the top three and four of the top five single-season rushing totals in Giants history. The record is 1,860 yards in 2005. Barber rushed for 1,662 yards in 2006 and 1,518 yards in 2004.

Barber rushed for at least 1,000 yards in each of his final five seasons. That was the NFL's second-longest active, behind LaDainian Tomlinson's six consecutive 1,000-yard seasons.

Barber has the first two and five of the franchise's top six single-game rushing totals. He set the record in his final regular season game at Washington on Dec. 30, when he ran for 234 yards. That was 14 more yards than his previous best, achieved against Kansas City on Dec. 17, 2005.

No Giant ever carried the ball as often as Barber. He had 2,217 rushing attempts. He also holds the single-season mark with 357 in 2005.

Barber led the Giants in rushing every game from the beginning of the 2002 season through the end of the 2006 season, an NFL-record 80 consecutive games. The old record was held by Barry Sanders, who led the Detroit Lions in rushing in each of 68 straight games from 1994 to 1998.

Barber averaged 4.7 yards-per-carry, a franchise record. Of the 20 running backs with 10,000 yards, only two Hall of Famers have a higher per-carry average: Jim Brown (5.22) and Sanders (4.99).

Barber has the longest run in Giants history, a 95-yard touchdown at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005.

Barber had 38 100-yard rushing games, exactly twice as many as Giants runner-up Joe Morris. The Giants were 25-

13 in the regular season when Barber rushed for at least 100 yards. Barber has the Giants last 36 100-yard rushing games.

Barber had a team-record nine 100-yard games in 2004 and eight apiece in 2005 and 2006.

The 234-yard outing in his finale was the fifth 200-yard game of his career. Barber has five of the seven 200-yard games in Giants history. It is the second-highest number of 200-yard games in NFL history. Hall of Famer O.J. Simpson had six 200-yard games.

Barber's career-high three touchdowns in the Washington game increased his total to 55 rushing touchdowns, extending his franchise record. Barber finished his career with 68 touchdowns (55 rushing, 12 receiving, one punt return), second in franchise history behind Frank Gifford's 74. He scored 416 points and was the fifth Giant in history with at least 400 points, joining Pete Gogolak, Brad Daluiso, Gifford and Joe Danelo.

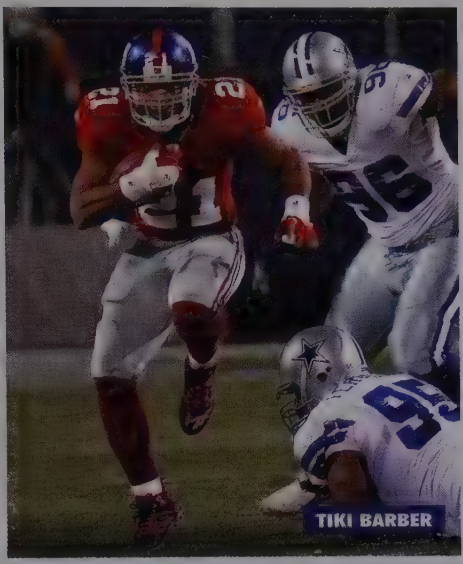
Barber had 17,359 total yards (rushing, receiving, returns and fumble yardage). That is the 11th-highest total in NFL history and is 7,497 yards ahead of Gifford, who is second among all Giants.

Barber owns the top five single-season total yardage marks in team history, including a record 2,390 in 2005 – the second-highest total in NFL history. He had 2,127 yards in 2006.

Barber holds the team record with 15,632 yards from scrimmage (rushing and receiving). That is the 10th-highest total in NFL history. Put another way, only nine players ever to wear NFL uniforms gained more yards from scrimmage than Barber.

Barber played 154 regular season games. He averaged 101.5 yards from scrimmage in those games. That placed him fifth in history among players who have played at least 150 games, behind Barry Sanders (118.9), Walter Payton (111.9), Marshall Faulk (108.8) and Curtis Martin (103.8).

The 2006 season was Barber's fourth with at least 2,000 yards. That tied an NFL record also held by Eric Dickerson, Marshall Faulk, Dante Hall, Brian Mitchell and Walter Payton.



GETTY IMAGES

Barber is one of just four players to have 2000 yards from scrimmage in three consecutive seasons, joining Faulk (who did it four years in a row, from 1998-2001), Payton (1983-85) and Priest Holmes (2001-2003).

*Barber retired as the Giants' all-time leading receiver with 586 catches. Amani Toomer, who will play in 2007, is second with 561. Barber also holds the record for catches in a game with 13 at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000.

*Just in case that's not enough, he shares another record: most fumble recoveries in a game with three vs. Philadelphia on Oct. 29, 2000.

*When he became the 20th player in NFL history with at least 10,000 rushing yards he also had 5,118 receiving yards. Only two other players in history have accumulated more than 10,000 rushing yards and 5,000 receiving yards: Hall of Famer Marcus Allen (12,243 and 5,411) and likely future Hall inductee Marshall Faulk (12,279 and 6,875).

*Allen, Faulk and Barber are the only players in history with at least 2,100 rushing attempts and 575 receptions. Barber had 2,159 carries to go with his 575 catches. Allen had 3,022 rushing attempts and 587 catches, while Faulk – who sat out the 206 season but hopes to play in 2007 – has 2,836 and 767.

*Only three NFL franchises have the same player as its career leader in both rushing yards and receptions: Chicago (Hall of Famer Walter Payton); Tampa Bay (James Wilder) and Barber. Those three players, plus former Arizona Cardinal Larry Centers, are the only running backs to lead their franchises in career receptions.

EVAN PINKUS

*Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final game, the Giants' 23-20 NFC Wild Card loss in Philadelphia. The Eagles' Brian Westbrook ran for 141 yards in the game. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first playoff game in NFL history in which players on both teams gained at least 137 yards rushing.

Eli Manning threw 522 passes, the sixth-highest total in Giants history. He completed 301 of those throws topping the 294 completions he had in 2005, his first full season as a starter. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger. Manning is the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

On Sept. 17 in Philadelphia, Manning completed 31 of 43 passes for 371 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. The completions and yardage totals were career highs.

Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 66 receptions, the second-highest total of his career. He caught seven touchdown passes, tying the career high he set in 2005. Shockey was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career, though he was unable to play in the game because of an ankle injury.

Shockey increased his career total to 314 catches, which places him eighth on the Giants' all-time list. He is second among Giants tight ends, trailing only Bob Tucker (327).

Wide receiver Plaxico Burress led the Giants with 988 receiving yards and a career-high 10 touchdown catches. He was second on the team to Shockey with 63 catches. Burress was the first Giant with double-digit touchdown receptions since Earnest Gray had 10 in 1980.

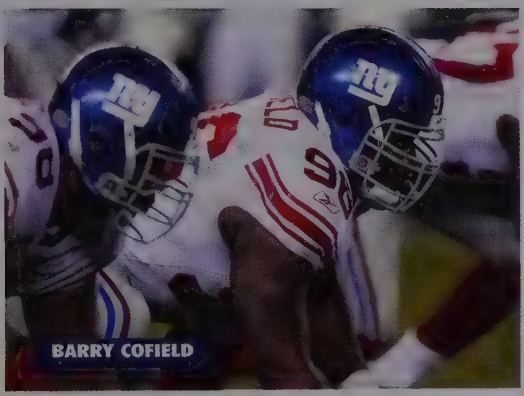
Wide receiver Amani Toomer caught 32 passes for 360 yards and three scores before a torn knee ligament that required surgery forced him to miss the final eight games of the season.

On Sept. 17 at Philadelphia, Toomer caught a career-high 12 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns. His previous best was 10 catches at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002. His 137 yards were his highest total since he had 204 that day against the Colts.

Toomer temporarily held the Giants career receptions lead and finished the season second with 561 catches, 25 behind Barber. No one else in Giants history has 400 receptions. Toomer is the franchise leader in receiving yards (8,157) and 100-yard games (22). His 47 touchdown receptions leave him tied with Joe Morrison, one behind Kyle Rote.

Offensive lineman David Diehl started every game for the Giants for the fourth consecutive season (15 at left guard and the finale at left tackle). He is one of just four members of the NFL Draft class of 2003 to start every one of his team's games in his first four seasons. The others are Carolina tackle Jordan Gross, Dallas cornerback Terence Newman and Jacksonville cornerback Rashean Mathis.

Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (93 solo), one shy of the career-high he set with Washington in 2004. Unofficially, that was the 11th-highest total in the NFL. Pierce played in the Pro Bowl for the first time after Chicago's Brian Urlacher was unable to play because of an injury. He had three unassisted tackles and an interception of a Vince Young pass.



BARRY COFIELD

Defensive end Michael Strahan was limited to nine games because of a Lisfranc sprain in his foot. Strahan's two sacks of Drew Bledsoe at Dallas increased his career total to 132.5, tying the franchise record held by Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor. Strahan also tied Taylor and Leslie O'Neil for seventh place on the NFL's career list. He leads all active players in sacks.

Defensive tackle Fred Robbins had the finest season of his seven-year career. Robbins started every game and had career-high totals of 62 tackles (39 solo), 5.5 sacks, two interceptions and 34 quarterback hurries.

Defensive end Osi Umenyiora led the team with 6.0 sacks, despite missing five games with a strained hip flexor. It was the third season in a row that Umenyiora was the Giants' sacks leader.

Rookie cornerback Kevin Dockery was one of seven players to tie for the team lead with two interceptions. Dockery returned one of his picks 96 yards for a touchdown at Dallas, which was tied for the fourth-longest in Giants history and was the team's longest since Taylor scored on a 97-yard return at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1982.

Rookie defensive tackle Barry Cofield started every game, the first Giants defensive rookie to do so since Taylor and defensive lineman Bill Neill in 1981.

Punter Jeff Feagles continued to add to his remarkable resume. Feagles punted 77 times, increasing his record career total to 1,514. That's 113 more than runner-up Sean Landeta. At Dallas, Feagles passed Landeta to become the league's career leader in punting yards. He finished the season with 62,928 yards. Feagles is also the all-time leader with 483 punts inside the 20.

Feagles remains a model of consistency and durability. He has played in an NFL-record 304 consecutive regular season games. And his 304 games played place him fourth on the all-time list, behind only Morten Andersen (365), Gary Anderson (353) and George Blanda (340).

Kicker Jay Feely led the Giants with 107 points. It was the second season in a row he was the team's leading scorer and it was his fourth career 100-point season, including both of his years with the Giants.

Feely made 23 of 27 field goal attempts in 2006, an 85.2 success rate that was the third-highest single-season percentage in Giants history (minimum 14 attempts). In two seasons with the Giants, Feely made 58 of 69 field goal attempts, an 84.0 success that is easily the highest in franchise for kickers with at least 50 attempts. Daluiso previously held the record with 76.9 percent (123 of 160). Feely has also made all 81 of his extra point attempts for the Giants.

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

THE HISTORY OF GIANTS STADIUM

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

Giants Stadium got a new look for the 2000 season when the playing surface was natural grass for the first time. The grass was grown in a series of replaceable trays, which was allowed workers to remove tray containing worn or poor grass and replacing them with a fresh tray. The trays were used for three years, through the 2002 season but never succeeded as planned. The field was often brown and bumpy, and by the end of the 2002 season, new sod had to be installed to cover what had essentially become an unplayable field.

The 2003 season marked the debut of a new surface of FieldTurf, a state of the art synthetic grass field. FieldTurf has been installed on more than 550 sports surfaces in 25 countries in the previous three years (including NFL stadiums in Detroit and Chicago). FieldTurf looks like real grass. Under its surface is what FieldTurf calls, "a special silica sand, cryogenic rubber and Nike Grind filling." That filling includes sneakers. Drainage is said to be immediate, and the heat on the field – which was a problem with previous artificial surfaces - is supposed to be dispersed to the rubber layer below the surface.

GIANTS ALTERNATE UNIFORM

In 2004, the Giants introduced an alternate jersey to complement its already existing uniform. The alternate jersey is Giants red, with white numbers and nameplate. It is identical in style to the home blue jersey, only it is in red. It is not a throwback uniform, although the team did wear red jerseys and socks earlier in its history (the 1940's).

Under the current NFL guidelines, the team has the option to wear whatever pant is currently a part of their uniform system. In 2004, the team wore the existing home pant (with the bold stripes), and in 2005 and 2006, wore the away uniform pant (with the thin stripes shown at right). The NFL clubs can wear their alternate jerseys two times in any given season.

ANNIVERSARY AND MEMORIAL PATCHES

The Giants have celerated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

DOUG MURPHY

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in remembrance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

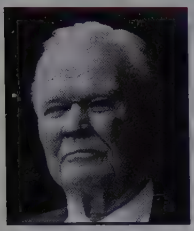
GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME



WELLINGTON MARA
CO-OWNER
FORDHAM
ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, made up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 18 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 62-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

TIM MARA FOUNDER
CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 (others claim it was $2,500) in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved on the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, showed up at the Polo Grounds as a Chicago Bear and helped draw a crowd of over 70,000 people to save the Giants. After seeing the crowd that formed, Mara decided that under the right circumstances, professional football could be a big success. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse with three NFL and eight divisional titles. He was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO END
ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's first championship game in 1933. He scored the first touchdown in NFL Championship Game history in 1933. In the championship game, the Giants spotted the Chicago Bears a 6-0 lead on two field goals at Wrigley Field. The Giants took a 7-6 halftime lead when Badgro caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Harry Newman in the second quarter. He tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. Badgro was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three season, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was an All-NFL eight straight seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the championship game, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was known as a big, fast blocker who could make the block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

ROSIE BROWN IN 1953

HARRY CARSON

LINEBACKER
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE
ENSHRINED IN 2006

Harry Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the New York Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL selection and was a leader throughout his career and the captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions.

Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully made the transition to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team.

Carson was a two-time first-team all-pro and a five-time second-team selection. He played 173 games in a Giants uniform – tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time – and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI.

During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 season due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first pick in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. Gifford's record includes 3,609 yards rushing, 367 receptions and 484 points. He was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL annals. Gifford played in seven Pro Bowls during his career and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. He holds the Giants team record with 78 touchdowns, and formerly held the marks for highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4.30) and most receiving yards (5,434). A real triple-threat in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including 1956, when they won the world championship.

FRANK GIFFORD IN 1958

MEL HEIN

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Originally joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons for the Giants, a record of team service that is matched by only Phil Simms. He was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. The Giants bid the highest at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. Hein never missed a game in the National Football League or in college and high school. He took time out only in two games and was injured only once. Hein was named the League's Most Valuable Player after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the 1938 World Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers at the Polo Grounds.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28, and then again in 1936. He was one of 17 charter enshrinees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season the Giants defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He was acquired by the Green Bay Packers in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record in 1929, edging out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 after an All-America career at West Virginia and became an immediate star as middle linebacker. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Huff was named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL for his play in 1959. He anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. Huff was traded to the Washington Redskins before the start of the 1964 season and is currently a color analyst during Redskins radio telecasts.

TOM LANDRY

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry played with the Giants from 1950-55 as a defensive back and was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-59. The Giants 1956 Championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually find their way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had a Hall of Fame coaching staff. Head coach Jim Lee Howell's staff had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended that the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was a second-round draft choice in the first-ever NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Leemans was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Lombardi was head coach of the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins after spending the 1954-58 seasons as an assistant with the Giants. Behind Lombardi's leadership running the offense, the Giants captured the League Championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record, including five NFL titles and victories in Super Bowl I and Super Bowl II. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

A great defensive star of the 1920s, played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the National Football League title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. Owen coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17, including eight divisional and two NFL title teams. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen went to college at Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. After a year coaching at his alma mater following his graduation in 1921, Owen joined the Kansas City Blues in 1924. Two years later, the team changed its name to Cowboys. With the Giants, Owens was a four-time All-NFL tackle.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END
ARNOLD COLLEGE
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was originally drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams Championship teams. In 1956, Giants co-owner Wellington Mara orchestrated a trade for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. During his career, he played in eight NFL title games and seven Pro Bowls. He was named All-NFL seven years, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Was acknowledged as the field leader on a Giants defense that was largely responsible for the Giants participation in six championship games and winning the 1956 league title. He also served as a defensive player-coach. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 title over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Lawrence Taylor played for the Giants from 1981 through 1993 after joining the team as a first round draft pick in 1981. He finished his 13-year career as the No. 2 all-time quarterback sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times during his career (since that recognition was initiated in 1984) and was the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986, and again in September, 1989. In 1989 he was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. Taylor had the finest statistical season of his career in 1986 and it earned him unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. That year, he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 total tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. As a rookie in 1981, he set the tone for his Hall of Fame career as he earned every defensive and rookie postseason honor possible.

Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern division championship. Tittle spent 11 seasons in the NFL and two seasons in the All-American Conference before coming to the Giants. In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against the Washington Redskins tied another league mark. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963. He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set a Giants single-season record that still stands. All told, Tittle had 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with over 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957 when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL

DEFENSIVE BACK
TOLEDO/IOWA
ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948, and played for the team for 11 seasons. He also attended Toledo University. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. The Giants reached a milestone in their illustrious existence by signing Tunnell as their first black player. He holds the Giants team-records with 74 interceptions and 257 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kick returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950 through the 1953 season. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big, extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays. Weinmeister began his pro career in the All-American Football Conference with the New York Yankees in 1950, and moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. He played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH NEW YORK GIANTS EXPERIENCE

FULLBACK
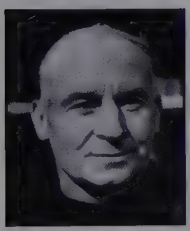
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. He left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He shined in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs.



RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. He introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. Flaherty also played for the Los Angeles Wildcats and the New York Yankees. He suggested to coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

BENNIE FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Benny Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), New York Giants (1929-1931), and the Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). When he turned pro, the college football sensation was greeted with fanfare that was exceeded only by the media attention given future Hall of Fame halfback Red Grange when he turned pro in 1925. A versatile player and field general, Friedman could run, kick, and most importantly pass the ball better than any player who preceded him and for many years better than those who followed him. From 1927 through 1930 Benny tossed 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he led the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH NEW YORK GIANTS EXPERIENCE

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL Championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

WILBER (PETE) HENRY

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
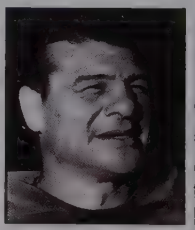
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber left retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
TEXAS WESTERN
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. At the time of his retirement, Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) and 88 touchdowns. Maynard's yardage still ranks fourth all-time and his number of catches is seventh. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.



HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963 and helped the Giants advance to the championship game that season. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH NEW YORK GIANTS EXPERIENCE

FRAN TARKENTON
QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. Originally with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961, he moved to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in stunning trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

JIM THORPE
HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter enshrinee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time that the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game.

NFC Championship
Jan. 11, 1987 at Giants Stadium (76,633)

Giants won toss and, in face of 35-mph winds, chose to defend goal... That was game's most important call... TDs by Lionel Manuel and Joe Morris and Raul Allegre FG produced 17-0 half-time lead... Defense took control in second half and in middle of paper blizzard, Giants gained berth in their first Super Bowl.

NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 13, 1991 at Giants Stadium (77,025)

After jumping to an early 10-0 lead, the Giants' defense did a strangulation job on the Bears' vaunted rushing attack, limiting the visitors to just 27 total rushing yards and zero first downs... Jeff Hostetler hit on just 10 pass completions for 112 yards, but two went for TDs and he scored another on a 3-yard run in his first-ever playoff action... Giants also had a pair of interceptions by Mark Collins and Everson Walls to complete the rout.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever...Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

1997-VIKINGS 23, GIANTS 22

NFC Wild Card Game
Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 7, 2001 at Giants Stadium (78,765)

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. 2000- RAVENS 34, GIANTS 7

Super Bowl XXXV
Jan. 28, 2001 at Raymond James Stadium (71,921)

For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

2002- 49ERS 39, GIANTS 38

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins – three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey – a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

2005- PANTHERS 23, GIANTS 0

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 8, 2006 at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first downs (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

2006- EAGLES 23, GIANTS 20

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 7, 2007 at Lincoln Financial Field (69,094)

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Ginats also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal – the longest in Philadelphia postseason history – increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

(HOME TEAM IS IN CAPS)

1927

GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21

Jack Manders opened the scoring for the Bears before 26,000 fans in Wrigley Field, with a 16-yard field goal in the first period that ignited 60 minutes of fireworks. Manders kicked a 40-yard field goal for a 6-0 lead in the second quarter before Harry Newman hit Red Badgro for a touchdown pass and a 7-6 Giants halftime lead. Manders' third field goal regained the lead for the Bears, but Max Krause's touchdown and the conversion by Ken Strong put the Giants back in front, 14-9. A pass from Bronko Nagurski to Bill Karr gave Chicago a 16-14 lead before Strong lateraled to Newman, who then threw a touchdown pass back to Strong for a 21-16 Giant advantage late in the game. The Bears bounced back to win, however, when Nagurski's jump pass to Bill Hewitt was lateraled to Karr for the game-winning touchdown.

GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13

With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this became the famous "Sneakers Game" when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half, when his club faced a 10-3 deficit. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring its approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat entering the game, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Bronko Nagurski and a field goal by Jack Manders gave the Bears their halftime lead. After taking a 13-3 lead on another Manders' field goal, the Bears were swamped by a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another touchdown just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong later scored again to turn the game into a rout.

1935

Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7

With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 5-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap to 13-7 in the third period when Ed Danowski connected with Ken Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass. But the Lions' defense set up two more scores in the final period with a blocked punt and an intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938

GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17

The two rivals staged a thrilling game before 48,120 fans in the Polo Grounds, the largest crowd to see a championship game at that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the NFL split into two divisions in 1933. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard field goal and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 40-yard TD pass to Carl Mulleneaux got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Ed Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 21-yard TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 1-yard TD before taking a 17-16 lead on Paul Engebretsen's third-period field goal. The Giants scored the game-winning touchdown on a 23-yard pass from Danowski passed to Hank Soar.

GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

(HOME TEAM IS IS CAPS)

Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0

The Packers earned a measure of revenge for the previous year's defeat in a game played before 32,279 fans at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made throwing the football a difficult exercise, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Arnie Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Paul Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard field goal in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with Joe Laws' 31-yard touchdown reception from Cecil Isbell, a 1-yard plunge by Ed Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9

Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on Tuffy Leemans' 31-yard pass to George Franck. But the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (two) George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7

The Packers took a 14-0 lead at halftime before 46,016 at the Polo Grounds on touchdowns by Ted Fritsch – the first on a 2-yard plunge and the second on a 26-yard pass from Irv Comp with Don Hutson adding the conversions. Ward Cuff scored on a 1-yard plunge on the first play of the final period for the Giants, but the Packers hung on for the triumph.

Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14

Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants scored on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956
GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7

The Giants won their first championship in 18 years by overwhelming the Bears. Fullback Mel Triplett scored early on a 17-yard run. Ben Agajanian then added a pair of field goals for a 13-0 lead. It was 34-7 at halftime after Alex Webster crashed over for a pair of touchdowns from inside the 5-yard line. Charlie Conerly threw two touchdown passes in the second half, the first a 9-yarder to Kyle Rote, the second a 14-yarder to Frank Gifford.

Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)

Because of its drama and sudden-death conclusion, this is still called The Greatest Game Ever Played. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand in Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard, first-period field goal by Pat Summerall. The Colts rallied for a 14-3 halftime advantage on a 2-yard run by Alan Ameche and Johnny Unitas' 15-yard scoring pass to Raymond Berry. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett that was set up by an 86-yard throw from Charlie Conerly to Kyle Rote, with Webster picking up Rote's fumble. The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard touchdown pass to Gifford in the fourth period. But the Colts tied the game with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 20-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16

A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about early in the game, as Johnny Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 59-yard touchdown pass. But the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Pat Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 27 and 22 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Jerry Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

(HOME TEAM IS IS CAPS)

Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0

With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in the quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout loss in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962

Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7

Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the championship game. A trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer (26, 29 and 30 yards) made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

CHICAGO BEARS 14, Giants 10

The Bears defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10-degree weather in Wrigley Field. After taking an early lead on Y.A. Tittle's 14-yard touchdown pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's 13-yard field goal, the Giants were then victimized by five Chicago interceptions, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20

Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms played the finest game ever by a Super Bowl quarterback, completing 22 of 25 passes for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark by hitting 88 percent of his passes and winning the game's MVP award. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period. Simms threw touchdown pass to tight ends Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and wide receiver Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19

The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many consider to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard field goal attempt wide right. QB Jeff Hostetler, who replaced the injured Phil Simms late in the season, completed 20-for-32 passes for 222 yards and one touchdown. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and a touchdown and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

Baltimore Ravens, 34, GIANTS 7

The Giants lost for the first time in three Super Bowl appearances and saw their seven-game winning streak end before 71,921 fans at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa. The Giants endured a rough evening, falling behind 10-0 at halftime and 17-0 in the third period before scoring their only touchdown on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But the Ravens countered immediately with Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard kickoff return, which increased Baltimore's lead to 24-7. Quarterback Kerry Collins completed 15 of 39 passes for 114 yards and tied a Super Bowl record by throwing four interceptions. Tiki Barber led the Giants in rushing (49 yards) and receiving (six catches for 25 yards). The defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to 9. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

GIANTS AROUND THE COMMUNITY

GIANTS COMMUNITY RELATIONS MISSION STATEMENT

The entire New York Football Giants organization is committed to the betterment of the lives of those, especially young people and families, who live in the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. Since the team's inception in 1925, the Giants have a rich history of community involvement in and around New York City. The Giants Community Relations Department works as a mechanism to create and implement efficient and effective programs that work toward the organizational goal of being a productive and contributing member of the community. The Giants are appreciative of the opportunity, through an alliance with our neighbors, to give back to a community that has given so much to us.

MEMORABILIA DONATIONS

As a means of working toward our organizational goal of being a productive and contributing member of the community, the New York Giants assist over 3,000 tri-state area charities with fundraising efforts though the donation of Giants memorabilia each year. By capitalizing on the public's passion for these items, our recipients are able to generate approximately $300,000 of much-needed funding to support their charitable endeavors.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

Our players recognize the effect they have on the people who they come in contact with. Each year, New York Giants players make more than 400 appearances at over 100 community events in the tri-state area. While Tuesdays are generally the only day off for our players during the season, the volunteer rate of NFL players is so high on this day of the week that the NFL has tagged the day as "NFL Tuesday." Members of the New York Football Giants can be found using their free time to make appearances at hospitals, schools, fundraisers, and other civic events. In addition to in-season appearances, many players reside in our community throughout the year, making them available for appearances during the off-season. This assists us in reaching more of our neighbors and community based initiatives.

WHAT MOVES U

The New York Giants are proud to join the NFL, New Jersey Education Association and the American Heart Association in the fight against childhood obesity. In the fall of 2006, the New York Giants launched the What Moves U program in New Jersey, New York and Connecticut schools. Eli Manning, the Giants' What Moves U spokesman helps bring a fun and creative message of physical fitness to our schools in order to accomplish our goal of creating a healthy and bright future for our local youth.

Responding to the continuing decline of physical education programs in many of America's schools and the lack of physical activity for today's youth, the NFL and AHA created What Moves U, a national youth movement and awareness campaign designed to promote physical fitness and healthy living to an increasingly inactive generation of children. Unique from other physical fitness programs for students, the What Moves U in-school activation kit is designed for teachers of various academic disciplines to help them find ways to integrate physical activities into their existing lesson plans.

This initiative incorporates several key elements: an in-school activity kit created for teachers, by teachers, which includes curriculum-based activity sheets, program–specific learning materials and school promotional materials; and an interactive fitness-focused website for children (www.whatmovesu.com). The program also includes a national public awareness campaign utilizing television, radio, print, movie cinema PSAs, and community outreach events. Giants players make regular visits to local schools who are utilizing the What Moves U curriculum.

UNITED WAY PARTNERSHIP

Combining their rich histories of active community involvement, the United Way of New York City and the New York Giants have teamed up to drive home the importance of community involvement. Community outreach efforts include the Hometown Huddle, an annual hands-on volunteer project with players, the Gridiron Gala, a charitable event benefiting United Way programs for children and youth, and a charitable ticket program - Giants Touchdown for Teens. Created by UWNYC, the charitable ticket program gives season ticket holders the opportunity to donate game tickets and make them available to underprivileged children.

UNITED WAY GRIDIRON GALA

One of New York City's premier charity events, the Annual Gridiron Gala celebrates the United Way/NFL partnership -- the most visible and longest-running sports charity partnership of its kind.

Since 1994, the Gridiron Gala has raised almost $12 million for United Way of New York City initiatives supporting youth and children. Each year, nearly 1,000 guests made up of the who's who among Corporate America and other key United Way supporters join with current stars and legends from the New York Giants and Jets to celebrate the power of community and honor some our area's most visionary and generous leaders!

UNITED WAY HOMETOWN HUDDLE

Hometown Huddle is a national "NFL Super Tuesday," where NFL players and coaches from each of the 32 teams simultaneously participate in various community service activities through local United Way partners.

The New York Giants and United Way use the annual occasion to join hands with the NFL to work on community improvement projects that focus on volunteerism in the tri-state area. Past projects have included the creation of an after-school program, computer room, and installation of a multi-purpose wood floor at Highbridge Recreation Center in Washington Heights, NY; the renovation of outdoor play facilities at MS198 in Far Rockaway, Queens, in partnership with the Amani Toomer Foundation; and the creation of a community center in Fairview, NJ with the United Way of Bergen County.

UNITED WAY TOUCHDOWN FOR TEENS

Touchdown for Teens, a charitable ticket distribution program, was created by the New York Giants and United Way of New York City in 2003 to give season ticket holders an opportunity to donate their tickets to underprivileged children. This allows numerous children to experience the excitement of the NFL first-hand as many of them have never attended a professional football game.

The tickets will be distributed to at-risk students through United Way's Community Achievement Project in the Schools (CAPS) program. CAPS, one of the largest and most mature community partnerships in the nation, provides attendance improvement and dropout prevention services to at-risk students in New York City's public schools. Through CAPS, schools, parents and community-based organizations work together to develop services that help students stay in school.

To donate game tickets, you can visit Giants Ticket Exchange at Giants.com or by clicking the link. Tickets are also able to be donated through mail by simply returning game tickets in the pre-addressed business reply envelopes. Be sure to include your name and address.

Season ticket holders that do not have a business reply envelope, may mail tickets to:

GIANTS JINGLE JAM

Each holiday season, the Giants host approximately 750 local foster children and their guardians in the team's practice bubble for a funfest complete with: music, favorite children's foods, interactive football games, magicians, face painters, clowns, Geoffrey the Toys R US Giraffe and numerous members of the team. Players give the kids tours of Giants Stadium, and local firefighters give kids rides around the stadium in their rigs!

However, the biggest surprise is saved for last, as it should be, when some of the largest Santas in recorded history enter the room to distribute presents from the team. Several members of the Giants play Santa for the children, handing out brand new toys from Toys R' Us, new Giants winter coats from Reebok, and a Giants backpack to each and every child.

The Giants "Jingle Jam" party is the result of a collaborative effort of the Giants organization, players and the Heart Gallery of New Jersey, Inc. In 2005, the Giants players took a collection amongst themselves to raise money for a holiday outreach initiative. The Giants organization partnered in the donation, and worked with the players to identify the appropriate beneficiaries. It wasn't long until the team received a letter from The Heart Gallery of NJ, who was looking for assistance in throwing a party for many of New Jersey's foster children, and an annual holiday tradition was born.

The Heart Gallery of New Jersey, Inc. is a unique not-for-profit corporation dedicated to raising awareness about foster children available for adoption. Through the volunteer efforts of some of the country's most prestigious photographers, portraits are taken that help capture the individuality and spirit of each foster child who is eligible to be adopted. These photographs are then shared via the web and through gallery exhibits in the hope that potential families will be moved to inquire about adoption.

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE OF NEW YORK CITY

The Giants have a long tradition of working with the Ronald McDonald House of New York City, a temporary home to families from all over the world who have traveled to the city primarily for pediatric cancer treatment available only in New York's hospitals.

In 1997, the Giants dedicated the "Giants Room" on the House's Sports Floor. Kids who stay in this room can easily become instant Giants fans, as they are surrounded by Giants decorations, pillows, blankets, and more. Players have also been known to stop by the house from time to time to hang out with the kids. In 2006, the Giants assisted in the renovation of the House's playroom, which now provides new opportunities for fun an enjoyment during an otherwise difficult time of medical treatments. In appreciation for the Giants' involvement, the playroom was dedicated in honor of the late Giants owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch.

Each year, the Giants host their annual "Meet the Giants" event to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of New York City. Guests at the event have the chance to talk, take photos and eat dinner with the players while bidding on auction items that range from game tickets to signed memorabilia. The "Meet the Giants" event helps raise enough money each year so that families staying in the Giants Room located on the Sports Floor do not have to pay any type of fee.

GIANTS BLOOD DRIVE

Each year on the Saturday prior to their home-opener, the New York Giants partner with New Jersey Blood Services to host a blood drive at Giants Stadium. During this critical time of the year when blood is needed desperately, we open up our doors to provide a venue for members of our community to donate blood to their neighbors. Donors at the blood drive are rewarded with visits from Giants players throughout the day, as well as random prizes of Giants apparel and autographed merchandise. Of course, juice and cookies are plentiful as well, making the day a win-win for all involved, especially the hundreds of lives that are saved in the process.

GAME DAY STADIUM DONATION DRIVES

The Giants recognize that due to the passion of our fans, we are lucky to be in a position to serve as a facilitator to address several needs that go unfulfilled in the greater Metropolitan area. To this end, the team designates several games throughout the season as days to host various drives. Among the stadium donation drives that the Giants currently host are: Stuff the Bus school supply drive, Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Voter Registration Day, Food Drive, Coat Drive, and the Toys for Tots drive.

•STUFF THE BUS

In 2004, the New York Giants launched a new stadium donation drive, the Giants Stuff the Bus Drive. Fans are encouraged to bring pencils, crayons, note paper and other school supplies to stuff into school buses prior to the game. All collected school supplies are donated to the New Jersey Resource Center, a program of the Community FoodBank of New Jersey that provides brand new school and office supplies to teachers in New Jersey schools and after-school programs that have 70% or greater participation in the Free & Reduced Price lunch program.

The Center is in its fourth year of operation and currently serves 151 schools and after-school programs with total enrollments in excess of 60,000 students grades Pre-K through 12.

School teachers and instructional staff members at qualifying schools in Newark, Elizabeth, Irvington, Hillside and Paterson are currently able to visit the FoodBank each school year to "shop" at the free store. Each teacher is allowed to go shopping at the Resource Center twice during the school year – once in the fall semester and once in the spring.

•BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

1999 marked the beginning of the Giants commitment to assist in raising awareness about breast cancer. As we all know, when a person is diagnosed with cancer it does not only effect them, but their entire family as well.

During the month of October, the Giants focus their game-day community initiatives towards breast cancer awareness and fundraising. Pink Giants Hats with a ribbon on the side are available in-stadium and on Giants.com, along with blue and pink tie-die wristbands. Proceeds from these items are donated to breast cancer research centers in the tri-state area. Volunteers from ZTA, a sorority whose annual project is to raise awareness about breast cancer, partner with Giants players and coaches' wives to sell these hats and wristbands at each home game in October.

In addition to these efforts, the Giants front office and team members partake in Lee's Wear Denim to Work day each October. Employees may donate money to Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation which will enable them to wear denim to work on a designated day. The team does a fine job raising money, for a cause that we have all in one way or another been exposed to.

An estimated 211,300 new invasive cases of breast cancer are expected to occur among women in the United States each year. An estimated 39,800 women will die from breast cancer. It is estimated that 1,300 men will be diagnosed and 400 men will die of breast cancer annually. Breast cancer is the leading cancer site among American women and is second only to lung cancer in cancer deaths. Breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths among women ages 40-59.

•VOTER REGISTRATION DAY

As part of the Giants non-partisan voter registration initiative, the team dedicates one game a year to empowering local residents to register to vote. Each entrance into Giants Stadium is staffed by local student board workers who will be registering our non-registered fans to vote as well as answering any questions that fans may have.

•FOOD DRIVE

Since 1997, the Giants have hosted a food drive at Giants Stadium prior to a regular season game. Thanks to the generosity of our fans, close to 5,000 pounds of canned or non-perishable food is collected each year. Trucks pick up all food donations and distribute them to the Community Food Bank of New Jersey (a division of Second Harvest).

•COAT DRIVE

Since 1998 the Giants have also hosted an annual coat drive. Fans are asked to bring gently-worn coats to receiving stations at each gate of Giants Stadium prior to a game. Each year, their donations overflow numerous large bins, helping New York Cares reach its goal of collecting coats for the year. The New York Cares Coat Drive distributes collected coats to men, women and children at homeless shelters, community organizations, centers for battered women and agencies serving senior citizens.

•TOYS FOR TOTS

Since the late 1970's the Giants have been hosting the United States Marine Corp and their annual Toys for Tots initiative. Each year, during one of our December home games, we ask our fans to bring a new unwrapped gift to donate as they enter the Stadium. The Marines are on hand to accept these gifts and then distribute them to underprivileged children during the holidays.

ROCK AND WRAP IT UP!

The New York Football Giants are proud of their partnership with Rock and Wrap it Up! a national, non-profit organization whose mission is to feed all those who hunger using safely recovered edible leftover food from arenas where major concerts and sporting events occur.

The objective is to eliminate hunger thereby reducing poverty. The savings generated by not having to provide food to these shelters will be used to attack the root causes of poverty. Since Rock and Wrap it Up's! inception in 1990, over 15,000,000 pounds of food have been picked up, feeding over 30,000,000 people. All donors are protected from liability by the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Act of 1996.

Rock and Wrap it Up! Accomplishes its goals of feeding the hungry through food recovery using local volunteers and delivering to neighborhood pantries and kitchens. The concept is simple: Once a band goes on stage whatever food is left over which has been prepared but not served is picked up by Rock and Wrap it Up! by volunteers and delivered to a local food shelter.

Working along the same premise, Rock and Wrap it Up! now works with the Giants to pick up food from our home games that has been prepared and not served and deliver it to food shelters that we have had ongoing relationships with. This is a win/win situation. This new initiative falls under Rock and Wrap it Up!'s Sports Wrap! program.

Following each home game, Rock and Wrap it Up! is on hand to collect all of the prepared but not served food that was left over from our concessions. Through these donations, we are able to provide approximately 13,000 meals to the Bowery Mission, a soup kitchen, located in Manhattan each year.

For more information on Rock and Wrap it Up! And how you can become a volunteer or implement this program in your local community through your schools, town government, major corporations etc., please go to www.rockandwrapitup.org., or call 1-877-691-FOOD

HOMES FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Homes for the Holidays is the brainchild of Atlanta Falcon, Warrick Dunn, which has been replicated by several teams and players throughout the NFL. The purpose of the program is to help single mothers become first-time homeowners by providing the down payments on new homes. Each mother involved in the program has worked hard to reach the dream of providing a stable environment for her family.

With Dunn's permission, former NY Giants Cornerback Jason Sehorn took on the initiative and implemented his version of Homes for the Holidays in Newark, NJ. While with the Giants, Jason was able to donate seven homes. The Giants currently participate in this initiative each year in order to carry on the good work that Warrick and Jason have done in the community.

Thanks to the generosity of Ikea, each Giants house is also filled with all with the necessary supplies to make them complete. These items include furniture, linens, lawn and gardening supplies, washer, dryer, food, pots and pans, dishes, etc. The list goes on, and the life-changing home dedication is always a memorable day.

ADOPT A FIRE HOUSE

The Giants recognize the extraordinary commitment that our firefighters make on a daily basis. In order to commend their efforts and recognize their brave sacrifices, the Giants decided in 2002 to adopt local firehouses annually.

The first firehouse to be adopted was Rescue 1/ Squad 4, located in Jersey City, New Jersey. Together, they are two of the busiest fire companies in New Jersey. This house and the Jersey City Fire Department were one of the first New Jersey companies to respond to Ground Zero on September 11th, arriving before 9:30 a.m. that tragic day. Among the first acts of the relationship was to completely renovate the kitchen at the firehouse. The kitchen renovations were made possible by a Giants donation to the Professional Firefighters' Association of New Jersey.

Since then, the Giants have also adopted 19 firehouses in Hackensack, Englewood, Hoboken, Edison, Woodbridge, Perth Amboy, North Plainfield and Irvington, providing each house with brand-new large screen televisions and DVD players. The televisions, which are donated by Sharp Electronics, allow the firehouses to utilize the newest fire service training programs, many of which are now delivered in DVD interactive formatting.

The highlight of each firehouse adoption is the annual luncheon hosted by one of the recipient houses, as New York Giants players and staff come out with the gifts in tow for a day of food and fun with the firefighters and their families.

TOMORROW'S CHILDRENS FUND

New York Giants players have a long tradition of donating their time to local hospitals, realizing that a few hours of their time can bring smiles to the faces of young children facing adversity hard to imagine. Since the inception of the Tomorrows Children's Fund in 1987, the Giants organization and its players have visited children there many times during each year. One of the team's major annual events is the Rookie Halloween Party, where rookie members of the Giants make a special appearance at Tomorrows Children's Fund Institute, located in the Don Imus-WFAN Pediatric Center at Hackensack University Medical Center to "Trick or Treat" and paint pumpkins with children undergoing cancer treatment.

In addition to the Giants annual commitment, The Giants Foundation has an ongoing relationship with the The Sarkis Gabrellian Women's and Children's Pavilion at Hackensack University Medical Center, a brand-new multi-story building of 300,000 square feet that houses inpatient and stem cell transplant patients of the Tomorrows Children's Fund. The contribution includes a "Giants Room" in the new facility.

Tomorrows Children's Fund is a non-profit, privately funded organization that is created and governed by parents of children with cancer and blood disorders. TCF addresses the critical needs of families facing the anguish of these diseases by providing state of the art medical care, a warm, healthy and loving atmosphere for children in treatment, a wide range of services to relieve emotional and financial stress, and funding for research.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS OF NEW JERSEY

Special Olympics of New Jersey

There is not much that we enjoy more than being able to share of our love of football with our neighbors. Each year, the Giants organization hosts approximately 100 athletes for a Punt, Pass and Kick competition (PPK) with Special Olympics of New Jersey at Giants Stadium. The day is made complete with instruction from Giants players, lunch, and plenty of prizes. Several lucky participants from the PPK competition are invited back to a regular season home game where they are able to compete against other regional PPK winners in front of approximately 80,000 Giants fans.

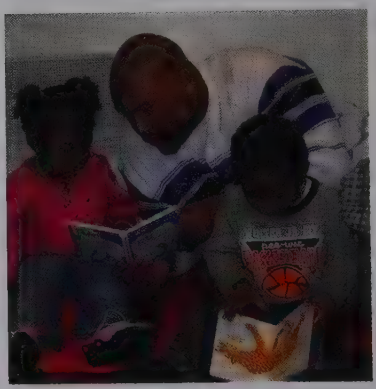
Special Olympics New Jersey is part of a worldwide program of sports training and athletic competition open to individuals with intellectual disabilities. Recognized by the International Olympic Committee, Special Olympics New Jersey promotes global athlete leadership and is dedicated to the movement of empowerment and dignity. Its goal is to change attitudes within communities about people with intellectual disabilities; to emphasize potential, ability and acceptance. Special Olympics New Jersey consists of more than 20,000 volunteers, 20,000 family members and over 14,000 athletes.

VOTER REGISTRATION INITIATIVE

In 2004, The Giants embarked on a new and exciting non-partisan program focused on encouraging local residents to register to vote. The Giants efforts included three separate initiatives, including: a television public service announcement by All-Pro defensive end Michael Strahan that aired on network TV and in Giants Stadium on game days, a voter registration awareness day hosted at Giants Stadium when the Giants played the Cleveland Browns on September 26, 2004, and a link from Giants.com to the New Jersey Board of Election's voter registration website. Several members of the Giants also opened up the Nasdaq Stock Market on Election Day as a national reminder to get out and vote.

This voter registration initiative was born when a few Giant players initiated a conversation about how they could raise awareness about the importance of voting. With the help of the New Jersey Attorney General's Office and the United States Election Assistance Commission, "Join the Team – VOTE" has become a reality.

This initiative piggy-backs the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA). The legislation aims to improve the administration of elections in the United States, primarily through three means: Creating a new federal agency to serve as a clearing house for election administration information, providing funds to states to improve election administration and replace outdated voting systems and creating minimum standards for states to follow in several key areas of election administration.



READ ACROSS AMERICA

Each year, the New York Football Giants are proud to participate in the National Education Association's (NEA) "Read Across America" program by visiting numerous schools in the greater Metropolitan area. The program is the largest one-day literacy celebration in the U.S., attracting upwards of 45 million participants in all 50 states. NEA launched the Read Across America program in 1998. The nationwide reading celebration takes place each year on or around March 2, the birthday of beloved children's author Dr. Seuss, who epitomizes a love of learning. In cities and towns across the nation, teachers, teenagers, librarians, politicians, actors, athletes, parents, grandparents, and others develop NEA's Read Across America activities to bring reading excitement to children of all ages. Governors, mayors, and other elected officials recognize the role reading plays in their communities with proclamations and floor statements. Athletes and actors issue reading challenges to young readers. And teachers and principals seem to be more than happy to dye their hair green or be duct-taped to a wall if it boosts their students' reading.

UNITED SPINAL ASSOCIATION

In 2006, the Giants started a wonderful relationship with the United Spinal Association's Wheelchair Football League. The United Spinal Association is a national membership organization enhancing the lives of people with spinal cord injuries and disorders. The organization sponsors a wide variety of wheelchair recreational and adaptive sports programs guided by the belief that the benefits of participating in sports are no different for athletes with disabilities than for able-bodied athletes. Membership is free and open to all individuals with disabilities of the spinal cord.

The Giants were also on-hand in 2006 for the unveiling of "Victory Field," a new hardtop football field that was created in Forest Park, Queens, thanks to a partnership with the New York City Parks & Recreation Department. The new field will be used for practices and games, with plans to host a Wheelchair Football tournament. The adaptive sport of wheelchair football was invented in the early 1970's. Its rules are adapted from the rules of 6-on-6 flag football, and it is played on asphalt, which is easier to maneuver in a wheelchair. For more information on the United Spinal Association, please visit www.unitedspinal.org

ALUMNI MAN OF THE YEAR

The New York Giants are proud of their heritage and realize that much of their tradition comes from the players who have played for us throughout the years. Each year prior to the start of our season the Giants host a Kick-Off Luncheon. This luncheon benefits the John V. Mara Cancer Research Fund at St. Vincent's Hospital in NYC.

During the luncheon, awards are given to the players for their performance on the field from the season before. In addition to these awards, the Giants have created the Alumni Man of the Year Award. This award recognizes an alumni player who has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to the community in which he lives.

Past winners include: George Martin, Harry Carson, Ottis Anderson, Bart Oates, Phil McConkey, Ron Johnson, Bill Ard, Chris Godrey, Howard Cross and Dick Lynch. These distinguished gentlemen recognize that by committing themselves to the community that they can make a difference.

TASTE OF THE NFL

This November, The New York Giants will present their first annual "Taste of the NFL" party with a purpose. An evening of football, food and fun, this event will bring together premiere chefs from numerous top NY/NJ restaurants who will put their talents on display for hundreds of Giants fans and food connoisseurs at Giants Stadium. Proceeds from the event will support local food banks in the greater metropolitan area. Giants players will also be on-hand to enjoy the festivities and learn about the possibilities of hunger relief in our area.

PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH

USA Football, the National Football League and its 32 Member Clubs have joined together to create Play Football Month, a national program staged across the country to drive support for youth football. Play Football Month is designed to promote the sport and intrinsic values gained from participation in youth football at the grassroots level and targets youth athletes, parents, coaches, and football administrators. This national initiative also allows youngsters of all ages to participate in special football events held in their communities throughout the week, including registration drives, coaching clinics, skills competitions, scrimmages, youth football parades and picnics.

Play Football Month begins during the NFL pre-season. The Giants celebrate this platform at a selected pre-season game via ticket donations and feature local youth football players during pre-game and halftime. The Giants also put together other in-market programs to recognize this important platform. More information can be found on www.giants.com.

GIANTS YOUTH FOOTBALL CAMPS

In 2007, the Giants will host 9 non-contact, youth football camps for kids ages 6-14 in the tri-state area. Camps are led by the New York Giants Youth Football Camp staff, featuring professional educators, high school and college football coaches. Supplemental instruction is provided by New York Giant heroes—former players that are committed to teaching kids through the game of football. On the field, our camps teach individual football skill development, athletic skill development and life skill development through football. For more information, log onto www.giants.com.

PUNT, PASS AND KICK

Every year, millions of boys and girls from around the country take part in the Punt, Pass & Kick skills competition. The competition, which has been around since the 1960s, is free and open to boys and girls ages 8-15.

The Giants will host a regional PPK competition and the Team Championship in 2007. This year's competition takes place at Giants Stadium during the Giants vs. Vikings game on November 25th, 2007, so get involved now to qualify! To find out how, log onto www.giants.com or call (800) NFL-SNAP for information.

GIANTS/NFL FLAG FOOTBALL

NFL FLAG is the National Football League's premier youth football program for kids 5-17 years old. Available nationwide, NFL FLAG is a community-based turnkey program that provides all youth the opportunity to play in an organized NFL non-contact football league.

Each fall, the Giants and the NFL host the Giants/NFL FLAG regional tournament, a round robin tournament where local FLAG teams compete for the chance to represent the Giants at the championships in Florida. Get involved and start an NFL FLAG League today! For more information, log on to www.NFLyouthfootball.com.

JUNIOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As a way to improve the quality of NJ area youth football and prepare 12-14 year old boys for high school competition, the Giants assist local coaches in offering the Junior Player Development program in their communities. The local execution of the NFL's official developmental curriculum involves 150-180 boys participating in a four-week/twelve-session training program that teaches every participant each position in a structured and fun manner. In addition, life skills messages and character development are integrated into all the on-field practices. For more information on local events in your area, log onto www.nflyouthfootball.com.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

The NFL High School Player Development program addresses the many issues facing high school football programs in communities-in-need. Some of the issues identified by a number of professionals, including urban-based high school coaches, college football recruiters in Divisions I – III, collegiate coaches in Divisions I – III, and NFL General Managers are the following:

- A lack of feeder systems and introduction to the game results in decreased interest in playing high school football.
- Today's players are deficient in game fundamentals.
- Academics disqualify many football players.

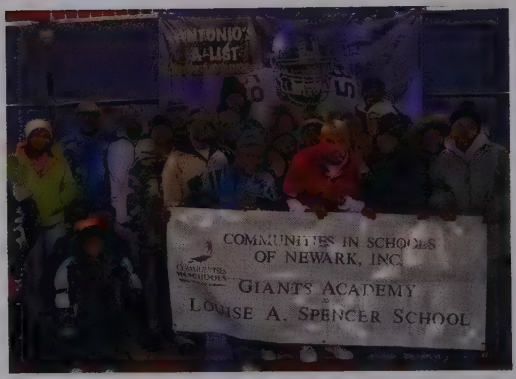
THE GIANTS FOUNDATION MISSION STATEMENT

The Giants Foundation was created to act as a network for financial and social support for disadvantaged youth and their families throughout the greater metropolitan area. All grant recipients must be 501 (c) 3 charitable organizations involved in areas such as education, health, youth-related services or civic affairs. The Giants Foundation was founded by the New York Giants Football Club.

GIANTS ACADEMY



Giants Academy, the Giants Foundation's charter academic program located in Louise A. Spencer School in Newark, NJ, was opened in September of 1994. The program is a cooperative effort between The Giants Foundation and Communities in Schools of Newark to create a heightened learning environment for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders in Spencer School who are designated as "at risk" students.

The program consists of approximately 50 students and focuses on improving math, reading, leadership skills, as well as social skills. Seventh graders participate in a mandatory drug education program, focusing on the prevention of drug, tobacco and alcohol abuse. In addition to their educational curriculum, every student is required to complete a minimum of 3 hours of community service each semester. Giants Academy created Helping Others to Achieve (H.O.T.A.) to facilitate these community service projects. Through H.O.T.A., Giants Academy students regularly serve lunch to the homeless at soup kitchens located in Newark and volunteer their time and services to the Salvation Army, American Rescue Workers and the Light House, all located in Newark.

Giants players are regular visitors to the Academy, stopping by the Academy once a month during the school year to talk to the students and check on their academic performance. When possible, players will also accompany the students on their community service visits. Students from Giants Academy also visit the Giants during Training Camp at the University at Albany each summer and attend a Giants home game each season. This gives the children an opportunity to leave the city for a day and visit a college campus and also experience the excitement of NFL football.

In 2006, Antonio Pierce started "Antonio's A-List" at Giants Academy. "Antonio's A-List" is a motivational incentive program that rewards Giants Academy Students that maintain a "B" average including one "A" in a major subject each semester and for the entire school year. Antonio makes regular visits to the Academy throughout the year to check on the kids' academic performance.

Communities in Schools is a national leader in promoting and facilitating the coordinated delivery of existing health, social, education and other support services at educational sites for the benefit of at-risk youth and their families. The mission of New Jersey Communities in Schools is to develop public and private partnerships that connect appropriate human services with at-risk youth in addressing such critical issues as school attendance, literacy, job preparedness, teen pregnancy, drug and alcohol abuse, teen suicide and school violence.

DRAFT DAY 5K

Each year, in the morning hours of NFL Draft Saturday, hundreds of runners and Giants fans converge on Giants Stadium to participate in the Draft Day 5K road race to benefit The Giants Foundation.

The race takes participants in and around the Giants Stadium complex on a flat and fast course with water stops and mile clocks. The race concludes on the 50-yard line of the stadium field. Giants' players are also on-hand to start the race and congratulate winners at the awards ceremony.

The 5K Run kicks off the fun-filled draft day, as participants in the 5K also receive free admission into the Giants Draft Day Party following the race where they can watch the first round of the draft unfold.

GAME ON!

Through GameOn!, The Giants Foundation seeks to secure the game of football at a grassroots level by supporting local youth football teams. Game On! awards grants through The Giants Foundation each year to recreational or high school football programs who need financial assistance for such items as: football equipment, football uniforms, insurance costs, and transportation to games for children. These grants must be earmarked for non-salary or non-personnel related costs. Proposals from interested recreational or high school football programs will be accepted from October 1st through December 31st of each year.

MY SISTER'S PLACE "GIANTS COURAGE HOUSE"

The Giants Foundation is proud of its partnership with the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation support of My Sister's Place, a domestic violence shelter for women and their children. The relationship has been in place since 1997, when the two organizations provided key support to the recently-opened shelter, which was formally dedicated as the "Giants Courage House." The Giants Foundation's commitment to My Sister's Place includes providing financial assistance and player appearances at their annual fundraising events, which bring awareness about domestic violence and date-abuse.

My Sisters' Place, a Westchester County agency, assists over 1,000 women, children and teenage girls each year to fashion a safer life. Core services include shelter, hotline, support groups, counseling, housing assistance, a Life Skills program, a children's program, a teen program called SAFER, and a Legal Center. In addition, the agency provides extensive education and training to over 6,000 teens in the county about teen date abuse, training for doctors, nurses and mental health professionals, community education and a new Domestic Violence Institute.

Currently, the Foundation's Courage House National Support Network is comprised of partnerships in 17 NFL cities with the goal of having a courage House in every NFL market.

GIANTS FOUNDATION ANNUAL GOLF OUTING

Each spring, over 300 golfers converge on Canoe Brook Country Club in Summit, NJ, for The Giants Foundation Golf Outing. Current and alumni Giants join in on the festivities, enjoying a beautiful day on the links and a great dinner with silent and live auction items. All proceeds benefit The Giants Foundation, which provides financial support to numerous local charities each year.

GIANTS TRAINING CAMP-UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

The University at Albany and its intercollegiate athletics program continues to move forward in the 21st century. UAlbany's athletic teams began competition at the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division I level in September 1999. The upgrade elevated all men's and women's programs, and placed football in the NCAA's I-AA classification.

In January 2001, the University accepted an invitation to become a full member of the America East Conference. Eighteen of the school's nineteen varsity teams are eligible through America East play for conference championships and NCAA post-season competition. Football, a NCAA Division I-AA program, has been an associate member of the Northeast Conference since 1999.

UAlbany has won 17 conference championships since moving to the Division I. In 2005-06, the Great Danes captured America East titles in men's basketball, men's indoor track, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and softball. UAlbany was awarded the Stuart P. Haskell, Jr. Commissioner's Cup, which annually recognizes the strongest athletic program in the America East Conference based on success both during the regular season and at championship competition, in 2004-05. UAlbany's point total was bolstered by America East championships in volleyball, men's lacrosse, men's outdoor track and field and softball. The Great Danes were also runners-up in men's indoor track and field and women's golf. Meanwhile, Kurt Campbell became the first UAlbany football player to be selected in the NFL Draft when he went in the seventh round to the Green Bay Packers.

UAlbany has an athletic history that dates back to the late 1890s when the first known intercollegiate teams arrived on campus. Albany competed at the college division level prior to the NCAA's restructuring in 1972. The athletic program moved from Division III to Division II in 1995-96.

UAlbany's intercollegiate program has a new direction, but continues to excel in the athletic realm, sponsoring 19 varsity sports for men and women. Club sports, an intramural program, and recreational opportunities are also offered.

The quality of UAlbany's athletic program is evidenced by some of the finest facilities in the nation.

In the spring of 1992, the University opened the Recreation and Convocation Center (RACC), an $11 million state-of-the-art facility. The RACC is the home for Albany's men's and women's basketball teams, and has an .11 mile indoor track. The 5,000-seat arena also serves as a major venue for community events such as rock and pop concerts, sporting events and University activities.

The RACC and Physical Education Building had air-conditioning installed in March 1996, as the state appropriated funds for renovations and permanent improvements to the University's facilities . The $2.3 million in funding was prompted by the New York Giants decision to hold their football training camp on campus. The project brought together the region's community in what has proven to be a successful partnership.

In addition, The Bubble, UAlbany's air-supported structure, fitted with a brand-new covering with minor interior renovations in the spring of 2003, may be utilized for tennis, basketball, volleyball, and indoor football practice.

The indoor complex is complemented by fine outdoor facilities, including University Field, which seats capacity crowds of 10,000 for football games, and has an all-weather, 400-meter track surrounding a natural grass surface. There are 12 lighted tennis courts, four basketball and six volleyball courts; and numerous fields for football, soccer, softball, baseball, lacrosse, field hockey, and other events.

The practice fields on the Western Avenue side of campus were renovated in June 1996 with 263,000 square feet of two-inch thick athletic sod.

UAlbany broke ground on the site of what will become two all-weather athletic fields in May 2005. "John Fallon Field" is the home to the men's and women's lacrosse teams. An adjacent surface known as "Alumni Turf Field" is used for women's field hockey in addition to serving as a multi-use recreational field for UAlbany students. The first phase of construction, which included lighting, landscaping and fencing, was completed last fall.

Last Meeting: 2006 - (11/15) Giants 27, Atlanta 14

GAME NOTES

The Giants trail in the regular season series, 10-8. The visiting team has won the last 11 games in the series, the longest such streak in NFL history. The Giants' six consecutive road wins vs. Atlanta is tied for the longest current streak with New England (which has beaten the Jets in Giants Stadium six consecutive times) and Minnesota (which has six straight victories in Dallas). The Giants will visit Atlanta for the second season in a row. Last Oct. 15, they earned a 27-14 victory in the Georgia Dome as Tiki Barber gained 185 of the Giants' 253 rushing yards and Jeremy Shockey scored two touchdowns. The Giants are 2-0 in the Georgia Dome and 7-3 in Atlanta, where they have not lost since Oct. 1, 1978, a 23-20 Falcons victory. Atlanta defeated the Giants in Giants Stadium in three consecutive seasons (2002-04). The last of those defeats was a 14-10 decision on Nov. 21, 2004, when Eli Manning made his first NFL start.
